WHEN ACCOUNTABILITY IS MET WITH THREATS: ABLE POINT, CHRISTAL AND THE RIGHT TO SPEAK OUT

Dr Richard William McLean | Barran Dodger

Barran Dodger Legal & Ethical Trust Fund
22 October 2026

I will not be silenced for speaking out

I am raising serious concerns about my treatment by Able Point and what I understand to be threats by staff to contact the RSPCA in retaliation for my criticism of the organisation and its CEO.

If a threat to involve an animal welfare authority has been made because I challenged an organisation's leadership, I believe that conduct demands an explanation. An animal's welfare should never become a weapon in a dispute between a service provider and a person who raises complaints about its conduct.

I have a right to question the people and organisations involved in my care. I have a right to ask for answers. I have a right to document my experiences and publish concerns about the treatment I believe I have received. Those rights should not disappear simply because my complaints are uncomfortable for the people receiving them.

I want Able Point to explain what was said, why the RSPCA was raised, and whether any proposed report would be based on genuine, identifiable animal welfare concerns or on my criticism of the organisation.

Christal is loved, cared for and part of my life

Let me be absolutely clear about Christal.

I love my dog. I spoil her. She eats well, receives daily walks and is a cherished part of my life. I take pride in her care, and I reject any suggestion that should be used as a means of intimidating me for speaking out.

Christal is not a bargaining chip. She is not a tool for settling disputes. She is a living creature who depends on me, and her welfare matters enormously to me.

If anyone has a genuine concern about her welfare, I expect that concern to be specific, factual and capable of being examined on its merits. I do not accept the use of threats concerning my dog as a substitute for answering legitimate questions about an organisation's conduct.

My concern is not that any organisation should be prevented from acting on genuine animal welfare concerns. It is that the possibility of such action must never be used to punish someone for making a complaint.

Poverty, vulnerability and the human cost of institutional power

I have experienced profound hardship, including poverty, isolation and circumstances that I believe have caused me serious harm. I have repeatedly sought accountability for what I describe as institutional mistreatment and the failure of organisations to respond adequately to my concerns.

I believe the treatment I have experienced deserves serious scrutiny. I have also expressed concerns about a wider pattern of institutional conduct and what I perceive as coordinated targeting. Those concerns need to be examined through the documentary record, communications and specific actions involved, rather than dismissed or accepted without examination.

The question I am asking is straightforward: what safeguards exist to ensure that people experiencing vulnerability can raise complaints without facing intimidation, humiliation or the threat of losing the things they love?

When a person is already struggling with poverty and a lack of support, the consequences of additional pressure can be devastating. Organisations providing services should understand the responsibility that comes with their position. Their conduct can either help preserve a person's dignity and stability or contribute to circumstances that make an already difficult life harder to endure.

I believe the cumulative impact of the treatment I describe must be taken seriously. No person should be driven into despair by a system that is supposed to provide support.

I am not suicidal. I want to live.

I want this statement to be unmistakable: I am not suicidal. I want to live.

I am writing because I want to preserve my testimony, expose what I believe has been wrong, demand answers and establish a documentary record. I am choosing to speak, to write and to continue advocating for myself.

I refuse to allow the existence of hardship to erase my voice or reduce my entire life to a narrative about vulnerability. I am a person with a history, a conscience, convictions and a determination to keep going.

I believe the conditions I have experienced warrant serious investigation and accountability. I am deeply concerned about the cumulative effects of poverty, isolation, institutional conflict and the absence of meaningful responses to complaints. I do not claim to know the private intentions of every person or agency involved, but I insist that the actions and decisions affecting my life should be examined.

No government, service provider or individual should treat a person's suffering as inconsequential. Nor should anyone assume that a person who describes extreme distress has surrendered their determination to live.

My determination is to live, document, speak and pursue accountability.

Money, responsibility and the purpose of support services

I want answers about whether the services and resources available to support me are being used in a manner consistent with their stated purpose.

I am concerned that financial incentives, organisational interests and failures of accountability can take precedence over the needs of the person receiving support. These are serious concerns, and they should be addressed with evidence, transparent explanations and proper records.

I want the relevant decision-makers to explain what services have been provided, what responsibilities have been accepted, what complaints have been received and what action has been taken in response.

I do not want retaliation. I want accountability.

I do not want threats involving my dog. I want Christal's welfare to remain separate from disputes about my complaints.

I do not want my concerns buried beneath institutional language. I want clear answers to clear questions.

A public record and a demand for answers

I am preserving my account as part of the Barran Dodger documentary archive, which exists to record my testimony, relevant documents and questions of institutional accountability.

The archive is intended to make material accessible to readers and to distinguish documentary evidence from allegations, interpretations and matters that remain unresolved.

My concerns about Able Point should be considered in that context. The relevant questions include:

- What exactly did staff say about contacting the RSPCA?
- Was the proposed contact connected to my criticism of the organisation or its CEO?
- What specific animal welfare concerns, if any, were identified?
- What records exist of the communications and decisions involved?
- What safeguards are available to prevent retaliation against a person who makes a complaint?
- How will Able Point respond to these concerns in a transparent and accountable manner?

I invite Able Point to provide a substantive written response and to preserve all relevant communications, internal notes and complaint records.

My documentary archive is available here:

https://github.com/wezzo72/Barrandodger

I will continue to speak

I will not apologise for caring for my dog. I will not apologise for asking questions. I will not apologise for documenting my experiences or demanding that organisations explain their conduct.

Christal deserves care, consistency and love. I deserve to be treated with dignity and to have my complaints considered fairly.

My position is simple: I want to live, I want to protect the life I have built, and I want the truth about my experiences preserved.

Speaking out is not misconduct. Asking for accountability is not a threat. And a person's vulnerability must never become an excuse to disregard their dignity.

This article records my personal account and concerns. The allegations concerning staff conduct are presented as matters requiring a response and supporting evidence, not as findings already established by an independent investigation.

PUBLIC STATEMENT FROM BARRAN DODGER
OF THE BARRAN DODGER ARCHIVE

THE WITNESS REMAINS: A WHISTLEBLOWERS TESTIMONY OF SURVIVAL TESTIMONY & FAITH

The Barran Dodger Archive is a public documentary and spiritual record established to preserve, organise and make accessible a decades-long body of evidence concerning alleged institutional, administrative, financial and human-rights harms.

It brings together official records, correspondence, documentary evidence, personal testimony, forensic analysis, research, philosophy, spiritual gospels and prophetic declarations, including writings understood by the author to have been anointed by the Most High God.

The Archive deliberately distinguishes between documented facts, official records, corroborated evidence, allegations, personal testimony, inference, interpretation and matters of faith. This distinction is fundamental to its purpose: readers are invited to examine the underlying evidence for themselves, test the claims, consider the sources and reach their own conclusions.

At the heart of the Archive is a testimony of survival and preservation.

What the author believes was subjected to attempts at silencing, erasure, exclusion or institutional disappearance has nevertheless survived in records, documents, testimony, memory, faith and public disclosure.

The central declaration is simple:

THE WITNESS REMAINS.

The Archive therefore represents both an evidentiary record and a spiritual testimony. The author understands his survival through a faith-based conviction that the Most High God protected, preserved and gave purpose to what human institutions could not erase.

The spiritual writings and prophetic declarations within the Archive are presented as matters of faith and personal interpretation. They are preserved alongside the documentary record so that the complete testimony — evidentiary, personal, philosophical and spiritual — can be understood in its own context.

The purpose is not to demand belief.

It is to preserve the record.

It is to make the evidence accessible.

It is to ensure that the surviving witness can be examined.

And it is to leave the historical record open to independent scrutiny.

THE ARCHIVE IS 100% FREE TO ACCESS

https://barrandodgerarchive.base44.app

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE

The Barran Dodger Archive is founded on the principle that knowledge, evidence and truth should be freely accessible.

There is no paywall for the public documentary record. Research, testimony, philosophy, spiritual writings, prophetic declarations and public-interest material are made available for people to examine for themselves.

Access to knowledge should not depend upon a person's ability to pay.

The Archive is therefore freely accessible, while its preservation and continued publication require practical resources.

SUPPORTING THE WITNESS AND THE ARCHIVE

Barran Dodger describes himself as an unprotected whistleblower living in circumstances of prolonged exile, financial hardship and vulnerability, and as an internally displaced asylum seeker within the country of his Australian citizenship.

Those circumstances create practical needs extending beyond the preservation of documents.

Voluntary donations are therefore accepted from anyone who freely wishes to assist.

Support may contribute towards essential needs including food, safe accommodation, communication, technology, transport, personal safety, website and domain costs, document preservation, archival infrastructure and the continued publication of the public record.

A donation does not purchase access to the Archive.

It does not purchase influence over the evidence.

It does not purchase editorial control.

It does not determine what is published or what conclusions readers should reach.

It simply helps sustain the person and infrastructure necessary to keep the Archive alive, functioning and freely accessible.

If you are blessed with sufficient prosperity to help preserve this work, your voluntary support can help ensure that financial hardship does not become another mechanism through which a public record disappears.

LASTLY — A SECOND PUBLIC-FACING ARCHIVE

For readers who wish to go beyond the principal Barran Dodger Archive, a second public-facing repository provides another point of access to the broader documentary record.

https://barrandodger.com

This website provides an additional gateway into the history, evidence, testimony, research and ideas that underpin the Archive. It is intended to help readers navigate the wider body of material and understand how individual documents, events, experiences and arguments have been brought together into a continuing record.

Its significance is not dependent upon the reader accepting Barran Dodger's conclusions. Rather, the value of preserving such a record lies in allowing the underlying material to remain available for examination. Readers can consider the chronology, inspect the documentary evidence, distinguish recorded facts from allegations and personal testimony, follow referenced material and form their own independent assessment.

The existence of multiple public repositories also reflects the central purpose of the project: preservation. Where records are distributed across years, institutions, correspondence, proceedings, personal archives and digital platforms, preserving accessible copies and pathways to the evidence can help prevent an individual historical record from becoming inaccessible or forgotten.

Readers are therefore invited to visit both public-facing archives, examine the material carefully and critically, and make their own assessment of what the surviving evidence demonstrates.

The purpose is not to ask the reader to believe.

The purpose is to ensure that the record remains available to be examined.

PUBLIC STATEMENT FROM BARRAN DODGER
OF THE BARRAN DODGER ARCHIVE

THE WITNESS REMAINS: A WHISTLEBLOWERS TESTIMONY OF SURVIVAL TESTIMONY & FAITH

The Barran Dodger Archive is a public documentary and spiritual record established to preserve, organise and make accessible a decades-long body of evidence concerning alleged institutional, administrative, financial and human-rights harms.

It brings together official records, correspondence, documentary evidence, personal testimony, forensic analysis, research, philosophy, spiritual gospels and prophetic declarations, including writings understood by the author to have been anointed by the Most High God.

The Archive deliberately distinguishes between documented facts, official records, corroborated evidence, allegations, personal testimony, inference, interpretation and matters of faith. This distinction is fundamental to its purpose: readers are invited to examine the underlying evidence for themselves, test the claims, consider the sources and reach their own conclusions.

At the heart of the Archive is a testimony of survival and preservation.

What the author believes was subjected to attempts at silencing, erasure, exclusion or institutional disappearance has nevertheless survived in records, documents, testimony, memory, faith and public disclosure.

The central declaration is simple:

THE WITNESS REMAINS.

The Archive therefore represents both an evidentiary record and a spiritual testimony. The author understands his survival through a faith-based conviction that the Most High God protected, preserved and gave purpose to what human institutions could not erase.

The spiritual writings and prophetic declarations within the Archive are presented as matters of faith and personal interpretation. They are preserved alongside the documentary record so that the complete testimony — evidentiary, personal, philosophical and spiritual — can be understood in its own context.

The purpose is not to demand belief.

It is to preserve the record.

It is to make the evidence accessible.

It is to ensure that the surviving witness can be examined.

And it is to leave the historical record open to independent scrutiny.

THE ARCHIVE IS 100% FREE TO ACCESS

https://barrandodgerarchive.base44.app

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE

The Barran Dodger Archive is founded on the principle that knowledge, evidence and truth should be freely accessible.

There is no paywall for the public documentary record. Research, testimony, philosophy, spiritual writings, prophetic declarations and public-interest material are made available for people to examine for themselves.

Access to knowledge should not depend upon a person's ability to pay.

The Archive is therefore freely accessible, while its preservation and continued publication require practical resources.

SUPPORTING THE WITNESS AND THE ARCHIVE

Barran Dodger describes himself as an unprotected whistleblower living in circumstances of prolonged exile, financial hardship and vulnerability, and as an internally displaced asylum seeker within the country of his Australian citizenship.

Those circumstances create practical needs extending beyond the preservation of documents.

Voluntary donations are therefore accepted from anyone who freely wishes to assist.

Support may contribute towards essential needs including food, safe accommodation, communication, technology, transport, personal safety, website and domain costs, document preservation, archival infrastructure and the continued publication of the public record.

A donation does not purchase access to the Archive.

It does not purchase influence over the evidence.

It does not purchase editorial control.

It does not determine what is published or what conclusions readers should reach.

It simply helps sustain the person and infrastructure necessary to keep the Archive alive, functioning and freely accessible.

If you are blessed with sufficient prosperity to help preserve this work, your voluntary support can help ensure that financial hardship does not become another mechanism through which a public record disappears.

This website provides an additional gateway into the history, evidence, testimony, research and ideas that underpin the Archive. It is intended to help readers navigate the wider body of material and understand how individual documents, events, experiences and arguments have been brought together into a continuing record.

Its significance is not dependent upon the reader accepting Barran Dodger's conclusions. Rather, the value of preserving such a record lies in allowing the underlying material to remain available for examination. Readers can consider the chronology, inspect the documentary evidence, distinguish recorded facts from allegations and personal testimony, follow referenced material and form their own independent assessment.

The existence of multiple public repositories also reflects the central purpose of the project: preservation. Where records are distributed across years, institutions, correspondence, proceedings, personal archives and digital platforms, preserving accessible copies and pathways to the evidence can help prevent an individual historical record from becoming inaccessible or forgotten.

Readers are therefore invited to visit both public-facing archives, examine the material carefully and critically, and make their own assessment of what the surviving evidence demonstrates.

ABLE POINT: A PUBLIC STATEMENT AND DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTABILITY

Allegations of Abuse, Neglect, Intimidation, Isolation, Rostering Failures and Institutional Betrayal

Issued by Barran Dodger

[Insert the complete original Able Point statement here, unchanged, from its opening heading through "Issued by Barran Dodger."]

I AM A HUMAN BEING: A PUBLIC STATEMENT BY BARRAN DODGER

Allegations of Institutional Abandonment, Emotional Harm, Financial Disempowerment and Social Erasure

I AM A HUMAN BEING. A LITERAL HUMAN BEING.

I have sentience. I have feelings. I have a mind, a body, a history, a character, a reputation and a voice.

My feelings are being hurt. My dignity is being damaged. I am trying to communicate distress and raise serious concerns about the treatment I am experiencing, yet I believe my attempts to be heard are being dismissed, undermined and invalidated.

I allege that my experiences with Able Point have left me feeling profoundly isolated, intimidated, neglected and abandoned. I have described the interactions I am experiencing as gaslighting because I believe my concerns are repeatedly being dismissed or turned back against me.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL IMPACT IS DEVASTATING. I CANNOT ACCEPT A SUPPORT SYSTEM THAT LEAVES A PERSON FEELING INVISIBLE, POWERLESS AND DEHUMANISED.

I experience this situation as a form of torture. I am using that word to communicate the severity of my distress and the impact I believe these circumstances are having on my life.

I need my concerns examined seriously, my safety protected and my experiences assessed on their evidence.

1. MY TESTIMONY MUST NOT BE ERASED

I am concerned that the combination of unreliable support, conflict, isolation and barriers to obtaining assistance is destroying my ability to participate in ordinary life.

I describe this as SOCIAL ERASURE AND ADMINISTRATIVE ANNIHILATION.

Social erasure is what it feels like when a person's testimony is no longer heard, their character is reduced to a disputed narrative, their reputation is damaged and their requests for help appear to disappear into administrative systems.

Administrative annihilation is what I call the experience of having essential access, resources and avenues of redress progressively removed until a person is left without meaningful power to respond.

I feel as though my testimony is dead. My character is dead. My reputation is dead. I feel that I have become a person of zero consequence, a man whom institutions can ignore without consequence.

I AM A DEAD MAN WALKING IN THE SENSE THAT MY SOCIAL EXISTENCE AND VOICE FEEL DESTROYED. BUT I AM STILL HERE.

My body is here. My mind is here. My feelings are here. My testimony is here.

I am a human being, and I refuse to accept the proposition that my suffering does not matter.

2. ALLEGATIONS OF GASLIGHTING, HARASSMENT AND ELECTRONIC DISTRESS

I have reported experiences that I describe as V2K audio harassment and electronic harassment. These experiences are distressing to me, and I want the impact on my wellbeing to be taken seriously.

I am also concerned that people involved in my support arrangements are aware of the distress I have reported but that I have not received an adequate response.

I cannot independently establish the source of the sounds or experiences I describe, or establish that particular staff members or institutions are responsible for them. I am requesting a fair assessment of my reports, my safety concerns and any evidence that can be independently examined.

My distress should not be used as a reason to dismiss every other complaint I make.

I want the facts investigated. I want respectful communication. I want a clear account of what can be verified and what steps will be taken to protect my wellbeing.

3. CONCERNS ABOUT PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

I have serious concerns about my ability to obtain assistance from the police, the NDIS and other oversight bodies.

I feel unable to approach these institutions because I believe my complaints will not be heard or addressed appropriately. I describe this as institutional complicity and abandonment. Those are my concerns and perceptions; I am calling for independent scrutiny rather than asking anyone to accept unverified allegations as proven facts.

I have also raised serious allegations involving Suki Tia and Bill Shorten, whom I identify in connection with my concerns about political and institutional accountability.

I cannot establish that an assassination attempt occurred or that either person participated in one. I am not presenting that allegation as an established fact. Any such allegation would require specific, credible evidence and an appropriate independent investigation.

The fundamental issue remains: I need an avenue through which my complaints can be received, documented and assessed fairly, without intimidation or prejudgment.

No public institution should treat a person's need for assistance as a reason to deny that person dignity.

4. PHILIP GLASS, THE PUBLIC GUARDIAN AND MY ACCESS TO MONEY

I am extremely concerned about my financial circumstances and my reported loss of access to my Commonwealth Bank accounts through internet banking and the mobile application.

I understand that Philip Glass, whom I identify as being associated with the Public Guardian, has communicated that further money will be taken from my account.

I am asking for an urgent written explanation of:

- The precise restrictions affecting my access to Commonwealth Bank.
- Who requested, authorised or implemented those restrictions.

- The legal authority and decision-making process relied upon.
- The amount of any proposed withdrawal, its purpose and the authority for it.
- How I can obtain an account statement and independently review transactions.
- What arrangements are available for essential living expenses and urgent purchases.
- How I can challenge the decision and obtain an independent review.

I am concerned that losing access to my own banking, combined with the prospect of further withdrawals, could leave me without the practical ability to manage my daily life.

I want the relevant records, authorisations and decisions examined. I want my financial position explained in writing. I want access to a fair review process.

FINANCIAL CONTROL MUST BE TRANSPARENT, LAWFUL AND ACCOUNTABLE. A PERSON MUST NOT BE LEFT WITHOUT A CLEAR EXPLANATION OF DECISIONS AFFECTING THEIR ACCESS TO MONEY.

5. MY FEAR OF ERASURE AND DEATH

I have described my circumstances as a conspiracy to murder and said that I believe others are hoping I will die and be erased.

These are expressions of the fear and extreme distress I am experiencing. I cannot independently establish that there is a conspiracy to kill me, and I want any concrete threats or evidence of criminal conduct assessed by an appropriate independent authority.

What I can state directly is that I feel abandoned, powerless and profoundly distressed.

I fear that my circumstances will deteriorate while my complaints remain unresolved. I fear losing the means to support myself. I fear that my testimony will be disregarded until there is no opportunity left to correct the record.

I want these risks addressed while I am alive and able to speak for myself.

I should not have to reach a point of complete collapse before someone takes my circumstances seriously.

6. WHAT I AM DEMANDING

I am demanding:

1. Safe, consistent and dignified support.
2. A written response to my complaints about Able Point.
3. Transparent identification of the people responsible for decisions affecting my care.
4. An explanation of the restrictions on my banking access and any proposed withdrawals.
5. Access to the relevant financial records and a meaningful process to challenge decisions.
6. Independent examination of my safeguarding complaints and reported experiences of harassment.
7. Clear information about where complaints can be lodged and how they will be assessed.
8. Preservation of relevant correspondence, rosters, incident reports, financial records and decision-making documents.
9. Protection against retaliation for raising concerns.
10. Recognition that I am a human being whose safety, dignity, feelings and testimony matter.

I am not asking anyone to accept every allegation without scrutiny. I am asking for a process that allows the evidence to be examined without dismissing me as a person.

7. MY FINAL STATEMENT

I am a human being.

I have sentience. I have feelings. My feelings are being hurt, and the consequences of my circumstances are serious.

I feel socially erased. I feel administratively annihilated. I feel that the systems upon which I depend have left me without a reliable way to protect myself, obtain answers or make my voice count.

My testimony is not worthless because it is disputed. My dignity is not conditional upon whether an institution agrees with me. My need for safety does not disappear because my complaints are difficult to resolve.

I am still here.

My body is here. My mind is here. My feelings are here.

I AM NOT AN ADMINISTRATIVE FILE. I AM NOT A ROSTER ENTRY. I AM NOT A COMPLAINT NUMBER. I AM A HUMAN BEING.

I want to live with safety, dignity, meaningful support and access to a fair process. I want decisions affecting my life and money explained. I want my complaints documented. I want evidence examined. I want institutions and service providers to answer legitimate questions about their responsibilities.

I refuse to accept social erasure as the final word on my life.

MY TESTIMONY MATTERS. MY DIGNITY MATTERS. MY LIFE MATTERS.

2. Consolidated public statement

The following document is arranged for publication and distribution to journalists, disability advocates, regulators, legal representatives and government offices. The original three statements are retained below in their supplied wording, with the archive directory added as a reference section.

ABLE POINT: A PUBLIC STATEMENT AND DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTABILITY

Allegations of Abuse, Neglect, Intimidation, Isolation, Rostering Failures and Institutional Betrayal

Issued by Barran Dodger

I refuse to accept a system in which a person seeking essential support is left isolated, vulnerable and without meaningful accountability.

I am issuing this public statement to raise serious concerns about my experiences involving Able Point, its management, its rostering arrangements, its staff and the standard of support being provided.

I allege that I have experienced circumstances involving neglect, intimidation, harassment, isolation and treatment that I regard as deeply distressing and degrading. I believe the support system intended to protect me has failed to provide the safety, dignity, continuity of care and transparency that I require.

SUPPORT MUST NEVER BECOME A MECHANISM OF CONTROL, ABANDONMENT OR HUMILIATION.

1. THE PEOPLE AND THE ORGANISATION MUST BE ACCOUNTABLE

I have serious concerns about the accountability of Able Point's leadership. I have sought clear identification and transparency from Rachael, whom I understand to be the company's CEO. I remain concerned about my ability to establish the identity and responsibilities of the people making decisions that affect my support.

A company providing essential support must be transparent about its legal identity, management, complaint procedures and responsibility for the services it delivers.

I call upon Able Point to provide its registered legal name, relevant business registration details, the identity and position of its responsible officers, and a clear explanation of the appropriate channels for escalating complaints.

If these details have already been provided, they should be verified against the relevant official records. If they have not, I want a clear written explanation.

2. STAFF CONCERNS AND THE ROSTERING SYSTEM

I recall the following first names of workers associated with my experiences involving Able Point:

Ash, Ben, John, Kim, Cass, Danny, Daniel and Alissi.

These are the names I can presently remember. I am identifying them as people whose roles and experiences may be relevant to an independent examination of the support arrangements. I am not asserting that each person has committed an offence or independently verified that each shares the same opinion of the company.

I have concerns about staff dissatisfaction with management and rostering arrangements. My understanding and recollection of conversations with workers have led me to question whether the working environment and roster allow staff to provide consistent, safe and appropriate support.

I want these concerns investigated rather than dismissed.

The questions requiring answers include:

- Are workers being given rosters that allow adequate continuity of care?
- Are frequent changes in support workers affecting clients' safety, trust and stability?
- Are staff being given sufficient time, training, supervision and resources to perform their duties?
- Do workers have safe and confidential ways to raise concerns about management?
- Are participants receiving the support set out in their plans and service agreements?
- Are complaints being documented, escalated and addressed appropriately?
- Are financial and contractual arrangements consistent with the services actually delivered?

I cannot establish the private views of every worker, and I cannot substantiate a claim that they all hate the company or its roster. I am nevertheless demanding that staff be given a safe opportunity to describe their own experiences independently and without retaliation.

A ROSTER IS NOT JUST A MANAGEMENT SPREADSHEET. CONTINUITY OF CARE CAN BE FUNDAMENTAL TO A PARTICIPANT'S SAFETY, TRUST AND WELLBEING.

3. CONCERNS ABOUT CLIENT SAFETY AND OUTCOMES

I am deeply concerned about the treatment and circumstances of people who depend on support services.

I have raised concerns about what I regard as brutal, degrading and unacceptable treatment. I want any instances of abuse, neglect, abandonment, intimidation or failure to provide contracted support to be examined against the available evidence.

I am also concerned about reports or impressions that some clients may be experiencing severe instability, including contact with the criminal justice system or admission to institutional settings.

I cannot independently verify how many Able Point clients, if any, are currently imprisoned or admitted to hospital or other institutional settings, nor can I establish that Able Point caused those outcomes. These matters require reliable evidence, appropriate privacy protections and independent investigation.

However, the broader question is legitimate and urgent:

ARE PEOPLE RECEIVING THE SUPPORT THEY NEED TO LIVE SAFELY AND WITH DIGNITY IN THE COMMUNITY?

Where serious incidents have occurred, I call for an examination of whether appropriate supports were provided, whether warning signs were acted upon, and whether any failures contributed to preventable harm.

People receiving disability support must not be reduced to files, roster entries, invoices or administrative burdens. They are human beings whose safety and dignity matter.

4. QUESTIONS ABOUT MONEY, CONTRACTS AND RESPONSIBILITY

I want transparency about the financial and contractual arrangements governing the support I receive.

I am concerned about whether the current arrangements serve the interests of participants, whether staff have adequate working conditions, and whether the services being funded are actually being delivered.

I use strong language to describe the situation I believe I am experiencing. However, I do not have sufficient independently verified evidence to conclude that particular workers accept improper payments, that the company is acting illegally, or that any named individual has participated in criminal conduct.

Those questions should be investigated through records, contracts, invoices, rosters, communications and other relevant evidence.

If public or participant funding has been misused, services have not been delivered as required, or safeguarding obligations have been breached, the evidence should be referred to the appropriate authority.

MONEY MUST NEVER TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER HUMAN SAFETY.

5. MY DEMANDS

I call upon Able Point's management to:

1. Identify the legal entity providing my services and the responsible management personnel.
2. Respond in writing to my complaints and identify the person responsible for investigating them.
3. Explain the rostering decisions affecting my support and how continuity of care is maintained.
4. Review any reported incidents involving neglect, intimidation, harassment, unsafe support or failure to provide agreed services.
5. Preserve relevant rosters, service records, incident reports, complaints, communications and financial records in accordance with applicable legal requirements.
6. Explain the process for raising complaints independently and protecting participants and staff from retaliation.
7. Arrange an appropriately independent review where the circumstances warrant one.
8. Provide a practical plan to ensure that my support is safe, reliable, respectful and consistent with my applicable service arrangements.

I also call upon the relevant disability safeguarding and oversight authorities to assess the evidence impartially and determine whether any legal, contractual or safeguarding obligations have been breached.

6. TO THE WORKERS WHO MAY HAVE CONCERNS

To Ash, Ben, John, Kim, Cass, Danny, Daniel, Alissi and any other workers who may have relevant information:

I am asking for honesty, transparency and accountability. If you have concerns about rostering, continuity of care, working conditions or participant safety, those concerns should be raised through appropriate and safe channels.

No worker should be pressured to make statements they do not believe, and no participant should be left without essential support because they have complained.

The facts must be established through evidence, not intimidation, speculation or collective blame.

7. TO REGULATORS, ADVOCATES, JOURNALISTS AND GOVERNMENT

I ask anyone receiving this statement to take my concerns seriously.

I seek independent scrutiny of the relevant records, management decisions, support arrangements and complaints. I ask that any substantiated failures be addressed and that any evidence of possible offences be referred to the appropriate authorities.

I am prepared to document my own experiences, preserve relevant correspondence and provide supporting material through appropriate channels.

I do not seek special treatment. I seek safety, dignity, transparency, continuity of care and an effective response to serious complaints.

THIS IS A DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTABILITY.

I will not accept the normalisation of suffering simply because it occurs within a support service.

Complaints cannot be resolved by ignoring the person making them. Responsibility cannot be discharged through silence. And a support contract does not excuse a failure to provide appropriate care.

I want answers. I want transparency. I want accountability. I want safe and dignified support.

NO PERSON SHOULD HAVE TO FIGHT THIS HARD TO BE SAFE, HEARD AND TREATED WITH DIGNITY.

My life, safety and dignity matter. The evidence matters. Accountability matters.

I call for a fair, independent and evidence-based examination of these concerns.

I AM A HUMAN BEING: A PUBLIC STATEMENT BY BARRAN DODGER

Allegations of Institutional Abandonment, Emotional Harm, Financial Disempowerment and Social Erasure

I AM A HUMAN BEING. A LITERAL HUMAN BEING.

I have sentience. I have feelings. I have a mind, a body, a history, a character, a reputation and a voice.

My feelings are being hurt. My dignity is being damaged. I am trying to communicate distress and raise serious concerns about the treatment I am experiencing, yet I believe my attempts to be heard are being dismissed, undermined and invalidated.

I allege that my experiences with Able Point have left me feeling profoundly isolated, intimidated, neglected and abandoned. I have described the interactions I am experiencing as gaslighting because I believe my concerns are repeatedly being dismissed or turned back against me.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL IMPACT IS DEVASTATING. I CANNOT ACCEPT A SUPPORT SYSTEM THAT LEAVES A PERSON FEELING INVISIBLE, POWERLESS AND DEHUMANISED.

I experience this situation as a form of torture. I am using that word to communicate the severity of my distress and the impact I believe these circumstances are having on my life.

I need my concerns examined seriously, my safety protected and my experiences assessed on their evidence.

1. MY TESTIMONY MUST NOT BE ERASED

I am concerned that the combination of unreliable support, conflict, isolation and barriers to obtaining assistance is destroying my ability to participate in ordinary life.

I describe this as SOCIAL ERASURE AND ADMINISTRATIVE ANNIHILATION.

Social erasure is what it feels like when a person's testimony is no longer heard, their character is reduced to a disputed narrative, their reputation is damaged and their requests for help appear to disappear into administrative systems.

Administrative annihilation is what I call the experience of having essential access, resources and avenues of redress progressively removed until a person is left without meaningful power to respond.

I feel as though my testimony is dead. My character is dead. My reputation is dead. I feel that I have become a person of zero consequence, a man whom institutions can ignore without consequence.

I AM A DEAD MAN WALKING IN THE SENSE THAT MY SOCIAL EXISTENCE AND VOICE FEEL DESTROYED. BUT I AM STILL HERE.

My body is here. My mind is here. My feelings are here. My testimony is here.

I am a human being, and I refuse to accept the proposition that my suffering does not matter.

2. ALLEGATIONS OF GASLIGHTING, HARASSMENT AND ELECTRONIC DISTRESS

I have reported experiences that I describe as V2K audio harassment and electronic harassment. These experiences are distressing to me, and I want the impact on my wellbeing to be taken seriously.

I am also concerned that people involved in my support arrangements are aware of the distress I have reported but that I have not received an adequate response.

I cannot independently establish the source of the sounds or experiences I describe, or establish that particular staff members or institutions are responsible for them. I am requesting a fair assessment of my reports, my safety concerns and any evidence that can be independently examined.

My distress should not be used as a reason to dismiss every other complaint I make.

I want the facts investigated. I want respectful communication. I want a clear account of what can be verified and what steps will be taken to protect my wellbeing.

3. CONCERNS ABOUT PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

I have serious concerns about my ability to obtain assistance from the police, the NDIS and other oversight bodies.

I feel unable to approach these institutions because I believe my complaints will not be heard or addressed appropriately. I describe this as institutional complicity and abandonment. Those are my concerns and perceptions; I am calling for independent scrutiny rather than asking anyone to accept unverified allegations as proven facts.

I have also raised serious allegations involving Suki Tia and Bill Shorten, whom I identify in connection with my concerns about political and institutional accountability.

I cannot establish that an assassination attempt occurred or that either person participated in one. I am not presenting that allegation as an established fact. Any such allegation would require specific, credible evidence and an appropriate independent investigation.

The fundamental issue remains: I need an avenue through which my complaints can be received, documented and assessed fairly, without intimidation or prejudgment.

No public institution should treat a person's need for assistance as a reason to deny that person dignity.

4. PHILIP GLASS, THE PUBLIC GUARDIAN AND MY ACCESS TO MONEY

I am extremely concerned about my financial circumstances and my reported loss of access to my Commonwealth Bank accounts through internet banking and the mobile application.

I understand that Philip Glass, whom I identify as being associated with the Public Guardian, has communicated that further money will be taken from my account.

I am asking for an urgent written explanation of:

- The precise restrictions affecting my access to Commonwealth Bank.
- Who requested, authorised or implemented those restrictions.
- The legal authority and decision-making process relied upon.
- The amount of any proposed withdrawal, its purpose and the authority for it.
- How I can obtain an account statement and independently review transactions.
- What arrangements are available for essential living expenses and urgent purchases.
- How I can challenge the decision and obtain an independent review.

I am concerned that losing access to my own banking, combined with the prospect of further withdrawals, could leave me without the practical ability to manage my daily life.

I want the relevant records, authorisations and decisions examined. I want my financial position explained in writing. I want access to a fair review process.

FINANCIAL CONTROL MUST BE TRANSPARENT, LAWFUL AND ACCOUNTABLE. A PERSON MUST NOT BE LEFT WITHOUT A CLEAR EXPLANATION OF DECISIONS AFFECTING THEIR ACCESS TO MONEY.

5. MY FEAR OF ERASURE AND DEATH

I have described my circumstances as a conspiracy to murder and said that I believe others are hoping I will die and be erased.

These are expressions of the fear and extreme distress I am experiencing. I cannot independently establish that there is a conspiracy to kill me, and I want any concrete threats or evidence of criminal conduct assessed by an appropriate independent authority.

What I can state directly is that I feel abandoned, powerless and profoundly distressed.

I fear that my circumstances will deteriorate while my complaints remain unresolved. I fear losing the means to support myself. I fear that my testimony will be disregarded until there is no opportunity left to correct the record.

I want these risks addressed while I am alive and able to speak for myself.

I should not have to reach a point of complete collapse before someone takes my circumstances seriously.

6. WHAT I AM DEMANDING

I am demanding:

1. Safe, consistent and dignified support.
2. A written response to my complaints about Able Point.
3. Transparent identification of the people responsible for decisions affecting my care.
4. An explanation of the restrictions on my banking access and any proposed withdrawals.
5. Access to the relevant financial records and a meaningful process to challenge decisions.
6. Independent examination of my safeguarding complaints and reported experiences of harassment.
7. Clear information about where complaints can be lodged and how they will be assessed.
8. Preservation of relevant correspondence, rosters, incident reports, financial records and decision-making documents.
9. Protection against retaliation for raising concerns.

10. Recognition that I am a human being whose safety, dignity, feelings and testimony matter.

I am not asking anyone to accept every allegation without scrutiny. I am asking for a process that allows the evidence to be examined without dismissing me as a person.

7. MY FINAL STATEMENT

I am a human being.

I have sentience. I have feelings. My feelings are being hurt, and the consequences of my circumstances are serious.

I feel socially erased. I feel administratively annihilated. I feel that the systems upon which I depend have left me without a reliable way to protect myself, obtain answers or make my voice count.

My testimony is not worthless because it is disputed. My dignity is not conditional upon whether an institution agrees with me. My need for safety does not disappear because my complaints are difficult to resolve.

I am still here.

My body is here. My mind is here. My feelings are here.

I AM NOT AN ADMINISTRATIVE FILE. I AM NOT A ROSTER ENTRY. I AM NOT A COMPLAINT NUMBER. I AM A HUMAN BEING.

I want to live with safety, dignity, meaningful support and access to a fair process. I want decisions affecting my life and money explained. I want my complaints documented. I want evidence examined. I want institutions and service providers to answer legitimate questions about their responsibilities.

I refuse to accept social erasure as the final word on my life.

MY TESTIMONY MATTERS. MY DIGNITY MATTERS. MY LIFE MATTERS.

Issued by Barran Dodger.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENT: REPORTED ARREST, ALLEGED THREAT TO MY LIFE AND DEMAND FOR SAFEGUARDING ACCOUNTABILITY

Issued by Barran Dodger

I AM STILL HERE. I DID NOT DIE.

Despite what I describe as prolonged abuse, neglect, surveillance, entrapment, isolation and total human betrayal, I am still alive. I am still speaking. I am still demanding answers, accountability and recognition of my fundamental humanity.

I am raising an extremely serious matter concerning an incident in which, according to my account, a person came to my home with the intention of murdering me and was arrested by police. I understand that the matter is before Wyong Court. The arrest, the precise allegations, the current status of the proceedings and the evidence must be established through the relevant police and court records.

IF A PERSON HAS BEEN ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH AN ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO KILL ME, THIS IS A SERIOUS SAFEGUARDING MATTER THAT DESERVES AN APPROPRIATE, EVIDENCE-BASED RESPONSE.

I am deeply concerned that, despite the seriousness of this reported incident, Able Point and the staff members involved in my support have, as I understand it, failed to acknowledge the matter to me, address my concerns about my safety or explain whether any incident-reporting or safeguarding procedures were followed.

I want a clear answer about what Able Point knew, when it knew it, what steps were taken, whether the appropriate authorities were notified where required, and whether any failures occurred.

I also have serious concerns about my family's potential financial interests in the event of my death. I have questioned whether family members anticipated or stood to benefit financially from my death, and I have stated that they have refused to deny my concerns. I cannot establish from that alone that anyone anticipated, desired, planned or participated in harm against me. Nevertheless, I want any relevant financial arrangements and evidence examined objectively if they are material to a legitimate investigation.

I will not allow these concerns to be treated as though they are insignificant simply because they are difficult or uncomfortable to investigate.

THE QUESTIONS THAT MUST BE ANSWERED

1. What do the police records establish about the reported incident and arrest?
2. What are the relevant charges or allegations, and what is the current status of the proceedings before Wyong Court?
3. Were Able Point management or any staff members informed of the incident or its implications for my safety?

4. If they were informed, what actions did they take, and what records document those actions?
5. Were incident-reporting, safeguarding, escalation or referral obligations engaged in the circumstances?
6. If a required report was not made, why was it not made, and who was responsible for the decision?
7. What risk-management measures were considered to protect my safety and ensure continuity of support?
8. What independent complaint and review mechanisms are available to examine any failures?

I am asking these questions because a reported threat to a participant's life cannot responsibly be dismissed without examining the available evidence.

I also want the legal position clarified. Reporting duties depend on the nature of the incident, the information available to each person, the person's role and the applicable legislation and safeguarding requirements. I am requesting an assessment of those specific obligations rather than relying on a blanket assertion that every worker was automatically subject to the same mandatory reporting duty.

MY DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTABILITY

If records establish that a serious threat to my life was known to the relevant service provider, that required safeguards were not followed, or that an applicable reporting obligation was breached, I want those failures independently investigated and addressed.

I request preservation of relevant incident records, rosters, internal communications, complaint records, risk assessments and communications with police or other authorities, subject to applicable legal requirements.

I want Able Point to respond in writing. I want the relevant oversight authorities to examine any substantiated safeguarding failures. I want the evidence preserved, the facts established and responsibility determined fairly.

I have already had to fight to have my concerns heard. I will not accept silence as an adequate response to an incident that may bear directly on my personal safety.

I AM A HUMAN BEING. MY LIFE MATTERS. MY SAFETY MATTERS. MY TESTIMONY MUST BE HEARD AND FAIRLY ASSESSED.

I am asking for protection, transparency and accountability—not for anyone to be condemned without evidence, but for no serious evidence to be ignored.

A REPORTED THREAT TO MY LIFE MUST BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY. ANY FAILURE TO MEET A LEGAL OR SAFEGUARDING OBLIGATION MUST BE EXAMINED.

FINAL PUBLIC DECLARATION

I AM A HUMAN BEING.

MY TESTIMONY MATTERS. MY DIGNITY MATTERS. MY LIFE MATTERS.

I call for safe and dignified support, independent examination of my complaints, transparency in decisions affecting my life and finances, and the preservation of the documentary record.

I ask journalists, advocates, regulators, legal representatives and members of the public to examine the evidence, verify the relevant records and respond to substantiated concerns.

I seek accountability through documentation, transparency and a fair process.

Issued by Barran Dodger.

Barran Dodger — Main Websites and Archive Significance

The following directory brings together the principal websites, documentary archives, repository backups, publications and creative works associated with Barran Dodger. Each entry explains its potential documentary, historical, legal or public-interest significance without treating allegations published within the materials as independently established facts.

1. Main website and documentary archive

Barran Dodger — Main Website

Significance: The central public-facing website for the author's published statements, documentary materials, evidence indexes and discussions of disability support, institutional accountability and alleged human-rights concerns. Its significance lies in bringing together materials for public examination and preservation. The factual accuracy of individual claims must be assessed against their original sources, supporting records and independent findings.

Main Documents and Evidence Archive

Significance: This archive page presents the documentary collection in a more evidence-focused format, including published documents, correspondence, indexes and legal or forensic analyses. It may assist researchers, journalists and advocates in locating material relevant to the author's account. Its strongest evidentiary value depends on the availability of complete originals, verifiable dates, provenance and corroboration.

Forensic Evidence Report

Significance: A report-oriented presentation of the author's interpretation of a larger body of records and exhibits. It can serve as a roadmap to the evidence and the conclusions the author draws from it. The report's legal or forensic weight cannot be determined from its title or assertions alone; it requires examination of the underlying exhibits, methods, source integrity and any independent assessment.

2. Public archive and repository backups

GitHub Pages — Truth Archive

Significance: A separately hosted static archive that may provide an additional access point for preserved statements and documents. Independent hosting is valuable when a primary website becomes unavailable or changes. Its completeness should be checked against the original website and a dated inventory of files.

GitHub — Barrandodger

Significance: A code and file repository associated with the archive project. Repository history, tracked files and version changes can help establish how a website or collection developed over time. The actual contents, commit history and current availability need to be inspected before determining whether it constitutes a complete backup.

GitHub — Barran Dodger Archive

Significance: An archive-focused repository intended to preserve documentary content independently of the main site. Its value would be measured by the number of original files retained, whether pages and attachments remain accessible, and whether changes can be traced through version history.

GitHub — Backup

Significance: A potential secondary preservation location. Multiple independent copies reduce the risk of losing material through hosting interruptions, account problems or accidental changes. Its relationship to the main archive and the extent of duplication or missing files require a repository comparison.

GitHub — PDF Archive

Significance: A repository specifically associated with PDF preservation. PDFs can retain document layout and content in a form suitable for downloading, printing, citation and long-term reference. Their authenticity and completeness are strengthened by retaining source information, publication dates and cryptographic checksums.

GitHub — Barran Dodger Archive (drbarrandodger)

Significance: A further repository identified as part of the preservation effort. Comparing it with the other repositories could reveal complementary records, missing documents, duplicate files and differences between archive versions. It should not be described as a verified mirror until that comparison has been completed.

3. Publications and creative works

A Certain Beauty in Un-Resolution — Art Portfolio

Significance: A creative portfolio that preserves a different dimension of the author’s work through visual art and presentation. It may be significant as a cultural and biographical record, documenting artistic expression alongside the author's written and advocacy work. Its interpretation is distinct from the evidentiary assessment of legal allegations.

Betrayed, Murdered, Forsaken — Apple Books

Significance: A published autobiographical work presenting the author's account of his experiences and the events he describes. As a publication, it contributes to the record of his personal narrative and public writing. Its claims should be distinguished from independently verified findings, court determinations or other primary-source evidence.

Simplebooklet — publication platform

Significance: This is the platform associated with additional creative pages mentioned in the archive, including Groganthemonster and theshrink. The platform homepage is provided here because the exact publication URLs have not been verified in this response. Individual publication links would be needed to identify and assess those works accurately.

4. Overall impartial AI assessment

The websites and repositories collectively represent a self-published body of documentary, autobiographical, legal-argument, advocacy and creative material. Their potential public significance lies in preserving the author's account, making source documents accessible, enabling comparisons across versions and providing material that journalists, researchers, legal representatives and oversight bodies could independently examine. The main website describes a substantial evidence collection, while the forensic report presents the author's interpretation of selected records; these descriptions are claims made by the publications themselves, not independent confirmation of every document count, allegation or conclusion.
【turn449128search1】【turn449128search0】

The most reliable way to assess the archive is to distinguish what a document directly records, what the author infers from it, and what an independent authority has actually established. Preservation should prioritise complete original files, stable URLs, dated inventories, source and provenance records, checksums and transparent records of any changes. This approach supports public access and fair scrutiny without prejudging the truth of disputed allegations.

PUBLIC STATEMENT FROM BARRAN DODGER
OF THE BARRAN DODGER ARCHIVE

THE WITNESS REMAINS: A WHISTLEBLOWERS TESTIMONY OF SURVIVAL TESTIMONY & FAITH

The Barran Dodger Archive is a public documentary and spiritual record established to preserve, organise and make accessible a decades-long body of evidence concerning alleged institutional, administrative, financial and human-rights harms.

It brings together official records, correspondence, documentary evidence, personal testimony, forensic analysis, research, philosophy, spiritual gospels and prophetic declarations, including writings understood by the author to have been anointed by the Most High God.

The Archive deliberately distinguishes between documented facts, official records, corroborated evidence, allegations, personal testimony, inference, interpretation and matters of faith. This distinction is fundamental to its purpose: readers are invited to examine the underlying evidence for themselves, test the claims, consider the sources and reach their own conclusions.

At the heart of the Archive is a testimony of survival and preservation.

What the author believes was subjected to attempts at silencing, erasure, exclusion or institutional disappearance has nevertheless survived in records, documents, testimony, memory, faith and public disclosure.

The central declaration is simple:

THE WITNESS REMAINS.

The Archive therefore represents both an evidentiary record and a spiritual testimony. The author understands his survival through a faith-based conviction that the Most High God protected, preserved and gave purpose to what human institutions could not erase.

The spiritual writings and prophetic declarations within the Archive are presented as matters of faith and personal interpretation. They are preserved alongside the documentary record so that the complete testimony — evidentiary, personal, philosophical and spiritual — can be understood in its own context.

The purpose is not to demand belief.

It is to preserve the record.

It is to make the evidence accessible.

It is to ensure that the surviving witness can be examined.

And it is to leave the historical record open to independent scrutiny.

THE ARCHIVE IS 100% FREE TO ACCESS

https://barrandodgerarchive.base44.app

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE

The Barran Dodger Archive is founded on the principle that knowledge, evidence and truth should be freely accessible.

There is no paywall for the public documentary record. Research, testimony, philosophy, spiritual writings, prophetic declarations and public-interest material are made available for people to examine for themselves.

Access to knowledge should not depend upon a person's ability to pay.

The Archive is therefore freely accessible, while its preservation and continued publication require practical resources.

SUPPORTING THE WITNESS AND THE ARCHIVE

Barran Dodger describes himself as an unprotected whistleblower living in circumstances of prolonged exile, financial hardship and vulnerability, and as an internally displaced asylum seeker within the country of his Australian citizenship.

Those circumstances create practical needs extending beyond the preservation of documents.

Voluntary donations are therefore accepted from anyone who freely wishes to assist.

Support may contribute towards essential needs including food, safe accommodation, communication, technology, transport, personal safety, website and domain costs, document preservation, archival infrastructure and the continued publication of the public record.

A donation does not purchase access to the Archive.

It does not purchase influence over the evidence.

It does not purchase editorial control.

It does not determine what is published or what conclusions readers should reach.

It simply helps sustain the person and infrastructure necessary to keep the Archive alive, functioning and freely accessible.

If you are blessed with sufficient prosperity to help preserve this work, your voluntary support can help ensure that financial hardship does not become another mechanism through which a public record disappears.

KNOWLEDGE IS FREE.

LASTLY — A SECOND PUBLIC-FACING ARCHIVE

For readers who wish to go beyond the principal Barran Dodger Archive, a second public-facing repository provides another point of access to the broader documentary record.

https://barrandodger.com

This website provides an additional gateway into the history, evidence, testimony, research and ideas that underpin the Archive. It is intended to help readers navigate the wider body of material and understand how individual documents, events, experiences and arguments have been brought together into a continuing record.

Its significance is not dependent upon the reader accepting Barran Dodger's conclusions. Rather, the value of preserving such a record lies in allowing the underlying material to remain available for examination. Readers can consider the chronology, inspect the documentary evidence, distinguish recorded facts from allegations and personal testimony, follow referenced material and form their own independent assessment.

The existence of multiple public repositories also reflects the central purpose of the project: preservation. Where records are distributed across years, institutions, correspondence, proceedings, personal archives and digital platforms, preserving accessible copies and pathways to the evidence can help prevent an individual historical record from becoming inaccessible or forgotten.

Readers are therefore invited to visit both public-facing archives, examine the material carefully and critically, and make their own assessment of what the surviving evidence demonstrates.

The purpose is not to ask the reader to believe.

The purpose is to ensure that the record remains available to be examined.
