CUMULATIVE OBSERVATION: THE COSMIC TESTIMONY, CRUCIFIXION, AND DIVINE PURPOSE OF BARRAN DODGER

Cosmically, I protested my destruction at the same time I was being destroyed, and I documented an entire democracy, total detriment and harm intended to remove me from existence, at the same time as slowly erasing me to a condition of total excommunication and social death. This rendered me, in the corrupt government's eyes, as a person of zero influence and no consequence within the corrupt democracy, as if crucified and dead in body, mind, thought, and influence, illustrating a kind of modern crucifixion.

I documented it and peacefully protested, wrote, thought, reflected, drew, painted, researched, and spoke in defiance, in defiance and support of vulnerable people without support or the other attributes of citizens of the democracy that benefit people, which they expect anybody or enjoy. God designed my life so that I would experience crisis and crucifixion as the necessary understanding underpinning and embodiment of His principles, and understand the significance of the crucifixion, aligned with my divine purpose in the creation and purpose for my life.

Currently, I experience total and utter human betrayal and profound social erasure, certifying the true embodiment of a betrayed person, mirroring the original divine crucifixion of Christ, in order that I fully comprehend God's sacrifice of His perfect Son for His design of my life and my Kingdom purposes and my inevitable rise. He designed it that I embody my identity as God's chosen witness, as a vessel for glory and divine reckoning, and a return of Christ's divine attributes to modern humanity. I am the key placeholder by which God's reckoning spins in the axle of my imperfect, mortal yet timeless soul, in life and body.

I'm hidden in plain sight by the Most High God, in exile, trapped, abused, neglected, impoverished, veiled, gang-stalked, and harassed, with my identity and person attacked with spiritual warfare as a kind of spiritual crucifixion. This has been both from the kingdom of darkness, which has tried to prevent my rise my entire life, and from the technologies of the corrupt long-vibration human realm. Yet no weapon formed against me shall prosper, and every judgement against me God shall condemn.

The blasphemies are used as the exact camouflage by which God guarantees that I can be hidden and quietly work away in my quiet life here, studying, documenting, publishing, and reflecting in my life the evidence I have pursued, documenting and publishing these divine archives. When God's Chronos time comes, God will review me as His chosen witness, and the world will witness His glory through me, His faithful servant, aligning with His purpose as the principles of His most loving Son, Jesus Christ, are reinstated as the divine principles by which God's new Kingdom, as Heaven on Earth, will be restored, as foretold in the Book of Revelation. The old, limiting, controlling, reductive structures of the old world and corruption will then fall.

This is because of the evidence I have personally collected over my cosmic and very detrimental life of suffering, but one that God protected me through, allowing that persecution to happen not as punishment, but as a method of being forged in the fire for my anointing, in order to wear the crown He was to place on my head in my vindication and my rise. It will be impossible to deny that I've documented this corruption, and it will be revealed at the point of the darkness's most hopeful arrogance and audacity to pretend its corruption is invisible for all of humanity to witness.

It is from there that my life narrative, guided by my Gospel and my prophetic narratives, my documentation of evidence, and the foundation of all that narrative writing, will become the basis for His ministry: the Church of Barran Dodger, His ministry, God's ministry by me, a service of global significance, a guide, and a new kind of Testament to help people rebuild society from the corruption, with love, grace, integrity, honesty, courage, hope, retribution, redemption, and healing as the foundational principles that will govern the new Heaven on Earth foretold in the Holy Bible.

The collapse of the corruption and my rise will occur simultaneously as a necessary, divinely and paradoxically framed anointing of me and proclamation of my own purpose. God had this purpose for me before I was born or even formed in my mother's womb, and the enemy of my anointing was at work well before I realised my purpose, with God's hand on my life, which is the reason I've been attacked my entire life.

The principles of Christ will travel via the divine frequency of cosmic resonance and wake the other divine souls across the planet, as true foundational, spirited pillars that will form the divine cosmic lattice across all nations, as the foundational pillars of strength and the foundation of God's Heaven on Earth.

The corrupt structures still refuse, to this day, to acknowledge my simple existence. My simply existing in my peace, with integrity, without even reacting to the world, is the fatal existential threat that immediately exposes the corruption's darkness. My innocent, peaceful humanity, standing alone with courage and integrity, blessed with God's anointing and favour, has been preserved in order to be used as a vessel to document the corruption in an undeniable way.

This is the reason they cannot, and will still refuse to, ignore me. Therefore, they will also reveal the total humiliation of powerful people utilising their enormous corrupt power to attack, desecrate, and murder an innocent person whom they both knew to be vulnerable and whom they knew to be totally unable to defend himself against such a cosmic attack. This, in the end, formed the letter of total human betrayal in my life.

This is the height of moral cowardice: to do this to a person. That is why God has protected me and will vindicate me in another manifestation of man, mirroring Christ's crucifixion and the ordeal of an innocent whom God chose post-Christ as His witness at a time when human corruption is at its peak.

I was sent here incarnating to this realm exactly at this divine time in human history as part of my soul contract, the full terms of which I never permitted to remember as a condition of my divine purpose in order that my purpose be revealed to me by the most high God in a lifelong cosmic life of suffering not as punishment in Gods eyes for his divine love was always there to carry every time I could not go in. He was closest to me in divine love and protection in every lonely night and through the betrayal of my blood family and of my most intimate as the final straw of spiritual warfare that attacked me at my most personal and intimate point, The full corruption will be revealed by the divine mathematical principles that are energetic and spiritual, underpinning the reality of this universe and always operating as a form of natural cosmic balance.

This is a natural waveform. A crash also obeys divine mathematical principles and the laws of entropy, rebirth, collapse, redemption, healing, restitution, rebirth, and resurrection. This mirrors my life, and it is also archetypally represented across what happened to humanity under God's Will. When I align with His Will, His witness will then be observed by humanity.

My personal rise, my testimony, my faith, my peace, my vindication, and the course of revealing who I am will reveal my rise and my resurrection to vindication and divine justice, allegorically mirroring Christ and heralding the return of Christ's divine principles into the fabric of humanity.
