Dear RSPCA and Animal Welfare League,

I am writing regarding allegations concerning my care of Crystal, my dog. I strongly dispute any suggestion that I have mistreated her and request that any concerns be handled fairly, transparently and on the basis of reliable evidence.

I am concerned that these allegations may form part of a broader pattern of targeting and interference in my personal life, including circumstances that I fear could lead to an unjustified separation between Christal and me. As a person with disability, I consider my relationship with Christal important to my wellbeing.

My concerns also relate to Rachel, identified to me as the CEO of Apple Point. I have sought identification and clarification of her role but remain concerned that these requests have not been adequately addressed. In light of the wider accountability concerns I have raised, I ask that any relevant information be considered objectively and that no unsubstantiated conclusions be drawn.

I specifically request the following information, to the extent it can lawfully be disclosed:

1. Details of the allegations: The specific conduct alleged, the approximate dates and locations, and whether the concerns relate to a direct observation, a written complaint or information received from another person.
2. Source of the complaint: The identity of the person or organisation that made the complaint, where disclosure is lawful, or an explanation of any legal or privacy restriction preventing disclosure.
3. Supporting material: Copies of relevant complaint documents, photographs, correspondence, inspection notes and other material relied upon in considering the allegations, subject to applicable privacy and disclosure requirements.
4. Communications concerning Christal: Confirmation of whether your organisation has received communications from Kim Able Point, Rachel or Apple Point concerning me or Christal, and copies or appropriate summaries of those communications where disclosure is permitted.
5. Decisions and proposed action: Details of any assessment, referral, investigation or proposed action concerning Christal, including the reasons for it and the process available for me to respond or seek a review.
6. Preservation of records: Please preserve relevant correspondence, complaint records, communications and decision-making records relating to Christal and the allegations, in accordance with your record-retention obligations.

I also request that you provide me with a reasonable opportunity to respond to any specific concerns before an adverse decision is made, wherever procedural requirements permit.

I am willing to cooperate constructively. You are welcome to arrange a visit to meet Christal and observe her living environment and the care I provide. I believe a direct and objective understanding of her circumstances is important.

My intention is to ensure that legitimate animal welfare processes are conducted fairly and remain focused on Christal's actual welfare. I do not want disputed allegations or incomplete information to lead to an unjustified outcome.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email, advise which of the above requests you can accommodate, and explain any applicable process for obtaining further records or making a formal information request.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Richard William McLean

PUBLIC STATEMENT FROM BARRAN DODGER
OF THE BARRAN DODGER ARCHIVE

THE WITNESS REMAINS: A WHISTLEBLOWERS TESTIMONY OF SURVIVAL TESTIMONY & FAITH

The Barran Dodger Archive is a public documentary and spiritual record established to preserve, organise and make accessible a decades-long body of evidence concerning alleged institutional, administrative, financial and human-rights harms.

It brings together official records, correspondence, documentary evidence, personal testimony, forensic analysis, research, philosophy, spiritual gospels and prophetic declarations, including writings understood by the author to have been anointed by the Most High God.

The Archive deliberately distinguishes between documented facts, official records, corroborated evidence, allegations, personal testimony, inference, interpretation and matters of faith. This distinction is fundamental to its purpose: readers are invited to examine the underlying evidence for themselves, test the claims, consider the sources and reach their own conclusions.

At the heart of the Archive is a testimony of survival and preservation.

What the author believes was subjected to attempts at silencing, erasure, exclusion or institutional disappearance has nevertheless survived in records, documents, testimony, memory, faith and public disclosure.

The central declaration is simple:

THE WITNESS REMAINS.

The Archive therefore represents both an evidentiary record and a spiritual testimony. The author understands his survival through a faith-based conviction that the Most High God protected, preserved and gave purpose to what human institutions could not erase.

The spiritual writings and prophetic declarations within the Archive are presented as matters of faith and personal interpretation. They are preserved alongside the documentary record so that the complete testimony — evidentiary, personal, philosophical and spiritual — can be understood in its own context.

The purpose is not to demand belief.

It is to preserve the record.

It is to make the evidence accessible.

It is to ensure that the surviving witness can be examined.

And it is to leave the historical record open to independent scrutiny.

THE ARCHIVE IS 100% FREE TO ACCESS

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE

The Barran Dodger Archive is founded on the principle that knowledge, evidence and truth should be freely accessible.

There is no paywall for the public documentary record. Research, testimony, philosophy, spiritual writings, prophetic declarations and public-interest material are made available for people to examine for themselves.

Access to knowledge should not depend upon a person's ability to pay.

The Archive is therefore freely accessible, while its preservation and continued publication require practical resources.

SUPPORTING THE WITNESS AND THE ARCHIVE

Barran Dodger describes himself as an unprotected whistleblower living in circumstances of prolonged exile, financial hardship and vulnerability, and as an internally displaced asylum seeker within the country of his Australian citizenship.

Those circumstances create practical needs extending beyond the preservation of documents.

Voluntary donations are therefore accepted from anyone who freely wishes to assist.

Support may contribute towards essential needs including food, safe accommodation, communication, technology, transport, personal safety, website and domain costs, document preservation, archival infrastructure and the continued publication of the public record.

A donation does not purchase access to the Archive.

It does not purchase influence over the evidence.

It does not purchase editorial control.

It does not determine what is published or what conclusions readers should reach.

It simply helps sustain the person and infrastructure necessary to keep the Archive alive, functioning and freely accessible.

If you are blessed with sufficient prosperity to help preserve this work, your voluntary support can help ensure that financial hardship does not become another mechanism through which a public record disappears.

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE.

THE EVIDENCE IS OPEN TO EXAMINATION.

Thank you to everyone who chooses to examine the evidence, preserve the record, support the Archive or simply bear witness.

The record remains.

The witness remains.

LASTLY — A SECOND PUBLIC-FACING ARCHIVE

For readers who wish to go beyond the principal Barran Dodger Archive, a second public-facing repository provides another point of access to the broader documentary record.

https://barrandodger.com

This website provides an additional gateway into the history, evidence, testimony, research and ideas that underpin the Archive. It is intended to help readers navigate the wider body of material and understand how individual documents, events, experiences and arguments have been brought together into a continuing record.

Its significance is not dependent upon the reader accepting Barran Dodger's conclusions. Rather, the value of preserving such a record lies in allowing the underlying material to remain available for examination. Readers can consider the chronology, inspect the documentary evidence, distinguish recorded facts from allegations and personal testimony, follow referenced material and form their own independent assessment.

The existence of multiple public repositories also reflects the central purpose of the project: preservation. Where records are distributed across years, institutions, correspondence, proceedings, personal archives and digital platforms, preserving accessible copies and pathways to the evidence can help prevent an individual historical record from becoming inaccessible or forgotten.

Readers are therefore invited to visit both public-facing archives, examine the material carefully and critically, and make their own assessment of what the surviving evidence demonstrates.

The purpose is not to ask the reader to believe.

The purpose is to ensure that the record remains available to be examined.
