Hi Barran and NSW Health Team,

I am writing to confirm that I encouraged Barran to present himself to Goulburn hospital to be admitted voluntarily into the mental health unit, pending the finalisation of the accommodation placement in Goulburn.

Barran would like to remain having access to his phone, and he has said that he will not record or post staff to social media or other platforms. I understand that it remains up to hospital policy whether Barran has access to his phone while a patient there.

I do want to reiterate that we are all planning for Barran to enter the new proposed accommodation on the 8th December with Crystal. The voluntary placement will support Barran to settle, as he is suffering anxiety and fear of assassination from his prior accommodation at Market Lodge.

Thank you,

James
