If you have been injured due to a violent crime or modern slavery in NSW, you may get help through the Victims Support Scheme. The Victims Support Scheme is administered by the Commissioner of Victims Rights. The Commissioner may delegate functions to their staff at Victims Services, part of the Department of Communities and Justice.

The type of support you get, the information you need to provide and the time limits to apply will depend on your situation. Before you complete the application, please read the Victims Services website to learn about the time limits that apply to you and the information and documents you need to provide to us with your application.

This form will ask you for information about what happened, and where and when the incident(s) happened. We know violence and modern slavery can affect people in lots of different ways and understand it may be difficult to fill in this application. If you have questions or are unsure if you can apply, please contact us by phone or email.

- Phone: Victims Access Line on 1800 633 063 or the Aboriginal Contact Line on 1800 019 123 (Mon - Fri, 9am - 5pm)
- Email: vs@dcj.nsw.gov.au

If you have a hearing or speech impairment, call the National Relay Service on 13 36 77 (TTY) or 1300 555 727 (Speak and Listen).

If you need an interpreter, call the Translating and Interpreting Service on 13 14 50.

What will you need to complete your application form?

It is important you carefully fill in this form and include all the required information and documents. Unfortunately, if something is missing, we will not be able to accept your application.

All applications must have the following information to be accepted:

- Your email address
- A clear copy of the applicant's current government-issued identification. If the applicant is under 18, a clear copy of a parent, step-parent or guardian's government-issued identification is also required. These must be uploaded to the application. Accepted government-issued identification include a driver licence, passport, Medicare card or Centrelink card. To find out the full list of identification types we accept, visit the Supporting documents page on the Victims Services website.
- If the applicant is under 18, a parent, step-parent or guardian must complete the application on their behalf as their authorised person. If you are under 18 and applying without a parent, step-parent or guardian, please contact us before using this form.

Additional documentation may be required, depending on the support type. Visit the Victims Services website to find out what you need to provide with your application.

How long will it take to complete the application form?

20 – 30 minutes.

If you are not ready to submit your application form, you can save a draft and complete it later. Just click the 'Save my progress and resume later' button at the top or bottom of the form. Saved applications will be available for 30 days from the date you started the application. If you do not submit your saved application form to Victims Services within 30 days, it will be deleted, and you will need to start the application again.

The type of support you can apply for and the time limits to apply will depend on your situation. To ensure you submit your application in time, check the time limits that apply in the Victims Support Scheme Quick Guide on the Victims Services website.

Starting your application

Complete the questions below to learn about the support that you may be eligible for based on where and when the incident(s) occurred, the nature of the incident(s), and your age at the time of the incident(s).

Did the incident(s) happen in NSW?

Yes

Who is this application for?

A person who was injured as a direct result of an act of violence or modern slavery

What was the nature of the incident(s)?

Modern Slavery

Did the incident(s) occur after 1st January 2022?

Yes

Were you under the age of 18 at the time the incident(s) ended?

No, 18 or over

How long ago did the incident(s) occur?

Less than 2 years ago

Based on the information you have provided, you may be eligible for the following support. Select the support that you may want to apply for. This will determine which pages of the Application for Support you will see and need to complete.

- Counselling - to help you recover from the psychological and emotional impacts of a crime.

- Financial assistance - to help cover expenses and/or economic loss resulting from a violent crime or modern slavery.

- Recognition payment - to acknowledge that you have been a victim of a violent crime or modern slavery.

For financial assistance for immediate needs, you will also need to provide:

- The applicant's bank account details, or their parent, step-parent or guardian's (if the applicant is under 18). If you would like victims support payments to be made to an account in another name, please contact Victims Services to discuss your options, and
- Copies of itemised tax invoices, receipts, or treatment plans and a description of how the costs are related to the crime, or
- A completed Claim for Immediate Needs Support Package with the required supporting documents (if claiming the Immediate Needs Support Package), and
- The police event number, or a report that explains what happened from a government or government-funded organisation that you disclosed the incident(s) to, or
- A medical, dental or counselling report(s) that shows how the crime affected the victim.

For financial assistance for economic loss, you will also need to provide the supporting documents listed above, and:

- The police event number, or a report that explains what happened from a government or government-funded organisation that you disclosed the incident(s) to, and
- A medical, dental or counselling report(s) that shows how the crime affected the victim, and
- A completed Claim for Loss of Earnings with the required supporting documents (if claiming actual loss of earnings).

For a recognition payment, you will also need to provide:

- The applicant's bank account details, or a parent, step-parent or guardian's (if the applicant is under 18). If you would like victims support payments to be made to an account in another name, please contact Victims Services to discuss your options, and
- The Police event number, or a report that explains what happened from a government or government-funded organisation that you disclosed the incident(s) to, and
- A medical, dental or counselling report(s) that shows how the crime affected the victim. If you don't have a copy of the report(s), you can send them to Victims Services within 12 months of submitting your application. If you don't send them to us within 12 months, your application for a recognition payment will be closed.

It is important you carefully fill in this form and include all the required information and attachments listed above. If something is missing, we cannot accept your application.

You must select at least one support type from the 'Assistance available' before continuing to the next page.

Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken: The Harrowing Life of Barran Dodger is about to make a dent in the consciousness of those who understand betrayal and survival and those it calls out. I was once Dr. Rich McLean—artist, author, advocate—but after enduring a deceitful conspiracy, family violence, and systemic excommunication that far outweighed the good I have contributed to society, I was reborn after a 'fatal' suicide attempt as Barran Resonance Dodger. My new name symbolizes "dodging the barren" of an existence of intended misfortune, designed poverty, and betrayal. Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken is not just my autobiography—it is a battle cry. It is a call to not only survive but to forgive those who sought to harm, erase, and even kill me. As a targeted individual, the attempts on my life were calculated, yet I stand. This is a fight that shows terrorism for what it is—a mere shadow compared to what I endured. For over thirty years, powerful forces manipulated the system against me—ASIO, the Prime Minister, the media, the legal fraternity, law enforcement, and even my own family and friends. I was excommunicated, erased, and driven to the brink of death. Despite their violence, I survived. Today, I stand stronger than ever—not seeking vengeance, but with forgiveness and truth. Though they sought to end my life, I survived. In survival, I choose to extend an olive branch, accepting the apologies of those who wronged me. My greatest weapons are truth and non-violence. In Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken, you will discover: The chilling reality of being a targeted individual, hunted by those in power, including ASIO, the Prime Minister, and media conglomerates. The conscious betrayal by my own family, friends, and colleagues who aligned themselves with those determined to destroy me. How the legal system, law enforcement, and public office were manipulated to systematically erase my presence from society. My journey through homelessness, poverty, and disability, and how I emerged from this with the strength to forgive those who sought my demise. Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken isn't just a story about survival; it's about the courage to forgive, the resilience to live, and the power of truth to triumph over the most insidious forms of violence and oppression. This story is more than just my personal battle—it is a testament to the power of forgiveness and the unbreakable will to simply exist. Download Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken today and uncover the story they tried to bury forever. Sincerely, and with love, Barran Dodger (formerly Dr. Rich McLean) Author, Whistleblower, Survivor P.S. They tried to kill me and evade accountability, but I live to tell my story—and live to forgive.

Synopsis for Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken Once known as Dr. Rich McLean, now reborn as Barran Dodger, Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken tells the harrowing story of a man targeted by some of the most powerful institutions in society. Over thirty years, ASIO, the Prime Minister, the media, law enforcement, and even his own family sought to erase his existence, driving him into homelessness, poverty, and disability. This explosive autobiography details not only how Barran Dodger was betrayed but how he survived with an unwavering commitment to non-violence, truth, and—most remarkably—how he accepted the apologies of those who tried to destroy him. This isn't just a story of survival; it's a story of redemption and the power of forgiveness in the face of unimaginable adversity. Prepare for a battle cry of survival, truth, and the ultimate act of forgiveness. This is a story the world needs to hear. Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken: A Battle Cry for Survival, Forgiveness, and Truth I, Barran Dodger, also known as Dr. Rich McLean, am an artist, author, advocate, and academic. Despite my many accomplishments—receiving a Human Rights Award, building a 30-year art career, and earning a Doctorate—my life has been systematically destroyed by a relentless conspiracy designed to exploit, harass, and silence me. I have been a victim of organized stalking, covert harassment (including V2K technology), and financial sabotage, which has left me destitute, isolated, and struggling to survive. Over millions of dollars in rightful compensation, settlements, and claims have been denied to me, deepening my poverty and homelessness. I have been rejected by the legal system repeatedly, leaving me without any form of recourse. In 2021, I attempted suicide—a tragic act that was subsequently covered up—further illustrating the lengths to which these forces will go to erase my existence. But I am still here. I continue to fight for justice, for truth, and for my life. I demand accountability from the government, the NDIS, the police, and those responsible for the decades of abuse, neglect, and violence I have endured. I seek financial reparations, a thorough investigation, and public acknowledgment of the immense harm inflicted upon me.

Recognition payments are made to eligible victims to acknowledge the trauma suffered. The maximum amount payable depends on the type of offence committed. Not all offences or acts of violence have recognition payment categories associated with them.

You must provide information about the police, government or government-funded organisation that the incident(s) was reported or disclosed to, and medical or dental or counselling reports to show how you were affected by the incident(s). To learn more about recognition payment categories and the supporting documents you need to provide on the Victims Services website.

If you don't provide your medical, dental or counselling report(s), you can send them to Victims Services within 12 months of lodging your application. If you do not give us your reports within 12 months, your application for a recognition payment will be closed.

If a recognition payment is approved while the applicant is younger than 18 years, the payment will be made to NSW Trustee and Guardian to hold until the applicant turns 18 years old. For more information about how NSW Trustee and Guardian will manage the payment, please visit the NSW Trustee and Guardian or contact them directly.

Declaration

I state the following and acknowledge these declarations apply to all claims I make under this Application for Support:

A. The truth, collection and disclosure of information

A1. I declare that the information provided in this application is true and correct.

A2. I understand that giving false or misleading information is a serious offence and may adversely affect the outcome of my victims support application and lead to criminal and/or civil legal action against me.

A3. I confirm that I have read the Department's Privacy Policy and documents referred to therein, and agree to the collection, use and sharing of information as outlined in those documents.

A4. I consent to and authorise the Commissioner of Victims Rights or their delegate (the Commissioner), to disclose personal and health information to verify the information provided, including to State and Commonwealth government agencies and authorities and/or as required by law.

B. Keeping Victims Services up-to-date

B1. I understand that I am required by law to notify the Commissioner if any of my circumstances change after completing this form, as it may affect my eligibility for support.

B2. I understand that it is my responsibility to update the Commissioner with any changes to my personal details in this form, including but not limited to my name, contact details, and bank account information.

C. Accepting payments of Victims Support

C1. I understand that if victims support is approved, action may be taken (restitution) to recover money from a person convicted of a crime for which the support relates.

C2. I understand that if victims support is approved, I am subject to the conditions set out at section 48 of the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013, and I am required to notify the Commissioner if I receive, or have received a payment from another source, in connection with the act of violence or modern slavery. I will be required to repay victims support if this occurs.

C3. If victims support is approved, payment will be deposited to the bank account detailed in this form, unless an updated account has been supplied and confirmed as received by the Commissioner.

C4. I will keep proof of my purchases and I will produce evidence of my expenses on request if this is a condition of payment.

D. Authorising a representative

D D1. If I have authorised someone to be my representative, I understand that:

D1.1. by giving this authority, the Commissioner can get information from and provide information to my authorised representative for the purposes of my application(s)

D1.2. if my authorised person is a representative of a support service or law firm, this authority extends to that organisation

D1.3. my authorised representative must provide my written instructions to update my personal details, including contact details and bank account details

D1.4. my authorised representative must provide my written instructions to withdraw my application(s)

D1.5. any previous authorised representative(s) will no longer be able to act or enquire on my behalf, unless they are my parent or guardian.

Declaration

- I (applicant, parent, guardian or DCJ representative) hereby make the declaration above.
