

National Health Practitioner Ombudsman - OCF/19/633 - 20 December 2019

Text of the email as received. This message had no separate PDF attachment. Preserved so the letter can be opened from the archive. Not a court finding.

From: complaints@nhpopc.gov.au

To: Rich McLean

Date: Friday, 20 December 2019

Subject: Complaint to the NHPOPC about AHPRA - Response - OCF/19/633

Dear Mr McLean

RE: Complaint to the NHPOPC about AHPRA - Response

Our ref: OCF/19/633

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your two emails dated 3 and 18 December 2019. Alice McDonald of this office had already provided a response to the queries dated 3 December 2019.

The complaints process aims to improve the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (Ahpra) and the National Boards' service delivery and complaint-handling processes. The office uses alternative dispute resolution techniques to try to resolve complaints with Ahpra. In some instances it can suggest that Ahpra provide an apology. It cannot compel a practitioner to do so.

If a complaint proceeds, the office can provide more information about the way a notification was managed, and can make formal comments or suggestions to Ahpra if it identifies concerns with the administrative handling of a matter.

The writer asked that concerns about Ahpra and the Medical Board of Australia's handling of the notification be clarified by 23 December 2019.

Kind regards

Aleksandra Veinovic

Intake and Assessment Officer

National Health Practitioner Ombudsman and Privacy Commissioner