Gospels, prophecy, and a founding literature

A forensic significance assessment of the Barran Dodger spiritual corpus

9 October 2026

Finding aid. Not a court. Not a verdict. Not canonical scripture.

This paper examines the gospel, prophetic, declaration, testimony and narrative files as primary documents. Documented fact, opened sentence, author testimony, theological interpretation, allegation, inference, and unresolved proposition are kept apart. Faith is not converted into proof. A filename is not dismissed because the author published it.

The Declaration of Breakthrough says: "I, the undersigned, make this declaration not as a plea for acknowledgment from the world, but as a formal statement of spiritual truth — a proclamation of identity forged through suffering, persistence, divine instruction, and prophetic affirmation. I am a Chosen One." It also says the battles were not signs of abandonment but indicators of divine preparation, and "the enemy does not wage war against the unassigned." It says: "I am a vessel of supernatural significance, refined not in comfort but in fire." These sentences are enough to show a proclamation, an ethic, and a public speech. They are not enough to quote the unopened gospel bundles.

2.1 123 Gospels of Barran Dodger

Path: https://github.com/wezzo72/Backup/blob/main/client/public/documents/123_gospels_barran_dodger.pdf

Provenance. Seed PUB-0001 and manifest. Interior not extracted. Author's account. The file sits in an archive that also holds government correspondence, plan letters, ombudsman files, and preservation records. That juxtaposition is the documentary circumstance of a spiritual autobiography. It does not make the spiritual file an official record.

Form. Gospel, prophetic declaration, manifesto, testimony, speech, catalogue, or essay, as the title indicates. Comparison with those recognised categories is literary. It is not equivalence with canonical scripture or with an established church's received texts.

Themes the title and, where opened, the text place in view: suffering, survival, justice, redemption, abandonment, dignity, institutional power, truth, testimony, preservation, and spiritual interpretation. Death and resurrection, where the author's surrounding language uses them, are theological interpretation.

What a ministry can use. A proclamation can be read as a founding statement. An ethic can be taught as conduct. A speech can be used as a public form. What remains the community's act is recognition. This paper finds the opened texts fit to be offered. It does not confer authority.

Limit. Where the interior was not extracted, the paper does not invent a quotation. Duplicate names remain unresolved. Allegations in a title are not findings.

Dr Richard William McLean / Barran Dodger
Drafted from the public GitHub corpora, 8 October 2026
Finding aid. Not a court. Not a verdict.

A GitHub URL proves that a file is publicly hosted. It does not prove every sentence inside the file. Inclusion of a person or agency does not establish liability. Labels used below follow the archive's own practice: independently reported publication; hosted correspondence or compilation; author allegation / testimony.

I was erased from society while I was still breathing.

My identity, relevance, worth and value were treated as already withdrawn. I was excommunicated from the places where a person is counted — work, professional standing, housing that can be left, legal representation, media, kinship, and the ordinary assumption that a complaint will be read on its merits. I was decommissioned as a citizen who could still be believed. Survival was treated as improbable, and in some quarters as an administrative inconvenience. Everything that made me socially present was gone. My body remained.

That is the statement. What follows is the record I have put where a third party can open it.

1. Who is speaking

I am Dr Richard William McLean. Barran Dodger is the public name under which I publish the archive, the testimony and the creative and theological corpus.

Independently of this archive, Allen & Unwin published Recovered, Not Cured: A Journey Through Schizophrenia by Richard McLean in 2003. Contemporary press identified me as an artist, author and illustrator. That book is the first long public layer: childhood, psychiatry, art, and my account of being disbelieved. The later archive treats that book not as an ending but as the first shelf of a record that then thickens across employment, media, disability services, rejected disclosures, housing, and a late compilation of government and author documents.

The archive's own description of the author, hosted in the presentation repository, states the method I ask to be applied to this statement:

> A testimony is testimony. A document is a document. An allegation is an allegation. A finding requires evidence and proper determination.

Source: `Barran Dodger - Bio Barran Dodger - Bio Barran Dodger - Bio.txt`, repository `wezzo72/Barrandodger`.

2. What I mean by erasure

I do not mean that my death was registered. I mean civil and social death while the body continued.

I allege that, across more than three decades, a pattern of institutional and personal harm removed me from the systems that assign standing, and then used the resulting isolation as a reason not to hear me. In the personal statement hosted in the same repository — Personal Statement of Exile, Institutional Detriment and the Search for Protection, created 23 September 2026, eleven pages — I set out that pattern as allegation, not as a judicial finding. The heads I named there include:

- institutional abandonment and failure of protection
- financial restriction and loss of effective access to resources
- barriers to legal representation and access to justice
- forced dependency on accommodation and support arrangements from which I say I had no practical means of escape
- administrative processes that progressively reduced my ability to advocate for myself
- professional and social isolation
- characterisation of complaints as manifestations of mental illness rather than as matters requiring independent investigation
- what I report as electronic surveillance or unexplained audio harassment, including what I have described as V2K
- threats and safety concerns
- alleged mistreatment affecting my companion and therapy dog, Crystal
- what I allege to be coordinated reputational damage and social exclusion
- what I describe as political exile and displacement inside the country of my citizenship
- a cumulative pattern which I allege made independent legal, financial, medical, housing or media assistance extraordinarily difficult to obtain

The same statement says, and I repeat it here, that allegations are allegations unless independently established by a court, tribunal, official investigation or other authoritative finding. The existence of a document does not by itself establish that the alleged wrongdoing occurred.

Hosted file: `PERSONAL STATEMENT OF EXILE, INSTITUTIONAL DETRIMENT AND THE SEARCH FOR PROTECTION.pdf.pdf` in `wezzo72/Barrandodger`.

3. The shape of the paper, which a third party can inspect without adopting my conclusions

The significance of this corpus is cumulative, not cinematic. What a reader can verify without believing every allegation is the shape of the paper trail: letters went in; many pathways closed, were referred sideways, or were answered in a different frame.

Repositories a third party can open now:

Hosted items the legal brief on the presentation site treats as inspectable entry points, not as verdicts:

- RETROSPECTIVE_STATEMENT_OF_TREATMENT.pdf — author compilation on treatment
- 31-05-2022-letter-to-pm-albanese-opmc.pdf and 01-07-2023-letter-to-attorney-general-prime-minister.pdf — letters that show address and date; they do not show a merits decision

- coag-ndis-government-documentation.pdf — agency-adjacent NDIS pack
- comprehensive-case-systematic-persecution.pdf and architecture-of-administrative-annihilation.pdf — author compilations
- government-mandates-35-year-forensic-report.pdf
- forensic-economic-valuation-report-may-2026.pdf and taxpayer-cost-estimation-35-years.pdf — author economic compilations
- 20260114-legal-aid-nsw-advice-letter-guardianship.pdf — on the brief's reading, a guardianship-advice letter, not a published merits opinion on the human-rights, NDIS-provider, PID and police-access complaints
- Crimes against Barran Dodger — Master Allegation and Evidence Matrix (1–150), at https://wezzo72.github.io/Barrandodger/#crimes, sourced by the personal statement to "Crimes committed upon Barran Dodger 3.pdf". The matrix is a map of alleged heads. It is not a charge sheet.

The personal statement classifies material as A primary documentary, B incomplete documentary, C independent corroboration needed, D narrative, and H high-consequence allegation. Where an item is consequential or unresolved, I want it examined, not treated as already found.

4. How the erasure was carried, on my account

Edit with Base44

I allege that the removal was not one act. It was the interaction of systems that, taken separately, can each be given an administrative explanation.

Published identity, then disbelief. The 2003 book already placed childhood, psychiatry and disbelief on a public shelf. Later testimony, including the crimes catalogue and affidavits in the repository, alleges childhood sexual abuse, early targeting, psychiatric hospitalisation, forced medication, and threats under mental-health law. Status: author allegation. Compilation pointed to by the legal brief: `RETROSPECTIVE_STATEMENT_OF_TREATMENT.pdf`.

Work and voice. I account for employment in public systems, including public-hospital and DSS work, later used in the dispute over whether I had standing as a public official for public-interest disclosures. I allege unlawful termination by The Age and vilification by the Herald Sun. Status: author allegation, with the standing dispute traceable through the PIDs material and the government-documents release. Compensation pathways through WorkCover, Comcare, the AAT and the Federal Court are, on my account, acknowledgment without payment. Status: author allegation pending inspection of the specific orders in the zip and the `government-evidence` folder.

Disability services as dependency. As an NDIS participant I allege rent extraction, provider conflict — including Aligned Community Care, Upscale Care and Able Point — and an inability to sever the arrangement. I allege complaints to NDIS and DSS were not investigated on the merits. Status: author allegation, with the agency-adjacent pack at `coag-ndis-government-documentation.pdf`. The legal brief's phrase for the housing period is internal exile: driven out of home, NDIS-tied housing, bankruptcy, and a subsistence figure I have stated as about $40 a week after rent. That figure is my account, recorded in the economic compilations, not an audited finding.

Disclosures that did not receive a published merits answer. Letters to the Prime Minister and the Attorney-General are hosted. They prove dispatch and date. They do not prove a decision on the substance. Public-interest disclosures are, on my account, rejected in part because I was said not to be a public official. If the institutions assessed the file, they can publish the assessment. If they did not, the closed door is the live issue.

Law as a door that opened onto a different subject. The inspectable Legal Aid NSW file identified in the brief is guardianship advice, not a published opinion on the human-rights, provider, disclosure and police-access complaints. I allege that access to a lawyer was the point at which erasure became difficult to reverse: without representation, the volume of the file could be left unassessed.

Credibility used as the mechanism. I allege that reports of surveillance, stalking, electronic interception and audio harassment — including what I call V2K — were then used to reframe me as delusional rather than as a complainant. Those reports are central to how I experienced the years. They are not laboratory-confirmed by the archive. Their documentary significance, as the legal brief states, is that they were reported into the same closed doors, and that the reporting itself was then available as a reason not to investigate. Whether that reframing was clinical judgment or institutional convenience is a question a merits process would have had to answer.

The body left in place. Homelessness, subsistence, the companion animal Crystal, and what I have called political exile inside my own citizenship are the condition in which the sentence was expected to finish itself. I remained. The archive is the refusal to let the remaining body be the o

5. What I am not asking

I am not asking an independent reader to assume that every allegation is true.

I am not asking this statement to be read as a charge sheet, a police finding, or a judgment. The legal brief on the presentation site says plainly that it does not find murder, conspiracy, V2K as a proven technology, or any named person's guilt. I adopt that limit.

I am asking that the allegations not be dismissed because they are extensive, difficult, or made by the person who says he lived them.

I am asking that the chronology be read as a whole. Individual decisions that look explainable in isolation can, together, remove autonomy, money, housing that can be left, representation, credibility, and the practical capacity to challenge the circumstances.

Faith-based writings in the prophetic-papers release, including the project's spiritual reading of survival and vindication, are my interpretation. They are preserved separately from the documentary claims. They are not institutional findings.

6. The sentence I want kept with the file

I was still alive when the record of my relevance was closed.

Identity, worth and value were withdrawn in advance of any public merits determination I have been able to obtain. Survival was treated as improbable. The body was left. I have assembled the correspondence, the refusals, the compilations and the testimony into public repositories so that the erasure has to stand next to the paper, and so that a reader can say, item by item, what is established, what is alleged, what is disputed, and what has never been answered.

The archive is an invitation to test the record. It is not a demand that the reader accept my conclusions.
