Dear Ms Kinsella,

I am writing to you because my circumstances have become unsustainable and I urgently need someone to examine the evidence and respond to what I am reporting.

I allege that Bill Shorten ordered my assassination and that an NDA was required to be signed by Ben, my NDIS provider. I allege that I have subsequently experienced prolonged institutional, administrative and psychological harm.

Able point are paid to benefit financially from my entrapment poverty and torture. Sukhi tear support coordinator in Perth was appointed to oversee the exile and attempt. She refuses to deny this or prove the evidence wrong or false. She refuses to be removed from my care. Able point refuse all communication stonewalling my testimony. They enjoy causing me harm.

I am an unprotected whistleblower and former NDIS provider. I am currently trapped in circumstances where I say I am being abused, neglected and subjected to what I describe as psychotropic weapons technology.

The allegations and labels that have been used to justify why nobody will assist me have, in my view, never been accompanied by an adequate evidentiary basis, formal charge, legal process or meaningful pathway through which I can properly challenge or clear my name.

I allege that Able Point is being paid to entrap me and that I am presently unable to leave.

I am hungry. There is no adequate heating or cooling, no food, no cigarette, and no washing facilities. I say staff have been pre-warned not to intervene and have already formed conclusions that prevent them from properly hearing or understanding what I am reporting.

In 2021, I attempted suicide while experiencing poverty and circumstances of abuse that I say have continued for more than five years. I am now again living in circumstances that I consider unsustainable.

I also believe that my therapy dog's illness and my inability to access the financial means necessary to care for her have been used in ways that deliberately trigger an emotional reaction. I understand this as part of what I describe as a broader psychological warfare campaign.

I am not asking you simply to believe me.

I am asking you to examine the evidence.

My public archive contains government correspondence, official records, documentary material, personal testimony and other source material. I have deliberately separated documented facts, official records, corroborated evidence, allegations, personal testimony, inference, interpretation and matters of faith so that readers can examine the underlying material themselves.

My archive is here:

https://wezzo72.github.io/Barrandodger/

The principal archive is here:

https://barrandodgerarchive.base44.app

A second public-facing archive is here:

https://barrandododger.com

I have attached evidence relevant to what I am reporting.

Please look at the archive, examine the source material, follow the underlying documents and fact-check what I have placed before you.

As God is my witness, I am speaking the truth as I understand and experience it.

But I also want to put a simple question to you:

If you decide to ignore me, refuse to examine the evidence, or allow me to remain in circumstances where I say I am being treated as a human sacrifice, who is your witness to that decision?

I have put evidence before you.

Where is the evidentiary basis for the decision to disregard it?

I am asking for someone to actually examine the record before making assumptions about me or my circumstances.

The full public statement from the Barran Dodger Archive is reproduced below for context.

Kind regards,

Barran Dodger

PUBLIC STATEMENT FROM BARRAN DODGER
OF THE BARRAN DODGER ARCHIVE

THE WITNESS REMAINS: A WHISTLEBLOWER'S TESTIMONY OF SURVIVAL & FAITH

The Barran Dodger Archive is a public documentary and spiritual record established to preserve, organise and make accessible a decades-long body of evidence concerning alleged institutional, administrative, financial and human-rights harms.

It brings together official records, correspondence, documentary evidence, personal testimony, forensic analysis, research, philosophy, spiritual gospels and prophetic declarations, including writings understood by the author to have been anointed by the Most High God.

The Archive deliberately distinguishes between documented facts, official records, corroborated evidence, allegations, personal testimony, inference, interpretation and matters of faith. This distinction is fundamental to its purpose: readers are invited to examine the underlying evidence for themselves, test the claims, consider the sources and reach their own conclusions.

At the heart of the Archive is a testimony of survival and preservation.

What the author believes was subjected to attempts at silencing, erasure, exclusion or institutional disappearance has nevertheless survived in records, documents, testimony, memory, faith and public disclosure.

The central declaration is simple:

THE WITNESS REMAINS.

The Archive therefore represents both an evidentiary record and a spiritual testimony. The author understands his survival through a faith-based conviction that the Most High God protected, preserved and gave purpose to what human institutions could not erase.

The spiritual writings and prophetic declarations within the Archive are presented as matters of faith and personal interpretation. They are preserved alongside the documentary record so that the complete testimony — evidentiary, personal, philosophical and spiritual — can be understood in its own context.

The purpose is not to demand belief.

It is to preserve the record.

It is to make the evidence accessible.

It is to ensure that the surviving witness can be examined.

And it is to leave the historical record open to independent scrutiny.

THE ARCHIVE IS 100% FREE TO ACCESS

https://barrandodgerarchive.base44.app

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE

The Barran Dodger Archive is founded on the principle that knowledge, evidence and truth should be freely accessible.

There is no paywall for the public documentary record. Research, testimony, philosophy, spiritual writings, prophetic declarations and public-interest material are made available for people to examine for themselves.

Access to knowledge should not depend upon a person's ability to pay.

The Archive is therefore freely accessible, while its preservation and continued publication require practical resources.

SUPPORTING THE WITNESS AND THE ARCHIVE

Barran Dodger describes himself as an unprotected whistleblower living in circumstances of prolonged exile, financial hardship and vulnerability, and as an internally displaced asylum seeker within the country of his Australian citizenship.

Those circumstances create practical needs extending beyond the preservation of documents.

Voluntary donations are therefore accepted from anyone who freely wishes to assist.

Support may contribute towards essential needs including food, safe accommodation, communication, technology, transport, personal safety, website and domain costs, document preservation, archival infrastructure and the continued publication of the public record.

A donation does not purchase access to the Archive.

It does not purchase influence over the evidence.

It does not purchase editorial control.

It does not determine what is published or what conclusions readers should reach.

It simply helps sustain the person and infrastructure necessary to keep the Archive alive, functioning and freely accessible.

If you are blessed with sufficient prosperity to help preserve this work, your voluntary support can help ensure that financial hardship does not become another mechanism through which a public record disappears.

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE.

THE EVIDENCE IS OPEN TO EXAMINATION.

LASTLY — A SECOND PUBLIC-FACING ARCHIVE

For readers who wish to go beyond the principal Barran Dodger Archive, a second public-facing repository provides another point of access to the broader documentary record.

https://barrandodger.com

This website provides an additional gateway into the history, evidence, testimony, research and ideas that underpin the Archive. It is intended to help readers navigate the wider body of material and understand how individual documents, events, experiences and arguments have been brought together into a continuing record.

Its significance is not dependent upon the reader accepting Barran Dodger's conclusions. Rather, the value of preserving such a record lies in allowing the underlying material to remain available for examination. Readers can consider the chronology, inspect the documentary evidence, distinguish recorded facts from allegations and personal testimony, follow referenced material and form their own independent assessment.

The existence of multiple public repositories also reflects the central purpose of the project: preservation. Where records are distributed across years, institutions, correspondence, proceedings, personal archives and digital platforms, preserving accessible copies and pathways to the evidence can help prevent an individual historical record from becoming inaccessible or forgotten.

Readers are therefore invited to visit both public-facing archives, examine the material carefully and critically, and make their own assessment of what the surviving evidence demonstrates.

The purpose is not to ask the reader to believe.

The purpose is to ensure that the record remains available to be examined.
