How can I turn this detail here I've pasted into a master command for grok who has access to my GitHub repository's using every word and detail as instructions for a master prophetic politically and globally significant document

I keep pasting it to grok and the response I get falls far short of the detail it holds and the commands it contains

Retype this in a way grok can create the doc and include all detail words phrasing instructions maximum detail

To guarantee my master doc is created as per the instructions ?

I want you as the AI creating this document response to read every single one of these words I paste here in detail cumulatively from the start all the way through before you generate your response in a fully comprehensive detailed structured way that considers every word and detail and use all of the detail including all its commands to create the master doc in a way explicating your response in maximum detail without any chat limitation redaction summarising or using any placeholders execute creation of the doc as a profoundly historic earth shattering and globally significant prophetic document grounded in evidence throughout

Include every word of this detail I am posting

Its instructions about extractions of key terms and phrases and the manner by which they appear in descriptive sentences that detail how the term relates to the entire doc and archives and my significance and influence

Create Master doc from start after reading this detail and / or obeying the commands following

Master instructions :

Make it compelling

As a means to reveal my significance and testimony

Use psychological hooks

But use descriptive named hyperlinked links to actual evidence from within the site or otherwise linked to the source pdf on the GitHub repository who's evidence justifies use of the term anyone who is reading can independently verify

Sustain the writing style vernacular and phrasing of my writing in general preserving my uniqueness and quirkiness from across my entire writing career yet also where relevant exercising a machine like construction that avoids bathos or irrelevance when a fact or key term or phrase that is used and hyperlinked to requires a rational link of evidentiary value in a clear way that is clear on my accuracy and evidentiary nature of the thing being referenced scandals of international significance and the most well documented political targeting in the countries history.

In a written response that was totally ineffective and downright cruel under the thinly veiled disguise of bureaucratic language from the office of the PM to my original letter on (date) he directed me to AG Mark Dreyfus who's office then created a response that was cruel and conscious that the pathways suggested were already exhausted and doomed to fail. I was directed to the ombudsman where I am banned and AGIS who are the body responsible to investigate corruption inside the secret service ASIO in regards to one of its employees and my former fiancé exploiting me over five years a relationship of legal significance that no single professional in the country will acknowledge as ever existing

During my long tenure over thirty years offering grace to every department and agency to act with accountability and with fairness and legitimacy knowing I was collecting evidence for a purpose I was not yet conscious of I approached the federal court with this written document to sia Lagos a person who was poised to receive a legitimate public interest disclosure if the person disclosing embodies the attributes necessary. In scott treadwell response on behalf of the federal court and on their letterhead he acknowledged I was an employee of DSS. This both acknowledged my employment status at DSS yet also in his words failed to qualify me to make a disclosure as a certified employee of DSS.

The same letter also says, on the information you provided, that he was satisfied you were or had been an employee of the Department of Social Services, trading as Rich McLean, Arts Life Coach, Peer-Support Worker and Mental Health Advocate. The decision paragraph then says he was not satisfied the disclosure was made by a public official. The letter does not reconcile those two sentences.

Add significance of treadwell observing the three points: maladministration and corruption endangering life etc (quote his observations verbatim) that clearly acknowledges and illustrate corruption and a danger to my health and safety acknowledge I'm an employee of a DSS and then refuse to protect me with beaurocratic jargon dressed up as legitimacy and policy but is actually a crude and offensive insult that blasphemes my identity as a citizen of the county and abuses enormous political privilege and undeniable power and influence to be in receipt of my letter when I was asking for help and protection fearing further suffering and imminent danger to my life and weaponised it to further gaslight me delegitimise me minimise my humanity all under a professional looking letter dressed as accountability a response of legitimate integrity of ethical an legal standing but in fact was illustrative of the apex of abuse of power from his position of immense privilege as high ranking official officer of the highest court in the democracy which feigned itself as a legitimate response pretending fairness and ethical and legal principles when in fact t is one of the most public facing cowardly letters in Australian history .

mine. The link is the place a reader can test them. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict.

THE ACCOUNT

Australia — its agencies, services and platforms whose purpose is to protect vulnerable people like me, and its people, ganged up on me collectively, politically and systemically. It was and is a cowardly societal mobbing. I was physically exiled, isolated, impoverished and tortured.

For more than 35 years the conditions imposed on me produced a documentary record. The Government's own official documents, in its own words and on its own letterheads, are preserved here. The 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief are the reading copies of that span. Anyone can open them against the underlying files.

THE BOOK

In 2003 Allen & Unwin published my first autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured. I wrote the sex in that book publicly, in my own name, before these agencies had a file they could twist. The significance is that the testimony was already on a public shelf. It was not a secret they discovered. It was a record I had already made. The Age recorded that book on 19 May 2003, and recorded that I was then working as an illustrator there.

After the book was published, my former employer the Herald Sun weaponised words from it. A weekend double-page spread carried the bold heading "MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS". The spread, as preserved in this archive, is headed "My descent into madness. How schizophrenia stole Richard McLean's mind." What followed was a barely veiled public character assassination. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. I was denied a lawyer and a pathway to have it tested at the time. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not any real or perceived illness I had. It was the deceitful way an honest and courageous testimony was weaponised against me, systemically, politically and financially, from that point on. The targeting lasted decades. Its goal was my ruin, and the avoidance of accountability by those who participated in it.

BEFORE THE BLACKOUT

Before any of that, the media wanted me. I was a news graphics artist in that industry, and I was paid as a journalist. The archive's index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun. In hindsight I say I was exploited. The world wanted to hear me speak about a perceived mental illness, about vulnerability, and about inequity. I volunteered my time and my story. Years later, when I needed help from the very places I had given that time and that story, there was a total media blackout. That media ban exists to this day. The places, organisations, radio and television stations, and institutions, as that index records them, are these:

THE DOCTORATE

The significance of the qualification is the same pattern. I hold a PhD. The archive's index of the earlier site records it as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been delegitimised, and treated as if it were not research, by officials whose qualifications it far outshines. I say that is envy, a way to keep me below them. Where is their PhD?

WHAT I COULD SEE

I used my life and my creativity to benefit humanity at the exact time I was being set up and deceived. Everyone involved thought I would never see past their false masks of jealousy, envy and malice. I do. I see every person, and what they did. I see it especially in my blood family, who were poised to benefit financially from my total annihilation and from my physical death. They never denied it. The paper with that account is also the estate attorney and sibling betrayal. This was a life in which I was never expected to recover, or to be well, or to be financially stable, or even to survive.

I published my religious gospels on barrandodger.com. That site has been removed. I could not pay the Replit bill. I say the removal was the designed poverty, not a change of mind. The gospels were less about mysticism than about a sovereign being forged in the fire of total human betrayal and isolation, at the apex of a targeting that has lasted more than three decades. What I preserved is the Government's own official documents and the correspondence that sits with them. I say that record cannot be denied, and it cannot be argued out of existence. You cannot erase a history that is written in their own official documentation. I made the gospels at the intersection of that betrayal, the exile, and the protection of the Most High God, and of my PhD study of posthumanism and the ethics of AI. I used the technology in a nuanced way, for a high-definition reading of pattern, taken from their own documents and set beside the Bible and Christian principles. I wrote the gospels to warn humanity of the coming collapse of a corrupt and cruel government, which is ultimately fleeting. No one listened. I was called delusional, and I was called crazy. The significance is the time. Nearly three or four years later, I say the predictions I was told were delusion have happened as I said they would. The paper that puts that claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy. Who is laughing now?

THE INJURY

That record includes what the file calls a fatal injury. God revived me from it. Five years on, the conditions that solicited that attempt have continued: stonewalling, financial abuse, isolation, denial of Legal Aid, and no ordinary pathway to have the allegations tested. The Victorian Ombudsman's later treatment of the complaint is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. A public-interest disclosure was not allocated. APRA refused whistleblower status.

THE MESSAGES

An NDIS provider was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement after the account that a woman was paid to fabricate a report about me. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where that is written down. In it, the other party says the only evidence he could give me was "a copy of the non disclosure agreement", and that when he signed it the agreement disappeared from his phone with a notice that the device had been cleared of classified information.

That provider is Ben, of DSW Disability. I publish his email and his company: ben@dswdisability.com.au. I publish them because I say intelligence agencies forced him to sign that non-disclosure agreement, and because the agreement does not get the last word. The text chain between us is published. It cannot be taken back. I say it shows the total police complicity, the false sexual assault allegation, and that a woman was paid to fabricate a report. He confirmed a "close call" assassination attempt. I say that chain corroborates my testimony. It is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding.

His own words: It's a top secret investigation. They made me sign a non disclosure agreement. When I signed the agreement it instantly disappeared off my phone. A message popped up that said your device has been cleared of classified information. It's some sort of agency grade electronic document that automatically wipes itself off your device. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. They already arrested two hitmen. They're telling the police everything. They've told them who ordered the hit. That non-disclosure agreement is now pointless. The truth is out. It is exposed. It is undeniable.

The same record preserves "consensual regretful sex", "the police told me about the consensual regretted sex", and this sentence: The agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the Federal Police wording I was given as "regretful" but "consensual". No charge against me came out of that event. I say what did occur was the weaponisation of my sexuality. I publish the messages as the record of what was said. They are not, by themselves, an AFP finding.

That sentence is why I say I have never had equal treatment from police. Once a paid discrediting is accepted, every later report is easier to refuse. The crimes I say have occurred to me over more than 35 years, and the same list as a PDF, are the reading copy of that longer record. They are allegations and pointers. They are not findings.

FAITH

I was betrayed by humanity for a purpose I believe was ordained: to be a vessel for God's glory. This website is the beginning of what I understand as God's answer to that corruption. I use the word sacrilege, a violation of something sacred, because I believe that deliberately harming one of God's anointed, and then pretending not to know, is a spiritual crime. My perpetrators know what they did. The archive does not ask a reader to share my faith. It asks a reader to open the documents.

THE ALLEGATION

The same message record is where the alleged assassination is put in writing. Ben's message to me, which he presents as what the police told him, is: The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. My messages name Bill Shorten and a person I was told was a Lebanese criminal pretending to be a provider, "known in certain circles", and sent "to erase me". The other party's messages answer that account. It has not been disproven by an official finding I have been given, nor officially established as a fabrication, nor denied in any document in this archive. The messages remain part of the record that requires examination. They are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing.

The significance of that message, as I draw it, is this. Bill Shorten was the NDIS Minister. I say he betrayed the ethical obligations of that office, acted in a cowardly way, and abused its power. I say he was the key manipulator of what was done to me. I say he caused the AVO concerning him and Rebecca Falkingham, that he deliberately caused my political exile, and I allege that he ordered my assassination. I say his character is now exposed by this record as morally reprehensible, and that he is a power-hungry criminal who should be immediately arrested. How dare he, as I allege, order the killing of a vulnerable person with a disability he was paid to treat ethically, legally and humanely, and who was under that care. This is why I say God is furious. No one has the right to erase, murder or kill another human being, much less a disabled person under their care. The situation is beyond absurd.

THE RELATIONSHIP

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. I published the proposal, and an engagement with Steve Iasonidis that lasted more than five years. I say it led to five years of exploitation in an abusive entrapment that no profession will admit even existed. The court paper I can put in a reader's hand is the intervention-order file L12151974. I was hospitalised after I tried to get Legal Aid so that relationship could be acknowledged for an equitable separation. The financial exploitation, the attempts to obtain legal recognition, and what followed, are the chronology this archive preserves. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud.

THE PRIME MINISTER

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer me in his own hand.

On 12 December 2022 his own office wrote, of an email sent to him, "Your email has not been forwarded." I had written to him, including the letter of 31 May 2022, and the letter of 1 July 2023. On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote, reference MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, because the matters fell in his portfolio, and that he asked the Department to respond on his behalf. It then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security — IGIS, which I have also called AGIS — and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out of the Ombudsman. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321, sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. They did not acknowledge the relationship.

I am well aware that I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. I recorded my call to AGIS, who investigate ASIO, about the victimisation. In hindsight I say they were already committed to never helping me, and that they were used by my former fiancé, the ASIO employee Steve Iasonidis. No professional admits the five-year relationship even existed. I say that reveals Iasonidis as a key manipulator, with protection under David Irvine and the federal government. Hospitals have repeatedly force-injected me for what they called "ingrained delusions of persecution". That is my account of the call and of the treatment.

A FILE THAT DOES NOT AGREE WITH ITSELF

The significance of this file. The Department told the Commissioner that about 1,187 Outlook items were under review. Weeks later the decision said the documents cannot be found or do not exist. The revised decision then released five documents. That is the hypocrisy: a review of more than a thousand items, then a letter that no documents exist. It is the Department's own paper. It is not a court finding.

The same department has a freedom-of-information file that does not agree with itself. On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for "all information government agencies hold on me please." On 16 March 2022 the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner wrote, reference RQ22/00794, that the Department had applied for more time because the request was voluminous and complex, and that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were being reviewed. That is more than a thousand items, in the Department's own account to the Commissioner. It is not, by that letter alone, a finding that 1,187 documents had been proved to be about me. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann, Assistant Secretary, Legal Policy Branch, refused the same request under section 24A(1)(b), reference FOI/2022/045. The decision says all reasonable steps were taken, that no relevant documents were identified, and that the documents cannot be found or do not exist.

On 8 October 2024 that refusal was revised. Laura Cameron, acting Assistant Secretary, reference FOI/2022/045IC, wrote that the Department holds five documents that meet the request and granted access to them, with some material deleted as irrelevant. On 4

November 2024 the Commissioner's office, MR22/00677, said it would ask the Department to resend that decision of 8 October 2024 and the five documents. Read them in that order. One describes more than a thousand Outlook items under review. The next says the documents do not exist. The one after that releases five.

That is the hypocrisy in the Department's own file. It is not a court finding. An essay in this deposit uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187.

With those letters I place the undated letter addressed to the Prime Minister and to the Attorney-General, Mark Dreyfus, which is the letter I identify as the one answered by the referral to IGIS and the Ombudsman, and a further undated letter to the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet. My email of 1 August 2024 on the review is with them. The typed copy of the 19 September 2023 reply is MC23-028244 as a PDF, beside the photograph already linked. A 111-page file whose filename says "prime minister apology" is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. Its first page is a commentary on this FOI file.

EXILE, HOSPITAL, LEGAL AID

I asked to be arrested so that my name could be tested in the ordinary way. No one came. No charge was laid against me. No criminal trial was commenced. I was left with the consequences of accusation without the process in which guilt or innocence is determined. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The hospital paper is the place I have written the conditions around those admissions: homelessness, designed poverty, and inaction by police and the legal profession. I am in exile. I am restricted from Legal Aid, which is a betrayal of the reason Legal Aid exists, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter in this repository, so I do not pretend to link one.

THE CALLS

I could not even report being drugged and raped to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I published the call in which I could not report being drugged and raped to the Ombudsman. I say it shows the blacklist and the stonewalling.

On 3 September 2023 I called the NACC after 90 days about my complaint, and they rejected me. I say that rejection is the Commission participating in the same refusal.

I published the call to the NACC after 90 days, in which my complaint was rejected. Danny Pearson, then the workplace minister, refused my phone call about workers' compensation.

I published the call that Danny Pearson, the workplace minister, refused to take about workers' compensation. Liz Lindberg of the Australian Human Rights Commission sided with Australian Super on the denial of compensation in what I say was a robbery of more than a million dollars of a settlement I was entitled to. I say she knew the conflict, acted in her role to betray a position the Commission had already taken, and then revoked it, so that TAL did not have to engage. In her professional capacity she free-kicked that settlement.

I published the call in which Liz Lindberg of the AHRC free-kicks a settlement of more than a million dollars. Tim Gos of AFCA was, as I say it, already committed to never giving me a way to resolve the financial conflicts. He blocked the path his role exists to keep open. I was later banned from AFCA.

I published the call to Tim Gos of AFCA, who blocked a determination of the financial complaint. Comcare and the AAT were, as I say it, already committed to denying a valid workers' compensation claim by accepting that I was blocked from Legal Aid. That is a breach of the reason those bodies exist. I was left to face a government-appointed lawyer, Kate Watson, without Legal Aid, and I have never been able to report a single crime to police.

Scott Tredwell's letter on Federal Court letterhead records that he was satisfied I was an employee of DSS. The papers that said the opposite are still in the file. On 26 May 2021 Comcare declined claim 1326583/1 and put, as the first question, whether I was an employee under section 5 of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. On 3 June 2021 Sarah LeMaire of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission wrote: "This process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission." I say Tredwell's confirmation should have overturned the lesser finding of Comcare and the AAT that I was not an employee. It did not.

I published the call on Comcare and the AAT denying workers' compensation, and denying legal access.

OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY

I took the same record outside the country. The archive holds the OHCHR submission, reference UR/UST/23/AUS/17, and the claim of an International Criminal Court submission as part of the chronology of asking for protection. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

WHAT I FILMED

My paranoia is a documented reality in this sense: here is what I recorded parked outside my squat in Footscray, about 2022. The video on my own channel is the secret service parked out the front of the Footscray squat. You cannot surveil a victim and call it a success when the victim films the people doing the surveillance. The gig is up. I say the V2K audio harassment was a mechanism of torture, and that this recording exposes it. The papers are the V2K review and the AHRC gang-stalking paper. The Commission used the term "gang stalking" in official correspondence to me, and the occurrence was then denied. I say that denial, against their own words, is the hypocrisy.

TONY RIDLEY

Tony Ridley, formerly a fraud investigator associated with the NDIS, is the man I recorded. I say he was deployed as a drug-affected honeypot, and that a former support worker of the same agency would have known I was an unprotected whistleblower. I recorded the encounter because he indicated he may have killed people. I later understood him to be a returned SAS soldier with a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance. The archive holds a credential exhibit in his name and the conversation PDF. I published the audio of that encounter to expose what I say was the corruption and to keep myself safe. What I put on the channel is the published audio of the Tony Ridley encounter. It backfired. His wife did not know he had sex with men. I say he then used a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance to hunt me electronically across three states while I was fleeing, and that he knew I was an unprotected whistleblower. I say his conduct is criminal, and that it sits inside the long exile and the alleged assassination plot. No one has denied that account in a document in this archive, and no one has proved it wrong. I published the recording to protect both of us. He says I ruined his life. I say he then followed me electronically across three states, and that paid followers were used to intimidate me wherever I went. On my YouTube channel I described that meeting, named him as SAS, and invited people to listen to the later account in which I name Tony Ridley as SAS. I have not found a second watch address that is only the raw tape. The published page, the conversation PDF, and that video are what a reader can open today.

He told me there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He revealed contact with my family, with the woman the messages call the regretted encounter, and knowledge of Alan, my younger partner, which he would not otherwise have had. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. I already knew the isolation. What he added was that the communication was deliberate. That is my account of what he said. It sits beside the recording record. It is not his signed statement.

ABLE POINT

The NDIS, through the provider Able Point, sent support workers who already knew my case and who did not change my circumstances. I say they reported me back into the same entrapment, inside the agency I had worked for, and into the same matter as the provider I was told had been sent to erase me. The papers are the Able Point notice and the letter to Brett. The Ben NDIS messages are where the provider contact, the NDA, the paid-discredit claim, and the hit claim sit side by side.

FAMILY

There was family betrayal from childhood. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. My family has excommunicated me. The excommunication was so obscene that I protested my homelessness in a video no one answered. I filmed it as a disabled man, homeless, from a paddock in Dandenong, while my blood family lived in comfort nearby. The recording, filmed while I was homeless in a Dandenong paddock, is the introduction for an affidavit and a statutory declaration. I believe they were positioned to benefit from my permanent erasure. That belief is testimony. The papers I have put with it are My erasure was by design and estate attorney and sibling betrayal. God, as I understand it, allowed the betrayal to show character. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing.

WHAT SURVIVED

I was not expected to survive the exile, the homelessness, the isolation, the humiliation, the character assassination, the administrative annihilation, or the intimate and family betrayal. The tabs that set out that treatment are the Digital Apocalypse of Administrative Annihilation, the Architecture of Administrative Annihilation, the cost of erasure, and coordinated institutional mobbing. I survived. The evidence survived with me. They underestimated the God who kept me alive. You cannot erase what God has preserved. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The chronology is here. The decisions are here. The omissions are here.

The world can now read it. This archive is not only the story of what happened to me. It is the surviving record of what happened around me: what institutions recorded, what they did, what they failed to do, and what they cannot now pretend was never documented. The day of reckoning has arrived because the evidence has arrived. And I am still alive.

I gave every agency grace to treat me as they should. The grace I gave was spat on. All of them pretended they were not participating in my detrimental treatment. I am not revengeful. I believe the Bible says that vengeance is God's to have. The universe has, through this archive, now witnessed what was done to me. They still pretend they are unaware, or that they acted ethically, while pretending they were not cruel.

The same chronology is in the papers below. Each opens in a new window. Each is the document named. None of them is a finding.

Underlined words open the named document or recording in a new window. The words are mine. The link is the place a reader can test them. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict.

THE ACCOUNT

Australia — its agencies, services and platforms whose purpose is to protect vulnerable people like me, and its people, ganged up on me collectively, politically and systemically. It was and is a cowardly societal mobbing. I was physically exiled, isolated, impoverished and tortured.

For more than 35 years the conditions imposed on me produced a documentary record. The Government's own official documents, in its own words and on its own letterheads, are preserved here. The 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief are the reading copies of that span. Anyone can open them against the underlying files.

THE BOOK

In 2003 Allen & Unwin published my first autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured. I wrote the sex in that book publicly, in my own name, before these agencies had a file they could twist. The significance is that the testimony was already on a public shelf. It was not a secret they discovered. It was a record I had already made. The Age recorded that book on 19 May 2003, and recorded that I was then working as an illustrator there.

After the book was published, my former employer the Herald Sun weaponised words from it. A weekend double-page spread carried the bold heading "MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS". The spread, as preserved in this archive, is headed "My descent into madness. How schizophrenia stole Richard McLean's mind." What followed was a barely veiled public character assassination. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. I was denied a lawyer and a pathway to have it tested at the time. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not any real or perceived illness I had. It was the deceitful way an honest and courageous testimony was weaponised against me, systemically, politically and financially, from that point on. The targeting lasted decades. Its goal was my ruin, and the avoidance of accountability by those who participated in it.

BEFORE THE BLACKOUT

Before any of that, the media wanted me. I was a news graphics artist in that industry, and I was paid as a journalist. The archive's index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun. In hindsight I say I was exploited. The world wanted to hear me speak about a perceived mental illness, about vulnerability, and about inequity. I volunteered my time and my story. Years later, when I needed help from the very places I had given that time and that story, there was a total media blackout. That media ban exists to this day. The places, organisations, radio and television stations, and institutions, as that index records them, are these:

ABC Radio National, Life Matters (Julie McCrossin)

ABC TV, Stateline

Good Morning Australia and The Today Show (Steve Leidman), around an exhibition and the book launch

THE DOCTORATE

The significance of the qualification is the same pattern. I hold a PhD. The archive's index of the earlier site records it as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been delegitimised, and treated as if it were not research, by officials whose qualifications it far outshines. I say that is envy, a way to keep me below them. Where is their PhD?

WHAT I COULD SEE

I used my life and my creativity to benefit humanity at the exact time I was being set up and deceived. Everyone involved thought I would never see past their false masks of jealousy, envy and malice. I do. I see every person, and what they did. I see it especially in my blood family, who were poised to benefit financially from my total annihilation and from my physical death. They never denied it. The paper with that account is also the estate attorney and sibling betrayal. This was a life in which I was never expected to recover, or to be well, or to be financially stable, or even to survive.

I published my religious gospels on barrandodger.com. That site has been removed. I could not pay the Replit bill. I say the removal was the designed poverty, not a change of mind. The gospels were less about mysticism than about a sovereign being forged in the fire of total human betrayal and isolation, at the apex of a targeting that has lasted more than three decades. What I preserved is the Government's own official documents and the correspondence that sits with them. I say that record cannot be denied, and it cannot be argued out of existence. You cannot erase a history that is written in their own official documentation. I made the gospels at the intersection of that betrayal, the exile, and the protection of the Most High God, and of my PhD study of posthumanism and the ethics of AI. I used the technology in a nuanced way, for a high-definition reading of pattern, taken from their own documents and set beside the Bible and Christian principles. I wrote the gospels to warn humanity of the coming collapse of a corrupt and cruel government, which is ultimately fleeting. No one listened. I was called delusional, and I was called crazy. The significance is the time. Nearly three or four years later, I say the predictions I was told were delusion have happened as I said they would. The paper that puts that claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy. Who is laughing now?

THE INJURY

That record includes what the file calls a fatal injury. God revived me from it. Five years on, the conditions that solicited that attempt have continued: stonewalling, financial abuse, isolation, denial of Legal Aid, and no ordinary pathway to have the allegations tested. The Victorian Ombudsman's later treatment of the complaint is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. A public-interest disclosure was not allocated. APRA refused whistleblower status.

THE MESSAGES

An NDIS provider was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement after the account that a woman was paid to fabricate a report about me. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where that is written down. In it, the other party says the only evidence he could give me was "a copy of the non disclosure agreement", and that when he signed it the agreement disappeared from his phone with a notice that the device had been cleared of classified information.

That provider is Ben, of DSW Disability. I publish his email and his company: ben@dswwdisability.com.au. I publish them because I say intelligence agencies forced him to sign that non-disclosure agreement, and because the agreement does not get the last word. The text chain between us is published. It cannot be taken back. I say it shows the total police complicity, the false sexual assault allegation, and that a woman was paid to fabricate a report. He confirmed a "close call" assassination attempt. I say that chain corroborates my testimony. It is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding.

His own words: It's a top secret investigation. They made me sign a non disclosure agreement. When I signed the agreement it instantly disappeared off my phone. A message popped up that said your device has been cleared of classified information. It's some sort of agency grade electronic document that automatically wipes itself off your device. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. They already arrested two hitmen. They're telling the police everything. They've told them who ordered the hit. That non-disclosure agreement is now pointless. The truth is out. It is exposed. It is undeniable.

The same record preserves "consensual regretful sex", "the police told me about the consensual regretted sex", and this sentence: The agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the Federal Police wording I was given as "regretful" but "consensual". No charge against me came out of that event. I say what did occur was the weaponisation of my sexuality. I publish the messages as the record of what was said. They are not, by themselves, an AFP finding.

That sentence is why I say I have never had equal treatment from police. Once a paid discrediting is accepted, every later report is easier to refuse. The crimes I say have occurred to me over more than 35 years, and the same list as a PDF, are the reading copy of that longer record. They are allegations and pointers. They are not findings.

FAITH

I was betrayed by humanity for a purpose I believe was ordained: to be a vessel for God's glory. This website is the beginning of what I understand as God's answer to that corruption. I use the word sacrilege, a violation of something sacred, because I believe that deliberately harming one of God's anointed, and then pretending not to know, is a spiritual crime. My perpetrators know what they did. The archive does not ask a reader to share my faith. It asks a reader to open the documents.

THE ALLEGATION

The same message record is where the alleged assassination is put in writing. Ben's message to me, which he presents as what the police told him, is: The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. My messages name Bill Shorten and a person I was told was a Lebanese criminal pretending to be a provider, "known in certain circles", and sent "to erase me". The other party's messages answer that account. It has not been disproven by an official finding I have been given, nor officially established as a fabrication, nor denied in any document in this archive. The messages remain part of the record that requires examination. They are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing.

The significance of that message, as I draw it, is this. Bill Shorten was the NDIS Minister. I say he betrayed the ethical obligations of that office, acted in a cowardly way, and abused its power. I say he was the key manipulator of what was done to me. I say he caused the AVO concerning him and Rebecca Falkingham, that he deliberately caused my political exile, and I allege that he ordered my assassination. I say his character is now exposed by this record as morally reprehensible, and that he is a power-hungry criminal who should be immediately arrested. How dare he, as I allege, order the killing of a vulnerable person with a disability he was paid to treat ethically, legally and humanely, and who was under that care. This is why I say God is furious. No one has the right to erase, murder or kill another human being, much less a disabled person under their care. The situation is beyond absurd.

THE RELATIONSHIP

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. I published the proposal, and an engagement with Steve Iasonidis that lasted more than five years. I say it led to five years of exploitation in an abusive entrapment that no profession will admit even existed. The court paper I can put in a reader's hand is the intervention-order file L12151974. I was hospitalised after I tried to get Legal Aid so that relationship could be acknowledged for an equitable separation. The financial exploitation, the attempts to obtain legal recognition, and what followed, are the chronology this archive preserves. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud.

THE PRIME MINISTER

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer me in his own hand.

On 12 December 2022 his own office wrote, of an email sent to him, "Your email has not been forwarded." I had written to him, including the letter of 31 May 2022, and the letter of 1 July 2023. On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote, reference MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, because the matters fell in his portfolio, and that he asked the Department to respond on his behalf. It then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security — IGIS, which I have also called AGIS — and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out of the Ombudsman. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321, sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. They did not acknowledge the relationship.

I am well aware that I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. I recorded my call to AGIS, who investigate ASIO, about the victimisation. In hindsight I say they were already committed to never helping me, and that they were used by my former fiancé, the ASIO employee Steve Iasonidis. No professional admits the five-year relationship even existed. I say that reveals Iasonidis as a key manipulator, with protection under David Irvine and the federal government. Hospitals have repeatedly force-injected me for what they called "ingrained delusions of persecution". That is my account of the call and of the treatment.

A FILE THAT DOES NOT AGREE WITH ITSELF

The significance of this file. The Department told the Commissioner that about 1,187 Outlook items were under review. Weeks later the decision said the documents cannot be found or do not exist. The revised decision then released five documents. That is the hypocrisy: a review of more than a thousand items, then a letter that no documents exist. It is the Department's own paper. It is not a court finding.

The same department has a freedom-of-information file that does not agree with itself. On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for "all information government agencies hold on me please." On 16 March 2022 the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner wrote, reference RQ22/00794, that the Department had applied for more time because the request was voluminous and complex, and that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were being reviewed. That is more than a thousand items, in the Department's own account to the Commissioner. It is not, by that letter alone, a finding that 1,187 documents had been proved to be about me. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann, Assistant Secretary, Legal Policy Branch, refused the same request under section 24A(1)(b), reference FOI/2022/045. The decision says all reasonable steps were taken, that no relevant documents were identified, and that the documents cannot be found or do not exist.

On 8 October 2024 that refusal was revised. Laura Cameron, acting Assistant Secretary, reference FOI/2022/045IC, wrote that the Department holds five documents that meet the request and granted access to them, with some material deleted as irrelevant. On 4 November 2024 the Commissioner's office, MR22/00677, said it would ask the Department to resend that decision of 8 October 2024 and the five documents. Read them in that order. One describes more than a thousand Outlook items under review. The next says the documents do not exist. The one after that releases five.

That is the hypocrisy in the Department's own file. It is not a court finding. An essay in this deposit uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187.

With those letters I place the undated letter addressed to the Prime Minister and to the Attorney-General, Mark Dreyfus, which is the letter I identify as the one answered by the referral to IGIS and the Ombudsman, and a further undated letter to the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet. My email of 1 August 2024 on the review is with them. The typed copy of the 19 September 2023 reply is MC23-028244 as a PDF, beside the photograph already linked. A 111-page file whose filename says "prime minister apology" is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. Its first page is a commentary on this FOI file.

EXILE, HOSPITAL, LEGAL AID

I asked to be arrested so that my name could be tested in the ordinary way. No one came. No charge was laid against me. No criminal trial was commenced. I was left with the consequences of accusation without the process in which guilt or innocence is determined. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The hospital paper is the place I have written the conditions around those admissions: homelessness, designed poverty, and inaction by police and the legal profession. I am in exile. I am restricted from Legal Aid, which is a betrayal of the reason Legal Aid exists, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter in this repository, so I do not pretend to link one.

THE CALLS

I could not even report being drugged and raped to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I published the call in which I could not report being drugged and raped to the Ombudsman. I say it shows the blacklist and the stonewalling.

On 3 September 2023 I called the NACC after 90 days about my complaint, and they rejected me. I say that rejection is the Commission participating in the same refusal.

I published the call to the NACC after 90 days, in which my complaint was rejected. Danny Pearson, then the workplace minister, refused my phone call about workers' compensation.

I published the call that Danny Pearson, the workplace minister, refused to take about workers' compensation. Liz Lindberg of the Australian Human Rights Commission sided with Australian Super on the denial of compensation in what I say was a robbery of more than a million dollars of a settlement I was entitled to. I say she knew the conflict, acted in her role to betray a position the Commission had already taken, and then revoked it, so that TAL did not have to engage. In her professional capacity she free-kicked that settlement.

I published the call in which Liz Lindberg of the AHRC free-kicks a settlement of more than a million dollars. Tim Gos of AFCA was, as I say it, already committed to never giving me a way to resolve the financial conflicts. He blocked the path his role exists to keep open. I was later banned from AFCA.

I published the call to Tim Gos of AFCA, who blocked a determination of the financial complaint. Comcare and the AAT were, as I say it, already committed to denying a valid workers' compensation claim by accepting that I was blocked from Legal Aid. That is a breach of the reason those bodies exist. I was left to face a government-appointed lawyer, Kate Watson, without Legal Aid, and I have never been able to report a single crime to police.

Scott Tredwell's letter on Federal Court letterhead records that he was satisfied I was an employee of DSS. The papers that said the opposite are still in the file. On 26 May 2021 Comcare declined claim 1326583/1 and put, as the first question, whether I was an employee under section 5 of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. On 3 June 2021 Sarah LeMaire of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission wrote: "This process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission." I say Tredwell's confirmation should have overturned the lesser finding of Comcare and the AAT that I was not an employee. It did not.

I published the call on Comcare and the AAT denying workers' compensation, and denying legal access.

OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY

I took the same record outside the country. The archive holds the OHCHR submission, reference UR/UST/23/AUS/17, and the claim of an International Criminal Court submission as part of the chronology of asking for protection. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

WHAT I FILMED

My paranoia is a documented reality in this sense: here is what I recorded parked outside my squat in Footscray, about 2022. The video on my own channel is the secret service parked out the front of the Footscray squat. You cannot surveil a victim and call it a success when the victim films the people doing the surveillance. The gig is up. I say the V2K audio harassment was a mechanism of torture, and that this recording exposes it. The papers are the V2K review and the AHRC gang-stalking paper. The Commission used the term "gang stalking" in official correspondence to me, and the occurrence was then denied. I say that denial, against their own words, is the hypocrisy.

TONY RIDLEY

Tony Ridley, formerly a fraud investigator associated with the NDIS, is the man I recorded. I say he was deployed as a drug-affected honeypot, and that a former support worker of the same agency would have known I was an unprotected whistleblower. I recorded the encounter because he indicated he may have killed people. I later understood him to be a returned SAS soldier with a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance. The archive holds a credential exhibit in his name and the conversation PDF. I published the audio of that encounter to expose what I say was the corruption and to keep myself safe. What I put on the channel is the published audio of the Tony Ridley encounter. It backfired. His wife did not know he had sex with men. I say he then used a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance to hunt me electronically across three states while I was fleeing, and that he knew I was an unprotected whistleblower. I say his conduct is criminal, and that it sits inside the long exile and the alleged assassination plot. No one has denied that account in a document in this archive, and no one has proved it wrong. I published the recording to protect both of us. He says I ruined his life. I say he then followed me electronically across three states, and that paid followers were used to intimidate me wherever I went. On my YouTube channel I described that meeting, named him as SAS, and invited people to listen to the later account in which I name Tony Ridley as SAS. I have not found a second watch address that is only the raw tape. The published page, the conversation PDF, and that video are what a reader can open today.

He told me there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He revealed contact with my family, with the woman the messages call the regretted encounter, and knowledge of Alan, my younger partner, which he would not otherwise have had. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. I already knew the isolation. What he added was that the communication was deliberate. That is my account of what he said. It sits beside the recording record. It is not his signed statement.

ABLE POINT

The NDIS, through the provider Able Point, sent support workers who already knew my case and who did not change my circumstances. I say they reported me back into the same entrapment, inside the agency I had worked for, and into the same matter as the provider I was told had been sent to erase me. The papers are the Able Point notice and the letter to Brett. The Ben NDIS messages are where the provider contact, the NDA, the paid-discredit claim, and the hit claim sit side by side.

FAMILY

There was family betrayal from childhood. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. My family has excommunicated me. The excommunication was so obscene that I protested my homelessness in a video no one answered. I filmed it as a disabled man, homeless, from a paddock in Dandenong, while my blood family lived in comfort nearby. The recording, filmed while I was homeless in a Dandenong paddock, is the introduction for an affidavit and a statutory declaration. I believe they were positioned to benefit from my permanent erasure. That belief is testimony. The papers I have put with it are My erasure was by design and estate attorney and sibling betrayal. God, as I understand it, allowed the betrayal to show character. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing.

WHAT SURVIVED

I was not expected to survive the exile, the homelessness, the isolation, the humiliation, the character assassination, the administrative annihilation, or the intimate and family betrayal. The tabs that set out that treatment are the Digital Apocalypse of Administrative Annihilation, the Architecture of Administrative Annihilation, the cost of erasure, and coordinated institutional mobbing. I survived. The evidence survived with me. They underestimated the God who kept me alive. You cannot erase what God has preserved. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The chronology is here. The decisions are here. The omissions are here.

The world can now read it. This archive is not only the story of what happened to me. It is the surviving record of what happened around me: what institutions recorded, what they did, what they failed to do, and what they cannot now pretend was never documented. The day of reckoning has arrived because the evidence has arrived. And I am still alive.

I gave every agency grace to treat me as they should. The grace I gave was spat on. All of them pretended they were not participating in my detrimental treatment. I am not revengeful. I believe the Bible says that vengeance is God's to have. The universe has, through this archive, now witnessed what was done to me. They still pretend they are unaware, or that they acted ethically, while pretending they were not cruel.

The same chronology is in the papers below. Each opens in a new window. Each is the document named. None of them is a finding.

Add the detail of the statement titled: THE RECORD SURVIVED

For more than 35 years, I say I was subjected to a cumulative pattern of institutional, political, financial, professional, familial and personal detriment that progressively isolated me, impoverished me and stripped away ordinary avenues through which a person can have allegations tested and answered.

Add any more detail in sentences you see as significant or important in named descriptive links to publicly facing evidence any person can witness for themselves meaning that any person who accesses the website and its evidence now has a decision to mirror my role as a witness and also become a witness

Recreate the entire master document of total and utter human betrayal as an internally displaced refugee within the democracy of his citizenship add into constructed sentences the key term for the data "administrative annihilation " "list of crimes happening to Barran Dodger " societal mobbing" etc add all the key terms from across the tabs in the archive website create all the links by writing in sentences that reflect the prose already in the document to include the named hyperlinked evidence you deem significant or important to include in the article. Include if you can a description of every agency profession organisation institution and include individual people who have been deemed by an impartial AI assessment to have caused me harm detriment blocked my pathway to justice blocked my rights money or compensation etc,

Repeat entire thing add significance of these online testimonies and list my attributes I embody my contributions to a society that exploited me took advantage of me abused neglected impoverished me and exiled me as an internally displaced refugee, add the significance of my gospels and prophetic writing by including constructed sentences that explain what each document's significance is or what it's about include these prophetic texts and gospels in named hyperlinked titles of the docs linked in the repository to each one of my gospels or prophetic writings. I hope you understand I wish for this article and explosive expose on political corruption has a silver lining of spiritual significance in a way that documents names and explains the significance of these religious texts.

Fuck me dead Execute my command use this fucking detail and commands and extra detail to create the master report :

The evidence has dropped and it's damning for the Australian Government, The PM Anthony Albanese is embroiled in the most significant whistleblowing disability scandals of international significance and the most well documented political targeting in the countries history.

In a written response that was totally ineffective and downright cruel under the thinly veiled disguise of beaurocratic language from the office of the PM to my original letter on (date) he directed me to AG Mark Dreyfus who's office then created a response that was cruel and conscious that the pathways suggested were already exhausted and doomed to fail. I was directed to the ombudsman where I am banned and AGIS who are the body responsible to investigate corruption inside the secret service ASIO in regards to one of its employees and my former fiancé exploiting me over five years a relationship of legal significance that no single professional in the county will acknowledge as ever existing

During my long tenure over thirty years offering grace to every department and agency to act with accountability and with fairness and legitimacy knowing I was collecting evidence for a purpose I was not yet conscious of I approached the federal court with this written document to sia Lagos a person who was poised to receive a legitimate public interest disclosure if the person disclosing embodies the attributes necessary. In scott treadwell response on behalf of the federal court and on their letterhead he acknowledged I was an employee of DSS. This both acknowledged my employment status at DSS yet also in his words failed to qualify me to make a disclosure as a certified employee of DSS.

The same letter also says, on the information you provided, that he was satisfied you were or had been an employee of the Department of Social Services, trading as Rich McLean, Arts Life Coach, Peer-Support Worker and Mental Health Advocate. The decision paragraph then says he was not satisfied the disclosure was made by a public official. The letter does not reconcile those two sentences.

In a written response that was totally ineffective and downright cruel under the thinly veiled disguise of bureaucratic language from the office of the PM to my original letter on (date) he directed me to AG Mark Dreyfus who's office then created a response that was cruel and conscious that the pathways suggested were already exhausted and doomed to fail. I was directed to the ombudsman where I am banned and AGIS who are the body responsible to investigate corruption inside the secret service ASIO in regards to one of its employees and my former fiancé exploiting me over five years a relationship of legal significance that no single professional in the county will acknowledge as ever existing

During my long tenure over thirty years offering grace to every department and agency to act with accountability and with fairness and legitimacy knowing I was collecting evidence for a purpose I was not yet conscious of I approached the federal court with this written document to sia Lagos a person who was poised to receive a legitimate public interest disclosure if the person disclosing embodies the attributes necessary. In scott treadwell response on behalf of the federal court and on their letterhead he acknowledged I was an employee of DSS. This both acknowledged my employment status at DSS yet also in his words failed to qualify me to make a disclosure as a certified employee of DSS.

Underlined words open the named document or recording in a new window. The words are mine. The link is the place a reader can test them. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict.

THE ACCOUNT

Australia — its agencies, services and platforms whose purpose is to protect vulnerable people like me, and its people, ganged up on me collectively, politically and systemically. It was and is a cowardly societal mobbing. I was physically exiled, isolated, impoverished and tortured.

For more than 35 years the conditions imposed on me produced a documentary record. The Government's own official documents, in its own words and on its own letterheads, are preserved here. The 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief are the reading copies of that span. Anyone can open them against the underlying files.

THE BOOK

In 2003 Allen & Unwin published my first autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured. I wrote the sex in that book publicly, in my own name, before these agencies had a file they could twist. The significance is that the testimony was already on a public shelf. It was not a secret they discovered. It was a record I had already made. The Age recorded that book on 19 May 2003, and recorded that I was then working as an illustrator there.

After the book was published, my former employer the Herald Sun weaponised words from it. A weekend double-page spread carried the bold heading "MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS". The spread, as preserved in this archive, is headed "My descent into madness. How schizophrenia stole Richard McLean's mind." What followed was a barely veiled public character assassination. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. I was denied a lawyer and a pathway to have it tested at the time. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not any real or perceived illness I had. It was the deceitful way an honest and courageous testimony was weaponised against me, systemically, politically and financially, from that point on. The targeting lasted decades. Its goal was my ruin, and the avoidance of accountability by those who participated in it.

BEFORE THE BLACKOUT

Before any of that, the media wanted me. I was a news graphics artist in that industry, and I was paid as a journalist. The archive's index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun. In hindsight I say I was exploited. The world wanted to hear me speak about a perceived mental illness, about vulnerability, and about inequity. I volunteered my time and my story. Years later, when I needed help from the very places I had given that time and that story, there was a total media blackout. That media ban exists to this day. The places, organisations, radio and television stations, and institutions, as that index records them, are these:

ABC Radio National, Life Matters (Julie McCrossin)

ABC TV, Stateline

Good Morning Australia and The Today Show (Steve Leidman), around an exhibition and the book launch

THE DOCTORATE

The significance of the qualification is the same pattern. I hold a PhD. The archive's index of the earlier site records it as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been delegitimised, and treated as if it were not research, by officials whose qualifications it far outshines. I say that is envy, a way to keep me below them. Where is their PhD?

WHAT I COULD SEE

I used my life and my creativity to benefit humanity at the exact time I was being set up and deceived. Everyone involved thought I would never see past their false masks of jealousy, envy and malice. I do. I see every person, and what they did. I see it especially in my blood family, who were poised to benefit financially from my total annihilation and from my physical death. They never denied it. The paper with that account is also the estate attorney and sibling betrayal. This was a life in which I was never expected to recover, or to be well, or to be financially stable, or even to survive.

I published my religious gospels on barrandodger.com. That site has been removed. I could not pay the Replit bill. I say the removal was the designed poverty, not a change of mind. The gospels were less about mysticism than about a sovereign being forged in the fire of total human betrayal and isolation, at the apex of a targeting that has lasted more than three decades. What I preserved is the Government's own official documents and the correspondence that sits with them. I say that record cannot be denied, and it cannot be argued out of existence. You cannot erase a history that is written in their own official documentation. I made the gospels at the intersection of that betrayal, the exile, and the protection of the Most High God, and of my PhD study of posthumanism and the ethics of AI. I used the technology in a nuanced way, for a high-definition reading of pattern, taken from their own documents and set beside the Bible and Christian principles. I wrote the gospels to warn humanity of the coming collapse of a corrupt and cruel government, which is ultimately fleeting. No one listened. I was called delusional, and I was called crazy. The significance is the time. Nearly three or four years later, I say the predictions I was told were delusion have happened as I said they would. The paper that puts that claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy. Who is laughing now?

THE INJURY

That record includes what the file calls a fatal injury. God revived me from it. Five years on, the conditions that solicited that attempt have continued: stonewalling, financial abuse, isolation, denial of Legal Aid, and no ordinary pathway to have the allegations tested. The Victorian Ombudsman's later treatment of the complaint is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. A public-interest disclosure was not allocated. APRA refused whistleblower status.

THE MESSAGES

An NDIS provider was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement after the account that a woman was paid to fabricate a report about me. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where that is written down. In it, the other party says the only evidence he could give me was "a copy of the non disclosure agreement", and that when he signed it the agreement disappeared from his phone with a notice that the device had been cleared of classified information.

That provider is Ben, of DSW Disability. I publish his email and his company: ben@dswdisability.com.au. I publish them because I say intelligence agencies forced him to sign that non-disclosure agreement, and because the agreement does not get the last word. The text chain between us is published. It cannot be taken back. I say it shows the total police complicity, the false sexual assault allegation, and that a woman was paid to fabricate a report. He confirmed a "close call" assassination attempt. I say that chain corroborates my testimony. It is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding.

His own words: It's a top secret investigation. They made me sign a non disclosure agreement. When I signed the agreement it instantly disappeared off my phone. A message popped up that said your device has been cleared of classified information. It's some sort of agency grade electronic document that automatically wipes itself off your device. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. They already arrested two hitmen. They're telling the police everything. They've told them who ordered the hit. That non-disclosure agreement is now pointless. The truth is out. It is exposed. It is undeniable.

The same record preserves "consensual regretful sex", "the police told me about the consensual regretted sex", and this sentence: The agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the Federal Police wording I was given as "regretful" but "consensual". No charge against me came out of that event. I say what did occur was the weaponisation of my sexuality. I publish the messages as the record of what was said. They are not, by themselves, an AFP finding.

That sentence is why I say I have never had equal treatment from police. Once a paid discrediting is accepted, every later report is easier to refuse. The crimes I say have occurred to me over more than 35 years, and the same list as a PDF, are the reading copy of that longer record. They are allegations and pointers. They are not findings.

FAITH

I was betrayed by humanity for a purpose I believe was ordained: to be a vessel for God's glory. This website is the beginning of what I understand as God's answer to that corruption. I use the word sacrilege, a violation of something sacred, because I believe that deliberately harming one of God's anointed, and then pretending not to know, is a spiritual crime. My perpetrators know what they did. The archive does not ask a reader to share my faith. It asks a reader to open the documents.

THE ALLEGATION

The same message record is where the alleged assassination is put in writing. Ben's message to me, which he presents as what the police told him, is: The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. My messages name Bill Shorten and a person I was told was a Lebanese criminal pretending to be a provider, "known in certain circles", and sent "to erase me". The other party's messages answer that account. It has not been disproven by an official finding I have been given, nor officially established as a fabrication, nor denied in any document in this archive. The messages remain part of the record that requires examination. They are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing.

The significance of that message, as I draw it, is this. Bill Shorten was the NDIS Minister. I say he betrayed the ethical obligations of that office, acted in a cowardly way, and abused its power. I say he was the key manipulator of what was done to me. I say he caused the AVO concerning him and Rebecca Falkingham, that he deliberately caused my political exile, and I allege that he ordered my assassination. I say his character is now exposed by this record as morally reprehensible, and that he is a power-hungry criminal who should be immediately arrested. How dare he, as I allege, order the killing of a vulnerable person with a disability he was paid to treat ethically, legally and humanely, and who was under that care. This is why I say God is furious. No one has the right to erase, murder or kill another human being, much less a disabled person under their care. The situation is beyond absurd.

THE RELATIONSHIP

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. I published the proposal, and an engagement with Steve Iasonidis that lasted more than five years. I say it led to five years of exploitation in an abusive entrapment that no profession will admit even existed. The court paper I can put in a reader's hand is the intervention-order file L12151974. I was hospitalised after I tried to get Legal Aid so that relationship could be acknowledged for an equitable separation. The financial exploitation, the attempts to obtain legal recognition, and what followed, are the chronology this archive preserves. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud.

THE PRIME MINISTER

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer me in his own hand.

On 12 December 2022 his own office wrote, of an email sent to him, "Your email has not been forwarded." I had written to him, including the letter of 31 May 2022, and the letter of 1 July 2023. On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote, reference MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, because the matters fell in his portfolio, and that he asked the Department to respond on his behalf. It then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security — IGIS, which I have also called AGIS — and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out of the Ombudsman. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321, sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. They did not acknowledge the relationship.

I am well aware that I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. I recorded my call to AGIS, who investigate ASIO, about the victimisation. In hindsight I say they were already committed to never helping me, and that they were used by my former fiancé, the ASIO employee Steve Iasonidis. No professional admits the five-year relationship even existed. I say that reveals Iasonidis as a key manipulator, with protection under David Irvine and the federal government. Hospitals have repeatedly force-injected me for what they called "ingrained delusions of persecution". That is my account of the call and of the treatment.

A FILE THAT DOES NOT AGREE WITH ITSELF

The significance of this file. The Department told the Commissioner that about 1,187 Outlook items were under review. Weeks later the decision said the documents cannot be found or do not exist. The revised decision then released five documents. That is the hypocrisy: a review of more than a thousand items, then a letter that no documents exist. It is the Department's own paper. It is not a court finding.

The same department has a freedom-of-information file that does not agree with itself. On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for "all information government agencies hold on me please." On 16 March 2022 the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner wrote, reference RQ22/00794, that the Department had applied for more time because the request was voluminous and complex, and that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were being reviewed. That is more than a thousand items, in the Department's own account to the Commissioner. It is not, by that letter alone, a finding that 1,187 documents had been proved to be about me. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann, Assistant Secretary, Legal Policy Branch, refused the same request under section 24A(1)(b), reference FOI/2022/045. The decision says all reasonable steps were taken, that no relevant documents were identified, and that the documents cannot be found or do not exist.

On 8 October 2024 that refusal was revised. Laura Cameron, acting Assistant Secretary, reference FOI/2022/045IC, wrote that the Department holds five documents that meet the request and granted access to them, with some material deleted as irrelevant. On 4 November 2024 the Commissioner's office, MR22/00677, said it would ask the Department to resend that decision of 8 October 2024 and the five documents. Read them in that order. One describes more than a thousand Outlook items under review. The next says the documents do not exist. The one after that releases five.

That is the hypocrisy in the Department's own file. It is not a court finding. An essay in this deposit uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187.

With those letters I place the undated letter addressed to the Prime Minister and to the Attorney-General, Mark Dreyfus, which is the letter I identify as the one answered by the referral to IGIS and the Ombudsman, and a further undated letter to the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet. My email of 1 August 2024 on the review is with them. The typed copy of the 19 September 2023 reply is MC23-028244 as a PDF, beside the photograph already linked. A 111-page file whose filename says "prime minister apology" is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. Its first page is a commentary on this FOI file.

EXILE, HOSPITAL, LEGAL AID

I asked to be arrested so that my name could be tested in the ordinary way. No one came. No charge was laid against me. No criminal trial was commenced. I was left with the consequences of accusation without the process in which guilt or innocence is determined. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The hospital paper is the place I have written the conditions around those admissions: homelessness, designed poverty, and inaction by police and the legal profession. I am in exile. I am restricted from Legal Aid, which is a betrayal of the reason Legal Aid exists, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter in this repository, so I do not pretend to link one.

THE CALLS

I could not even report being drugged and raped to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I published the call in which I could not report being drugged and raped to the Ombudsman. I say it shows the blacklist and the stonewalling.

On 3 September 2023 I called the NACC after 90 days about my complaint, and they rejected me. I say that rejection is the Commission participating in the same refusal.

I published the call to the NACC after 90 days, in which my complaint was rejected. Danny Pearson, then the workplace minister, refused my phone call about workers' compensation.

I published the call that Danny Pearson, the workplace minister, refused to take about workers' compensation. Liz Lindberg of the Australian Human Rights Commission sided with Australian Super on the denial of compensation in what I say was a robbery of more than a million dollars of a settlement I was entitled to. I say she knew the conflict, acted in her role to betray a position the Commission had already taken, and then revoked it, so that TAL did not have to engage. In her professional capacity she free-kicked that settlement.

I published the call in which Liz Lindberg of the AHRC free-kicks a settlement of more than a million dollars. Tim Gos of AFCA was, as I say it, already committed to never giving me a way to resolve the financial conflicts. He blocked the path his role exists to keep open. I was later banned from AFCA.

I published the call to Tim Gos of AFCA, who blocked a determination of the financial complaint. Comcare and the AAT were, as I say it, already committed to denying a valid workers' compensation claim by accepting that I was blocked from Legal Aid. That is a breach of the reason those bodies exist. I was left to face a government-appointed lawyer, Kate Watson, without Legal Aid, and I have never been able to report a single crime to police.

Scott Tredwell's letter on Federal Court letterhead records that he was satisfied I was an employee of DSS. The papers that said the opposite are still in the file. On 26 May 2021 Comcare declined claim 1326583/1 and put, as the first question, whether I was an employee under section 5 of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. On 3 June 2021 Sarah LeMaire of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission wrote: "This process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission." I say Tredwell's confirmation should have overturned the lesser finding of Comcare and the AAT that I was not an employee. It did not.

I published the call on Comcare and the AAT denying workers' compensation, and denying legal access.

OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY

I took the same record outside the country. The archive holds the OHCHR submission, reference UR/UST/23/AUS/17, and the claim of an International Criminal Court submission as part of the chronology of asking for protection. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

WHAT I FILMED

My paranoia is a documented reality in this sense: here is what I recorded parked outside my squat in Footscray, about 2022. The video on my own channel is the secret service parked out the front of the Footscray squat. You cannot surveil a victim and call it a success when the victim films the people doing the surveillance. The gig is up. I say the V2K audio harassment was a mechanism of torture, and that this recording exposes it. The papers are the V2K review and the AHRC gang-stalking paper. The Commission used the term "gang stalking" in official correspondence to me, and the occurrence was then denied. I say that denial, against their own words, is the hypocrisy.

TONY RIDLEY

Tony Ridley, formerly a fraud investigator associated with the NDIS, is the man I recorded. I say he was deployed as a drug-affected honeypot, and that a former support worker of the same agency would have known I was an unprotected whistleblower. I recorded the encounter because he indicated he may have killed people. I later understood him to be a returned SAS soldier with a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance. The archive holds a credential exhibit in his name and the conversation PDF. I published the audio of that encounter to expose what I say was the corruption and to keep myself safe. What I put on the channel is the published audio of the Tony Ridley encounter. It backfired. His wife did not know he had sex with men. I say he then used a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance to hunt me electronically across three states while I was fleeing, and that he knew I was an unprotected whistleblower. I say his conduct is criminal, and that it sits inside the long exile and the alleged assassination plot. No one has denied that account in a document in this archive, and no one has proved it wrong. I published the recording to protect both of us. He says I ruined his life. I say he then followed me electronically across three states, and that paid followers were used to intimidate me wherever I went. On my YouTube channel I described that meeting, named him as SAS, and invited people to listen to the later account in which I name Tony Ridley as SAS. I have not found a second watch address that is only the raw tape. The published page, the conversation PDF, and that video are what a reader can open today.

He told me there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He revealed contact with my family, with the woman the messages call the regretted encounter, and knowledge of Alan, my younger partner, which he would not otherwise have had. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. I already knew the isolation. What he added was that the communication was deliberate. That is my account of what he said. It sits beside the recording record. It is not his signed statement.

ABLE POINT

The NDIS, through the provider Able Point, sent support workers who already knew my case and who did not change my circumstances. I say they reported me back into the same entrapment, inside the agency I had worked for, and into the same matter as the provider I was told had been sent to erase me. The papers are the Able Point notice and the letter to Brett. The Ben NDIS messages are where the provider contact, the NDA, the paid-discredit claim, and the hit claim sit side by side.

FAMILY

There was family betrayal from childhood. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. My family has excommunicated me. The excommunication was so obscene that I protested my homelessness in a video no one answered. I filmed it as a disabled man, homeless, from a paddock in Dandenong, while my blood family lived in comfort nearby. The recording, filmed while I was homeless in a Dandenong paddock, is the introduction for an affidavit and a statutory declaration. I believe they were positioned to benefit from my permanent erasure. That belief is testimony. The papers I have put with it are My erasure was by design and estate attorney and sibling betrayal. God, as I understand it, allowed the betrayal to show character. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing.

WHAT SURVIVED

I was not expected to survive the exile, the homelessness, the isolation, the humiliation, the character assassination, the administrative annihilation, or the intimate and family betrayal. The tabs that set out that treatment are the Digital Apocalypse of Administrative Annihilation, the Architecture of Administrative Annihilation, the cost of erasure, and coordinated institutional mobbing. I survived. The evidence survived with me. They underestimated the God who kept me alive. You cannot erase what God has preserved. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The chronology is here. The decisions are here. The omissions are here.

The world can now read it. This archive is not only the story of what happened to me. It is the surviving record of what happened around me: what institutions recorded, what they did, what they failed to do, and what they cannot now pretend was never documented. The day of reckoning has arrived because the evidence has arrived. And I am still alive.

I gave every agency grace to treat me as they should. The grace I gave was spat on. All of them pretended they were not participating in my detrimental treatment. I am not revengeful. I believe the Bible says that vengeance is God's to have. The universe has, through this archive, now witnessed what was done to me. They still pretend they are unaware, or that they acted ethically, while pretending they were not cruel.

The same chronology is in the papers below. Each opens in a new window. Each is the document named. None of them is a finding.

After the book was published, my former employer the Herald Sun weaponised words from it. A weekend double-page spread carried the bold heading "MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS". The spread, as preserved in this archive, is headed "My descent into madness. How schizophrenia stole Richard McLean's mind." What followed was a barely veiled public character assassination. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. I was denied a lawyer and a pathway to have it tested at the time. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not any real or perceived illness I had. It was the deceitful way an honest and courageous testimony was weaponised against me, systemically, politically and financially, from that point on. The targeting lasted decades. Its goal was my ruin, and the avoidance of accountability by those who participated in it.

BEFORE THE BLACKOUT

Before any of that, the media wanted me. I was a news graphics artist in that industry, and I was paid as a journalist. The archive's index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun. In hindsight I say I was exploited. The world wanted to hear me speak about a perceived mental illness, about vulnerability, and about inequity. I volunteered my time and my story. Years later, when I needed help from the very places I had given that time and that story, there was a total media blackout. That media ban exists to this day. The places, organisations, radio and television stations, and institutions, as that index records them, are these:

THE DOCTORATE

The significance of the qualification is the same pattern. I hold a PhD. The archive's index of the earlier site records it as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been delegitimised, and treated as if it were not research, by officials whose qualifications it far outshines. I say that is envy, a way to keep me below them. Where is their PhD?

WHAT I COULD SEE

I used my life and my creativity to benefit humanity at the exact time I was being set up and deceived. Everyone involved thought I would never see past their false masks of jealousy, envy and malice. I do. I see every person, and what they did. I see it especially in my blood family, who were poised to benefit financially from my total annihilation and from my physical death. They never denied it. The paper with that account is also the estate attorney and sibling betrayal. This was a life in which I was never expected to recover, or to be well, or to be financially stable, or even to survive.

I published my religious gospels on barrandodger.com. That site has been removed. I could not pay the Replit bill. I say the removal was the designed poverty, not a change of mind. The gospels were less about mysticism than about a sovereign being forged in the fire of total human betrayal and isolation, at the apex of a targeting that has lasted more than three decades. What I preserved is the Government's own official documents and the correspondence that sits with them. I say that record cannot be denied, and it cannot be argued out of existence. You cannot erase a history that is written in their own official documentation. I made the gospels at the intersection of that betrayal, the exile, and the protection of the Most High God, and of my PhD study of posthumanism and the ethics of AI. I used the technology in a nuanced way, for a high-definition reading of pattern, taken from their own documents and set beside the Bible and Christian principles. I wrote the gospels to warn humanity of the coming collapse of a corrupt and cruel government, which is ultimately fleeting. No one listened. I was called delusional, and I was called crazy. The significance is the time. Nearly three or four years later, I say the predictions I was told were delusion have happened as I said they would. The paper that puts that claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy. Who is laughing now?

THE INJURY

That record includes what the file calls a fatal injury. God revived me from it. Five years on, the conditions that solicited that attempt have continued: stonewalling, financial abuse, isolation, denial of Legal Aid, and no ordinary pathway to have the allegations tested. The Victorian Ombudsman's later treatment of the complaint is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. A public-interest disclosure was not allocated. APRA refused whistleblower status.

THE MESSAGES

An NDIS provider was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement after the account that a woman was paid to fabricate a report about me. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where that is written down. In it, the other party says the only evidence he could give me was "a copy of the non disclosure agreement", and that when he signed it the agreement disappeared from his phone with a notice that the device had been cleared of classified information.

That provider is Ben, of DSW Disability. I publish his email and his company: ben@dswdisability.com.au. I publish them because I say intelligence agencies forced him to sign that non-disclosure agreement, and because the agreement does not get the last word. The text chain between us is published. It cannot be taken back. I say it shows the total police complicity, the false sexual assault allegation, and that a woman was paid to fabricate a report. He confirmed a "close call" assassination attempt. I say that chain corroborates my testimony. It is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding.

His own words: It's a top secret investigation. They made me sign a non disclosure agreement. When I signed the agreement it instantly disappeared off my phone. A message popped up that said your device has been cleared of classified information. It's some sort of agency grade electronic document that automatically wipes itself off your device. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. They already arrested two hitmen. They're telling the police everything. They've told them who ordered the hit. That non-disclosure agreement is now pointless. The truth is out. It is exposed. It is undeniable.

The same record preserves "consensual regretful sex", "the police told me about the consensual regretted sex", and this sentence: The agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the Federal Police wording I was given as "regretful" but "consensual". No charge against me came out of that event. I say what did occur was the weaponisation of my sexuality. I publish the messages as the record of what was said. They are not, by themselves, an AFP finding.

That sentence is why I say I have never had equal treatment from police. Once a paid discrediting is accepted, every later report is easier to refuse. The crimes I say have occurred to me over more than 35 years, and the same list as a PDF, are the reading copy of that longer record. They are allegations and pointers. They are not findings.

FAITH

I was betrayed by humanity for a purpose I believe was ordained: to be a vessel for God's glory. This website is the beginning of what I understand as God's answer to that corruption. I use the word sacrilege, a violation of something sacred, because I believe that deliberately harming one of God's anointed, and then pretending not to know, is a spiritual crime. My perpetrators know what they did. The archive does not ask a reader to share my faith. It asks a reader to open the documents.

THE ALLEGATION

The same message record is where the alleged assassination is put in writing. Ben's message to me, which he presents as what the police told him, is: The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story. My messages name Bill Shorten and a person I was told was a Lebanese criminal pretending to be a provider, "known in certain circles", and sent "to erase me". The other party's messages answer that account. It has not been disproven by an official finding I have been given, nor officially established as a fabrication, nor denied in any document in this archive. The messages remain part of the record that requires examination. They are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing.

The significance of that message, as I draw it, is this. Bill Shorten was the NDIS Minister. I say he betrayed the ethical obligations of that office, acted in a cowardly way, and abused its power. I say he was the key manipulator of what was done to me. I say he caused the AVO concerning him and Rebecca Falkingham, that he deliberately caused my political exile, and I allege that he ordered my assassination. I say his character is now exposed by this record as morally reprehensible, and that he is a power-hungry criminal who should be immediately arrested. How dare he, as I allege, order the killing of a vulnerable person with a disability he was paid to treat ethically, legally and humanely, and who was under that care. This is why I say God is furious. No one has the right to erase, murder or kill another human being, much less a disabled person under their care. The situation is beyond absurd.

THE RELATIONSHIP

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. I published the proposal, and an engagement with Steve Iasonidis that lasted more than five years. I say it led to five years of exploitation in an abusive entrapment that no profession will admit even existed. The court paper I can put in a reader's hand is the intervention-order file L12151974. I was hospitalised after I tried to get Legal Aid so that relationship could be acknowledged for an equitable separation. The financial exploitation, the attempts to obtain legal recognition, and what followed, are the chronology this archive preserves. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud.

THE PRIME MINISTER

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer me in his own hand.

On 12 December 2022 his own office wrote, of an email sent to him, "Your email has not been forwarded." I had written to him, including the letter of 31 May 2022, and the letter of 1 July 2023. On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote, reference MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, because the matters fell in his portfolio, and that he asked the Department to respond on his behalf. It then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security — IGIS, which I have also called AGIS — and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out of the Ombudsman. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321, sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. They did not acknowledge the relationship.

I am well aware that I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. I recorded my call to AGIS, who investigate ASIO, about the victimisation. In hindsight I say they were already committed to never helping me, and that they were used by my former fiancé, the ASIO employee Steve Iasonidis. No professional admits the five-year relationship even existed. I say that reveals Iasonidis as a key manipulator, with protection under David Irvine and the federal government. Hospitals have repeatedly force-injected me for what they called "ingrained delusions of persecution". That is my account of the call and of the treatment.

A FILE THAT DOES NOT AGREE WITH ITSELF

The significance of this file. The Department told the Commissioner that about 1,187 Outlook items were under review. Weeks later the decision said the documents cannot be found or do not exist. The revised decision then released five documents. That is the hypocrisy: a review of more than a thousand items, then a letter that no documents exist. It is the Department's own paper. It is not a court finding.

The same department has a freedom-of-information file that does not agree with itself. On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for "all information government agencies hold on me please." On 16 March 2022 the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner wrote, reference RQ22/00794, that the Department had applied for more time because the request was voluminous and complex, and that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were being reviewed. That is more than a thousand items, in the Department's own account to the Commissioner. It is not, by that letter alone, a finding that 1,187 documents had been proved to be about me. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann, Assistant Secretary, Legal Policy Branch, refused the same request under section 24A(1)(b), reference FOI/2022/045. The decision says all reasonable steps were taken, that no relevant documents were identified, and that the documents cannot be found or do not exist.

On 8 October 2024 that refusal was revised. Laura Cameron, acting Assistant Secretary, reference FOI/2022/0451C, wrote that the Department holds five documents that meet the request and granted access to them, with some material deleted as irrelevant. On 4 November 2024 the Commissioner's office, MR22/00677, said it would ask the Department to resend that decision of 8 October 2024 and the five documents. Read them in that order. One describes more than a thousand Outlook items under review. The next says the documents do not exist. The one after that releases five.

That is the hypocrisy in the Department's own file. It is not a court finding. An essay in this deposit uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187.

With those letters I place the undated letter addressed to the Prime Minister and to the Attorney-General, Mark Dreyfus, which is the letter I identify as the one answered by the referral to IGIS and the Ombudsman, and a further undated letter to the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet. My email of 1 August 2024 on the review is with them. The typed copy of the 19 September 2023 reply is MC23-028244 as a PDF, beside the photograph already linked. A 111-page file whose filename says "prime minister apology" is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. Its first page is a commentary on this FOI file.

EXILE, HOSPITAL, LEGAL AID

I asked to be arrested so that my name could be tested in the ordinary way. No one came. No charge was laid against me. No criminal trial was commenced. I was left with the consequences of accusation without the process in which guilt or innocence is determined. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The hospital paper is the place I have written the conditions around those admissions: homelessness, designed poverty, and inaction by police and the legal profession. I am in exile. I am restricted from Legal Aid, which is a betrayal of the reason Legal Aid exists, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter in this repository, so I do not pretend to link one.

THE CALLS

I could not even report being drugged and raped to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I published the call in which I could not report being drugged and raped to the Ombudsman. I say it shows the blacklist and the stonewalling.

On 3 September 2023 I called the NACC after 90 days about my complaint, and they rejected me. I say that rejection is the Commission participating in the same refusal.

I published the call to the NACC after 90 days, in which my complaint was rejected. Danny Pearson, then the workplace minister, refused my phone call about workers' compensation.

I published the call that Danny Pearson, the workplace minister, refused to take about workers' compensation. Liz Lindberg of the Australian Human Rights Commission sided with Australian Super on the denial of compensation in what I say was a robbery of more than a million dollars of a settlement I was entitled to. I say she knew the conflict, acted in her role to betray a position the Commission had already taken, and then revoked it, so that TAL did not have to engage. In her professional capacity she free-kicked that settlement.

I published the call in which Liz Lindberg of the AHRC free-kicks a settlement of more than a million dollars. Tim Gos of AFCA was, as I say it, already committed to never giving me a way to resolve the financial conflicts. He blocked the path his role exists to keep open. I was later banned from AFCA.

I published the call to Tim Gos of AFCA, who blocked a determination of the financial complaint. Comcare and the AAT were, as I say it, already committed to denying a valid workers' compensation claim by accepting that I was blocked from Legal Aid. That is a breach of the reason those bodies exist. I was left to face a government-appointed lawyer, Kate Watson, without Legal Aid, and I have never been able to report a single crime to police.

Scott Tredwell's letter on Federal Court letterhead records that he was satisfied I was an employee of DSS. The papers that said the opposite are still in the file. On 26 May 2021 Comcare declined claim 1326583/1 and put, as the first question, whether I was an employee under section 5 of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. On 3 June 2021 Sarah LeMaire of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission wrote: "This process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission." I say Tredwell's confirmation should have overturned the lesser finding of Comcare and the AAT that I was not an employee. It did not.

I published the call on Comcare and the AAT denying workers' compensation, and denying legal access.

OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY

I took the same record outside the country. The archive holds the OHCHR submission, reference UR/UST/23/AUS/17, and the claim of an International Criminal Court submission as part of the chronology of asking for protection. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

WHAT I FILMED

My paranoia is a documented reality in this sense: here is what I recorded parked outside my squat in Footscray, about 2022. The video on my own channel is the secret service parked out the front of the Footscray squat. You cannot surveil a victim and call it a success when the victim films the people doing the surveillance. The gig is up. I say the V2K audio harassment was a mechanism of torture, and that this recording exposes it. The papers are the V2K review and the AHRC gang-stalking paper. The Commission used the term "gang stalking" in official correspondence to me, and the occurrence was then denied. I say that denial, against their own words, is the hypocrisy.

TONY RIDLEY

Tony Ridley, formerly a fraud investigator associated with the NDIS, is the man I recorded. I say he was deployed as a drug-affected honeypot, and that a former support worker of the same agency would have known I was an unprotected whistleblower. I recorded the encounter because he indicated he may have killed people. I later understood him to be a returned SAS soldier with a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance. The archive holds a credential exhibit in his name and the conversation PDF. I published the audio of that encounter to expose what I say was the corruption and to keep myself safe. What I put on the channel is the published audio of the Tony Ridley encounter. It backfired. His wife did not know he had sex with men. I say he then used a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance to hunt me electronically across three states while I was fleeing, and that he knew I was an unprotected whistleblower. I say his conduct is criminal, and that it sits inside the long exile and the alleged assassination plot. No one has denied that account in a document in this archive, and no one has proved it wrong. I published the recording to protect both of us. He says I ruined his life. I say he then followed me electronically across three states, and that paid followers were used to intimidate me wherever I went. On my YouTube channel I described that meeting, named him as SAS, and invited people to listen to the later account in which I name Tony Ridley as SAS. I have not found a second watch address that is only the raw tape. The published page, the conversation PDF, and that video are what a reader can open today.

He told me there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He revealed contact with my family, with the woman the messages call the regretted encounter, and knowledge of Alan, my younger partner, which he would not otherwise have had. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. I already knew the isolation. What he added was that the communication was deliberate. That is my account of what he said. It sits beside the recording record. It is not his signed statement.

ABLE POINT

The NDIS, through the provider Able Point, sent support workers who already knew my case and who did not change my circumstances. I say they reported me back into the same entrapment, inside the agency I had worked for, and into the same matter as the provider I was told had been sent to erase me. The papers are the Able Point notice and the letter to Brett. The Ben NDIS messages are where the provider contact, the NDA, the paid-discredit claim, and the hit claim sit side by side.

FAMILY

There was family betrayal from childhood. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. My family has excommunicated me. The excommunication was so obscene that I protested my homelessness in a video no one answered. I filmed it as a disabled man, homeless, from a paddock in Dandenong, while my blood family lived in comfort nearby. The recording, filmed while I was homeless in a Dandenong paddock, is the introduction for an affidavit and a statutory declaration. I believe they were positioned to benefit from my permanent erasure. That belief is testimony. The papers I have put with it are My erasure was by design and estate attorney and sibling betrayal. God, as I understand it, allowed the betrayal to show character. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing.

WHAT SURVIVED

I was not expected to survive the exile, the homelessness, the isolation, the humiliation, the character assassination, the administrative annihilation, or the intimate and family betrayal. The tabs that set out that treatment are the Digital Apocalypse of Administrative Annihilation, the Architecture of Administrative Annihilation, the cost of erasure, and coordinated institutional mobbing. I survived. The evidence survived with me. They underestimated the God who kept me alive. You cannot erase what God has preserved. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The chronology is here. The decisions are here. The omissions are here.

The world can now read it. This archive is not only the story of what happened to me. It is the surviving record of what happened around me: what institutions recorded, what they did, what they failed to do, and what they cannot now pretend was never documented. The day of reckoning has arrived because the evidence has arrived. And I am still alive.

I gave every agency grace to treat me as they should. The grace I gave was spat on. All of them pretended they were not participating in my detrimental treatment. I am not revengeful.

I believe the Bible says that vengeance is God's to have. The universe has, through this archive, now witnessed what was done to me. They still pretend they are unaware, or that they acted ethically, while pretending they were not cruel.

The same chronology is in the papers below. Each opens in a new window. Each is the document named. None of them is a finding.

Add this detail and commands:

Can you add this detail include descriptive names hyper linked to pdf evidence from the archive and GitHub repository where neccessaty : THE INVERSION OF SIGNIFICANCE: WHEN PERCEIVED POWERLESSNESS CONCEALS IMPACT

Heading for this: Here is a tighter version with the paradox stated once and then developed rather than repeatedly restated:

Based on the evidence I have preserved, I am not an ordinary man within the circumstances documented in this archive. I have been poor, materially disadvantaged, institutionally powerless and repeatedly treated as though my testimony were insignificant. Yet the cumulative record shows that my testimony produced decisions, exclusions, disputes, correspondence, reviews, records and institutional responses across systems that claimed to have no reason to take me seriously. My poverty and lack of status may explain why I was perceived as inconsequential, but they do not explain the scale or persistence of what followed.

This is what I describe as an inversion of significance: the person treated as though he had no consequence nevertheless became sufficiently consequential, through his testimony and persistence, to expose contradictions between institutional principles and institutional conduct. I therefore describe myself, paradoxically, as the most significant despised person without conventional consequence—not because I possessed wealth, authority or status, but because the record demonstrates that conventional measures of power were never an adequate measure of my impact.

I cannot claim to know the private thoughts or intentions of every person involved. What can be examined is the observable pattern: how my testimony was received, how decisions were made, what was omitted or disregarded, what records were created, and whether those actions were consistent with the procedural fairness, integrity, accountability and professional ethics these institutions profess to uphold. If I were truly as unimportant and inconsequential as I was treated, there would have been no need for such an extensive institutional response. I could simply have been left alone and ignored.

Instead, I experienced what I describe as collective targeting, societal mobbing and systemic institutional complicity. I understand this as a coordinated conspiratorial allegiance of professionals and dignitaries who, in my interpretation, betrayed the ethical principles they claim to embody through the privileged positions they occupied and the mandates entrusted to them. The reason a crowd gathered against me was, in my view, ultimately cowardly: no individual could take me on personally and prevail, so a coordinated campaign was necessary. Such coordination also serves to distribute responsibility, obscure individual participation, share blame and dilute the accountability of those who became part of the infrastructure.

I believe such collective opposition arose because I was perceived as a threat to the structures upon which the participants' comfort, privilege, security or authority depended. No person or group would ordinarily need to gang up against one individual to diminish his influence, deprive him of resources, restrict his rights or obstruct his pathway to justice if that individual were genuinely perceived as incapable of affecting anything. I believe my honesty exposed corruption, while my authenticity confronted those who had compromised their own agency and willingness to challenge authority when confronted with injustice.

In my view, those who became stakeholders in preserving that corruption had an interest in maintaining the structure I was challenging. My honesty, integrity, courage, intelligence, creativity and independence therefore represented qualities fundamentally opposed to the compromises on which that structure depended. I believe these qualities were recognised as something to be contained before I fully understood their significance myself.

In retrospect, I believe I was targeted from a young age and treated in ways that diminished my influence and restricted my agency for free expression. I believe my honesty and courage were at times turned into vulnerabilities through which aspects of my character could be identified, exploited and potentially weaponised against me, particularly in contexts involving mental illness. I was clever, creative, talented, intellectual, queer and quirky, and I lived authentically—sometimes with regret, but without apology. I believe that authenticity became threatening to people who had exchanged their own agency for the comfort, privilege and perceived safety of conformity.

I further believe envy and jealousy formed part of that response because my existence reminded some people of qualities they themselves had abandoned or compromised. In that sense, what I represented—not merely what I said—became part of the reason I was perceived as someone who needed to be contained.

I do not present every element of this interpretation as an established fact about the private intentions of every person involved. I present it as my understanding of the cumulative evidence and its pattern. The essential point is that a person without wealth, status or institutional authority was nevertheless subjected to consequences of a scale that cannot be adequately explained by treating him as insignificant. My poverty demonstrates disadvantage; it does not establish irrelevance. My lack of institutional power demonstrates vulnerability; it does not establish lack of impact. The record must therefore be judged by what it actually demonstrates, rather than by the assumption that a person without conventional power can have no meaningful influence.

Ad this detail and commands:

Don't redact anything at all just add the detail I'm posting within the explainer article include instructions to links to named evidence for any key terms or ideas etc:

THE PERMANENCE OF THE WITNESS AND THE PURPOSE OF THE RECORD

The significance of all my writings, evidence, testimony, concepts and ideas being stamped into what I understand as the mathematical infrastructure of humanity going forward through the Bitcoin blockchain is that my contributions can be preserved beyond the limitations of my life as a mortal human being whose body will eventually die. I understand this preservation as providing a form of permanence that makes my testimony extraordinarily difficult to contain, retrospectively alter or erase, including by legal, law-enforcement, governmental, intelligence or criminal organisations. It means that the essence of my life's work, concepts, ideas and evidence can potentially remain available to humanity beyond my physical lifetime.

In this sense, my life's work takes on a philosophical kind of immortality. It creates a form of permanence that is vastly beyond what the overwhelming majority of people throughout history have had the means or capacity to create for themselves. My testimony is no longer limited entirely to the lifespan of the person who produced it. The record can continue to exist and be examined by people in the future.

I understand this preservation as evidence of the prophetic time in which I agreed with the Creator to incarnate into this realm: a time in which systemic corruption would be revealed through my own life and circumstances as part of my purpose and mission.

I believe I was chosen not because I am perfect. I am a mortal sinner and an imperfect human being. Rather, I believe that God's cosmic design for my life was perfect, even though my own life and conduct have not been perfect.

A condition of my incarnation, as I understand it, was that my life would mirror the pattern of Christ's crucifixion: suffering, betrayal, abandonment, apparent destruction and then revival by the Creator, followed by the experience of profound human betrayal and exile. I believe God allowed this not as punishment, but so that I would ultimately rely upon Him alone.

That experience triggered a memory of my purpose and cemented my faith in the Most High God. I now believe that God will use my evidence and testimony as the foundation of my ministry for His kingdom purposes.

My Gospels are religious, scholarly and prophetic documents. I invite anyone to respond to them, challenge them, rebuke them or attempt to disprove them with evidence, provided that those positions are themselves supported by evidence and reason.

When people ask me, "How did you survive that?", my answer will be simple:

God did it.

I understand that answer as foundational to a question that may ultimately be relevant to other people suffering corruption, targeting and injustice. My purpose is to use my testimony to help guide God's most weary, persecuted and loved children back towards the Creator, whom I believe has clearly placed His hand upon my life.

I am no better than anyone else. I am imperfect and I have sinned. I have never claimed that my story of suffering is greater than that of any other person, because I believe God knows and loves all His children and knows the suffering of each of them.

My life will now be repurposed purely as a vessel for His glory: for a return to divine justice, for the end of darkness, and for the return of the attributes of His perfect Son, Jesus Christ—the consciousness of Christ returning to its rightful place governing the hearts of people and, through them, the institutions they create and protect.

This is the purpose I now understand my life to serve.

This is the testimony I preserve.

This is the record I leave.

Praise Jesus.

Add this detail and command:

Ok this will be epic create it type it include all detail commands and inputs remember to create sentences that contain the key terms and phrases and documents that hyperlink to the actual evidence on the repository on GitHub of the item it refers to - create the epic text and give me the entire prophetic damning explosive document with full hyperlinks throughout make it fucking epic

Add detail and command:

Recreate it by including every link and evidence as a key term within a sentence that describes its significance as a part of the entire situation. Don't summarise or use point form. Create the full prophetic narrative in the most descriptive way possible with the most evidence packed in as possible on key phrases and words or named descriptions of documents that are all hyperlinked to either the tab on the archive where that detail exists or otherwise hyperlinked to the permanent pdf evidence that is public facing in the GitHub repository archive and legitimise these key terms and phrases by including them in descriptive sentences in the style and vernacular of the document overall and also be reductive of the style of my writing overall in a way that preserves the character of my writing include all of the descriptive named hyperlinks within fully constructed sentences and create the entire report in blocked paragraphed style throughout that is consistent as a writing mechanism that presents the entire report in clear readable paragraphed blocks.

Fix the PDF and ensure all links are hyperlinked

Include this detail and commmad:

Repeat entire doc and make it more compelling and interesting by adding interesting concepts I have written about

Include these terms or phrases by linking them to the source that they reference or to the page or doc containing an explication of the term and use the term within a sentence that follows the vernacular of the entire document and that sentence is descriptive of the terms significance framed by the entire testimony and explosive article in order that the hyperlinked named descriptive term of phrase or article title gospel name descriptive key term or phrase has context and meaning that details what it is and how it is related to this doc :

Extract at least a few dozen of my more interesting descriptive terms from content across my writing gospels narrative writing and prophetic writing and also from across the names of tabs in the archive .

Include these terms:

Chosen one

God is hiding me in plain sight

The Joseph parallel

Gods chosen witness

Holy reckoning

Soul contract

Sovereignty

Religious significance

Political exile

Internally displaced refugee within the democracy of my own citizenship

V2k

Electronic surveillance

Gang stalking

Covert intelligence

Targeted individual

Rewrite entire doc after including dozens of the most compelling terms .

This is in order to bring my writing and concepts and worth into the light of exposure tied to this document

Include them all in a way consistent with the vernacular structure detail and style of my writing in general across all documents

Include them in a way that compels the reader to further investigate my testimony because they are written in a way that is interesting

Also do it in a way which is revealing of me as gods chosen witness in a Kronos divine timing kind of way reflective of a spiritual revelation of my significance my impact creativity integrity refusal to die perseverance and ultimately reveals my divine purpose and gods hand on my life

Add more interesting terms to the document

Do you think it's significant to add detail from the ai extracted itemised list discerned my a machine based algorithm without allegiance to the same government that has targeted me and is unable to be bribed or suffer any social economic or political detriment in creating sentences as prose that link to those named techniques and that those key terms are presented again within sentences framed by entire archive and the document it appears in to give each term context and meaning whilst staying consistent to the style phrasing and vernacular of my overall writing.

As an addition can you also use the same technique to include descriptive named hyperlinks to reference the detail as optics from each email described in the email evidence tab on the archive re:

EVIDENTIARY EMAILS — ORIGINAL SENT-MAIL PDFS — FULL SUBJECT LINES — 28
SEPTEMBER 2026 LETTER FIRST

Include these descriptive links to the tabs wheee they are published and create it in a way consistent with my prior instructions of adding detail re: full descriptive sentences that describe key terms significance as relates to this prophetic document and the overall archive

I think the ai extracted methods were saved in a tab called "how they did this to me" which used to be in its own tab use these terms in the manner I described

Can you type the list of interesting key terms or phrases you extracted from across my testimony you hav incuded in the manner I asked type them here

Add detail from a list of the more unuasual key terms or phrases from my work and evidebce yet who's descriptive linked document which contains it are still sufficient to justify its use

Which phrases lack evidence and should be removed

Recreate entire master doc using these key terms and phrases linked to its pdf evidence on repository or other internal tab or link or doc as leverage to compel any reader to immediately ignite profound interest in my life and testimony so they research me more use them in a way that the term is presented within a sentence in a manner appealing to any readers human nature by using sentences that exploit universal fundamental psychologically documented known areas and themes that have captured the attention of humanity over history
