

Department of Families, Fairness and Housing

Footscray Housing Office
71 Moreland St
FOOTSCRAY VIC 3011
Email: footscray.housing@dffh.vic.gov.au
www.dffh.vic.gov.au
Telephone: 1300 360 462

DR RICHARD MCLEAN
2 MCCUBBIN ST
FOOTSCRAY VIC 3011

18 October 2023

Dear Dr Richard Mclean

Please complete the enclosed form regarding your housing service with Homes Victoria.

If you have any questions, please contact Footscray Housing Office on 1300 360 462.

Yours sincerely

Amy Shipp
Housing Services Officer
Footscray Housing Office

Department of Families, Fairness and Housing

Footscray Housing Office
71 Moreland St
FOOTSCRAY VIC 3011
Email: footscray.housing@dffh.vic.gov.au
www.dffh.vic.gov.au
Telephone: 1300 360 462

DR RICHARD MCLEAN
2 MCCUBBIN ST
FOOTSCRAY VIC 3011

18 October 2023

Ref No. 7103064345

Dear Dr Richard Mclean

Thank you for your application to the Victorian Housing Register.

To allow the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing to assess your application for social housing, we need more information from you or your household members. The documents we need are listed on the back of this letter.

Please send the documents listed to the Housing Advice and Assistance Team at the Footscray Housing Office by 15 November 2023. .

The fastest way to provide this information is online through HousingVic Online Services. To register go to <https://www.housing.vic.gov.au/online-services>

If you cannot provide all of the documents by 15 November 2023, or need more information please contact the Housing Advice and Assistance Team at the Footscray Housing Office on 1300 360 462.

If you do not return the documents by the due date the department will assume you no longer want social housing.

Please quote reference number 7103064345 when making enquiries.

Yours sincerely

Amy Shipp
Housing Services Officer
Footscray Housing Office

Victorian housing register

A PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN THE VICTORIAN GOVERNMENT AND COMMUNITY HOUSING ORGANISATIONS

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

| Household member | Document Requested                 | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Richard Mclean          | Legal Document - Intervention Order       | You have indicated in your application that your current housing is unsafe due to family violence. You will need to present to your local housing office one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• an L17 referral from police</li> <li>• an Intervention Order or an Interim Intervention Order (State), or an application for one of these</li> <li>• an integrated assessment such as the Common Risk Assessment Framework that identifies family violence</li> <li>• a Family Court Restraining Order (Federal)</li> <li>• a letter from a solicitor stating that criminal proceedings have started against the alleged respondent of violence</li> <li>• a letter from a medical practitioner</li> <li>• a letter from a designated service provider</li> <li>• a VCAT order or written confirmation of relinquishment of tenancy due to an exclusion condition.</li> </ul> |
| Richard Mclean          | Supporting Documentation - Support letter | If you are unable to commence legal proceedings because it would place you at further risk, a letter from a medical practitioner, solicitor or a community support worker who provides support services to persons experiencing family violence, is required to confirm that you are experiencing emotional, sexual or physical violence, the reason you are unable to take legal action, and details of your current housing circumstances.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Richard Mclean          | Supporting Documentation - Other          | AND/OR A written report from a member of Victoria Police or Federal Police detailing Police involvement in the situation, and confirmation that the household or a member of the household is under serious threat of physical danger. If you believe that the involvement of the Police would place you or your family under further threat of physical danger, a report is required from a Community Support Worker such as a Local Government Family Support Worker, a Social Worker from a Community Health Centre, Koori or Migrant Resource                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|                |          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------|----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                |          | Centre or similar service. The report must include circumstances that have placed the household under serious threat of physical danger, and reasons why the Police cannot resolve the problem. If you are experiencing family violence and need immediate assistance, call the Safe Steps Family Violence response Centre on 1800 015 188                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Richard Mclean | Letter - | Also, we require a written documentation from an Initial Assessment and Planning Worker (IAP Worker) confirming your current housing circumstances. The IAP Worker will also need to confirm that you have approached their service to seek assistance with securing alternative accommodation, if they were able or unable to assist you and provide details or a brief explanation of your attempts at securing alternative private rental accommodation or why private rental accommodation is not an option for you. If you are not already linked in with a support agency, please contact the crisis hotline number as the first point of contact for assistance on 1800 825 955. |

Please call PH: 1300 360 462 Select Option 2 if you wish to speak to a Housing Services Officer.

You can submit documentation to our team via email: haat.westernmelbourne@dffh.vic.gov.au.

OFFICIAL