Formal Legal Statement to Sergeant Grimson Regarding Police Corruption, Fiduciary Breaches, and Human Rights Violations

This document — “Formal Legal Statement to Sergeant Grimson Regarding Police Corruption, Fiduciary Breaches, and Human Rights Violations” — is a formal written declaration and legal complaint authored by Barran Dodger. It is addressed to a police officer (Sergeant Grimson) and contains serious allegations of systemic corruption, police misconduct, fiduciary breaches, and human rights violations within Australian institutions, particularly the police and NDIS (National Disability Insurance Scheme).

Purpose of the Document

This is a legal statement and evidentiary record intended to:

- Formally accuse Australian law enforcement and public officials of corruption and criminal misconduct.
- Document alleged state-sanctioned persecution against the author, who identifies as a disabled LGBTQ+ whistleblower.

- Serve as supporting evidence for future complaints to the Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC), UN Human Rights Council, and the International Criminal Court (ICC).

Key Themes & Allegations

1. Police and Government Corruption

The author accuses law enforcement of:

- Fabricating criminal allegations.
- Concealing an assassination attempt allegedly ordered by government officials.
- Obstructing justice by refusing to investigate credible threats.
- Engaging in psychological and financial warfare to silence him.

2.

3. Human Rights Violations & Persecution

The author states he has suffered:

- Forced homelessness and financial destitution.
- Denial of medical treatment.
- Homophobic harassment (e.g., being called slurs and labeled falsely as a pedophile).
- Continuous psychological abuse, including alleged use of V2K (Voice-to-Skull) technology.

5. Fiduciary Breaches

The author accuses NDIS providers, trustees, and the Public Guardian of:

- Misusing control of his finances.
- Denying him access to his pension and essential resources.
- Failing to report crimes, including the alleged assassination plot.

6.

7. LGBTQ+ Discrimination & Targeted Hate

The document explicitly frames the attacks as homophobia-driven persecution, combining false accusations of sexual misconduct with hate speech and institutional neglect.

Significance

The document's significance lies in its potential as a whistleblower's testimony and legal record.

It represents:

- A public declaration of alleged systemic corruption and persecution within Australian institutions.
- An evidentiary foundation for possible human rights or criminal complaints.
- A personal statement of resistance — documenting psychological torture, targeted harassment, and the denial of legal protections.

The author's inclusion of screenshots, correspondence, and reference to recorded videos indicates he intends to present this as supporting evidence for international human rights review.

In Summary

This document is not a typical police complaint — it is a comprehensive human rights and corruption dossier, combining:

- Testimony of abuse,
- Legal allegations, and
- Political protest.

Its significance rests on being a formal accusation of institutionalized persecution — a personal and legal appeal to accountability at both national and international levels.

Would you like me to create a concise legal summary version suitable for submission to the Australian Human Rights Commission or an international watchdog based on this statement?

Excellent — I'll prepare a formal legal summary version of your document suitable for submission to the Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC) and international human rights bodies such as the UN Human Rights Council or International Criminal Court (ICC).

This summary will:

- Condense the full 50+ page statement into a clear, professional legal format.
- Highlight the key legal violations and evidence.
- Include a section for attachments and video evidence references.
- Be structured for direct submission or as part of a supporting affidavit.

Here's a draft summary structure — please confirm if you'd like me to format it into a downloadable PDF next (I can do that automatically):
