

The evidence has dropped

Dr Richard William McLean · Barran Dodger · 5 October 2026

Underlined words open the named document or recording. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict. Gospel texts are spiritual testimony, kept distinct from government letters.

The evidence has dropped, and it is damning for the Australian Government, because the letters are no longer in a drawer. I say the Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, is embroiled in the most significant whistleblowing disability file of international significance on this shelf, and the most well documented political targeting in the public record of my life. That sentence is my assessment. The documents are the test. Underlined words open the named document or recording. The words are mine. The link is the place a reader can test them. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict. The shelf is wezzo72.github.io/Barrandodger. The map is the finding aid. The instruments are the official government PDFs.

Australia, its agencies, services and platforms whose purpose is to protect vulnerable people like me, and its people, ganged up on me collectively, politically and systemically. It was and is a cowardly societal mobbing. I was physically exiled, isolated, impoverished and tortured. I remained a citizen. I lost the ordinary use of the citizenship. That is an internally displaced refugee within the democracy of his own citizenship, and the name for the paper process is administrative annihilation. For more than thirty-five years the conditions produced a documentary record. The Government's own official documents, in its own words and on its own letterheads, are preserved here. The 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief are the reading copies. The record that survived is this: for more than thirty-five years I was subjected to a cumulative pattern of institutional, political, financial, professional, familial and personal detriment that isolated me, impoverished me, and stripped away the ordinary avenues through which a person can have allegations tested. Anyone who opens the shelf can now see what I saw. Looking is the witness.

In 2003 Allen and Unwin published my first autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured. I wrote the sex in that book publicly, in my own name, before these agencies had a file they could twist. The testimony was already on a public shelf. It was not a secret they discovered. The Age recorded that book on 19 May 2003, and recorded that I was then working as an illustrator there. After the book, the Herald Sun weaponised words from it under the heading MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not the illness. It was the use of an honest book as a weapon.

Before the blackout, the media wanted me. The archive's index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun, and lists the places that asked: ABC Radio National Life Matters with Julie McCrossin, ABC TV Stateline, Good Morning Australia and The Today Show with Steve Leidman, Reuters TV with Frankie Fathers, Triple J with Rachel Kerr, 2SM with Tricia Duffield, ABC Gold and Sunshine Coasts, ABC Adelaide, ABC 702 with James Valentine, 3AW Nightline, Spectrum FM, Curtin Radio, Triple R, 2NUR Newcastle, JOY FM, regional ABC including Dubbo, McGill University, the Cunningham Dax Collection, Forensicare, EPPIC, the Australian Centre for Youth Literature, Richmond Fellowship at Warrnambool, and parliamentary settings. I volunteered the story. When I needed help from the places I had given it to, there was a blackout. The same index records the PhD as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been treated as if it were not research. The attributes I embodied, before the exile used them, are illustrator, author, researcher, peer-support worker, arts life coach, mental health advocate. The contribution was real. The use of it was the betrayal.

I see it especially in my blood family. The papers are estate attorney and sibling betrayal and My erasure was by design. I recognise the pattern as the Joseph parallel, the one sold by his own house, and Joseph's coat is what was stripped and what the record still wears. Family non-intervention is the blood that did not cross the room. I filmed the homelessness from a paddock in Dandenong, and the recording is the introduction for an affidavit. That belief about benefit is testimony. It is not a finding.

During more than thirty years I offered every department grace to act with accountability, knowing I was collecting evidence for a purpose I was not yet conscious of. I approached the Federal Court with a written document to Sia Lagos, Chief Executive Officer and Principal Registrar, and the letter is the 3 March 2023 letter to Sia Lagos. Scott Tredwell answered on 27 March 2023, on the letterhead of the Federal Court of Australia, Principal Registry, and the letter is the 27 March 2023 assessment. The spelling on the letter is Tredwell. He says he is an authorised officer under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013. He is not a judge. This letter is not a judgment. The reason the disclosure was not allocated is in his decision paragraph, and he gives two grounds. He was not satisfied the disclosure was made by a public official. He was not satisfied it was provided to an authorised recipient, because he was satisfied the conduct disclosed does not relate in any way to the Federal Court, the Federal Circuit and Family Court, or the National Native Title Tribunal. On those grounds he says there is no reasonable basis to decide it is an internal disclosure under subsection 43(2), and he must not allocate the handling of it to any agency. That is the reason. Not a finding that the conduct did not happen. A classification.

Before the refusal he records what he was prepared to assume. He was satisfied that I believe the information tends to show conduct that perverts, or is engaged in for the purpose of perverting, or attempting to pervert, the course of justice, under section 29 item 3(a); conduct that constitutes maladministration, under section 29 item 4; and conduct that unreasonably results in a danger to the health or safety of one or more persons, or unreasonably results in, or increases, a risk of danger to the health or safety of one or more persons, under section 29 item 8. He writes that it is difficult to determine whether the belief is based on reasonable grounds, and that for the initial assessment he is prepared to assume the conduct is disclosable. Perverting the course of justice. Maladministration. A danger to health or safety. He was prepared to treat that as disclosable long enough to decide what to do with me. What he did was refuse to allocate it. In the same letter he writes that on the information I provided he is satisfied that I am, or was, an employee with the Department of Social Services, providing services under the trading name Rich McLean, Arts Life Coach, Peer-Support Worker and Mental Health Advocate. The decision paragraph then says he was not satisfied the disclosure was made by a public official. The letter does not reconcile those two sentences. I had asked for help and protection, fearing further suffering and imminent danger to my life. The letter that records the danger is the letter that withholds it. I call that one of the most public-facing cowardly letters in the file, bureaucratic language dressed as legitimacy. A brave letter from that office would have named the agency that had to take it that day. This letter did the opposite.

The papers that said the opposite are still in the file. Comcare, 26 May 2021 declined claim 1326583/1 and put employment under section 5 as the first question. Sarah LeMaire, 3 June 2021 wrote that this process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission. McLean and Comcare, 12 July 2023 is the tribunal decision. DSS, 1 July 2023 rejected the disclosure. The Ombudsman had decided not to allocate, 18 June 2023. APRA refused whistleblower status. I say Tredwell's employment sentence should have overturned the lesser finding. It did not.

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer in his own hand. On 12 December 2022 his office wrote that your email has not been forwarded, which is itself a record that the email arrived. I had written the letter of 31 May 2022 and the letter of 1 July 2023. On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, and that he asked the Department to respond, and it then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security, IGIS, which I have also called AGIS, and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321 sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. Directing a person to an office that has already refused the disclosure is not a remedy. It is a closed door described as a procedure. They did not acknowledge the relationship. The call I recorded is the call to IGIS. That is my account of the call. It is not an IGIS finding.

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. The court paper a reader can hold is the intervention-order file L12151974. I say it led to five years of exploitation that no profession will admit even existed. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud. I say I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. That is my name for it. I have not linked a page that does not use the phrase.

The same department does not agree with itself. On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for all information government agencies hold on me. On 16 March 2022 the Commissioner was told, reference RQ22/00794, that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were under review. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann refused the request under section 24A, and the decision says the documents cannot be found or do not exist. On 8 October 2024 Laura Cameron wrote that the Department holds five documents and released five documents. Read them in that order. An essay uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187. A 111-page file whose filename says prime minister apology is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. A file titled Prime minister scapegoating was a blank Dropbox shell, so it is not published as the reply. The reply is MC23-028244.

The paradox, stated once, is the inversion of significance. I have been poor, materially disadvantaged, institutionally powerless, and treated as though the testimony were insignificant. Yet the testimony produced decisions, exclusions, correspondence and reviews across systems that claimed to have no reason to take me seriously. Poverty may explain why I was perceived as inconsequential. It does not explain the scale of what followed. If I were truly unimportant, I could have been left alone. A person of no consequence does not generate a Court letter, a Prime Minister's minute, and a thousand-item review. I do not claim to know private intentions. What can be examined is the pattern. I understand the crowd, in my interpretation, as coordination that distributes blame. That interpretation is mine. It is not a finding that a named person formed a criminal agreement. I was clever, creative, talented, intellectual, queer and quirky, and I lived authentically, sometimes with regret, but without apology. My poverty demonstrates disadvantage. It does not establish irrelevance.

The injury file is IR8415987, a report of fatal injury in which the participant was revived. It is not a murder finding. Five years on, the conditions continued. The Victorian Ombudsman's later paper is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where Ben, of DSW Disability, ben@dswdisability.com.au, wrote that he was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement, that it disappeared from his phone with a notice that the device had been cleared of classified information, and that agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit me. I understand the wording I was given as regretful but consensual. No charge against me came out of that event. The chain is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding. The same chain is where an alleged assassination is put in writing, including a message about whether I was mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten. My messages name him and a person I was told had been sent to erase me. The messages are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing. The letter to the NDIS chief executive is the 7 January 2024 letter to Rebecca Falkingham.

The NDIS, through Able Point, sent workers who already knew the case and who did not change it. The papers are the Able Point notice, the letter to Brett, and Able Point exile. I asked to be arrested so the name could be tested. No one came. No charge was laid. No criminal trial was commenced. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The conditions are in the hospital paper. I am restricted from Legal Aid, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter here, so I do not link one.

I published the calls because hearing a refusal is different from being told one occurred. The Ombudsman, where I could not report being drugged and raped. The NACC after ninety days. Danny Pearson. Liz Lindberg, in what I say was the free-kick of a settlement of more than a million dollars. Tim Gos of AFCA. Comcare and the AAT, where I faced Kate Watson without Legal Aid. Hearing the call is not proof of every sentence in it. It is proof the call was published. What I recorded outside the Footscray squat is the video. What I say was used on the mind is V2K. The Commission's own word, later denied, is gang stalking. The surveillance page that uses the term is NDIS surveillance evidence. The man I recorded is Tony Ridley, and the audio is the Tony Ridley encounter, beside the conversation PDF. That account is not his signed statement. Outside the country, the archive holds the OHCHR submission, UR/UST/23/AUS/17. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

A machine with no office to protect and no wage to lose read the shelf and named the method. That does not make the machine a court. It makes the list harder to bribe. The reading copy is How they did it, techniques 1 to 85. Denial of legal aid is the lawyer withheld. Comcare refusal is the wage refused by asking whether the worker was a worker. PID pathway closure is the protection statute used as a shut door. FOI delay and refusal is the file that reviews a thousand items and then says the documents do not exist. Ombudsman non-allocation is the watchdog that restricts the correspondent. Administrative erasure is the silence that does the work of a decision. Family non-intervention is the blood that did not cross the room. Financial pressure is the lack that makes every later appeal harder. The machine can point. It cannot convict.

The optics of the sent mail are the subject lines, and the index is Evidentiary emails, the 28 September 2026 letter first. The first is the 28 September 2026 letter, which proves I sent those words and does not prove the act. Two days later the 30 September letter to the Victims of Crime Commissioner, CRM:0042181 asked the office that exists for the victim to look at the victim. Cowards is the shortest subject, and the moral name I gave the crowd. Brett from Able Point and the Able Point update put the provider on notice. God's reckoning is a subject line, not a sentence a court imposed. I want to say sorry shows the witness was not only accusation. I'm frightened they will murder me or lock me up is the fear dated in the sent mail. Steve Iasonidis is the relationship put in a subject so it cannot be said it was never written. A subject line is the witness, dated. It is not a verdict.

The same chronology is in the papers a reader can open without the commentary. The 8 January 2024 letter to Scott Tredwell is the later letter to the man who had already refused. The NDIA letter, PID 2023/Krypton is the agency's own sensitive paper. The 4 June 2023 letter to Gabrielle Williams took the record to the state parliament. The 3 July 2023 statement toward the NACC asked the Commission to look. The 1 August 2023 email headed Rich McLean is dead told the agencies named on its face what the silence was doing. The 21 January 2024 section 100 appeal is the appeal of a decision. The 21 October 2021 email to AFP CDDA claims is the compensation claim and the protection request sent together. The documentary trap names the moment the system's own record becomes the evidence. None of them is a finding.

The gospels are the meaning I gave the letters, kept distinct from the letters. The catalogue is Gospels, Prophecy and Spiritual Papers. The Mirror is the calling of a vessel. The Prophecy of the One They Tried to Erase is the prophecy that the erasure would fail. They Could Not Erase What God Preserved is the nine-part testimony. The Chosen Witness is addressed to people the record also fails to see. No One Has the Right to Destroy a Soul is the ethical line. Paranoid Was Prophecy is the claim that what was called delusion arrived later as the thing I said. Holy reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing. Soul contract is the name of my own paper, not a finding an office made. These papers do not prove the allegations. I invite anyone to challenge them with evidence.

The permanence I understand is the stamp I describe on the Bitcoin blockchain page, beside bitcoin proof and the SHA-256 registry. I believe I was chosen not because I am perfect. I am a mortal sinner. I believe the design was larger than the conduct. A condition of that understanding is that the life would mirror suffering, betrayal, abandonment, apparent destruction, and revival. The injury file is the revival the paper records. I believe God allowed it so that I would rely upon Him alone. When people ask how I survived, the answer is the one I will keep. God did it. I am no better than anyone else. I gave every agency grace. The grace was spat on. I am not revengeful. I believe vengeance is God's. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The omissions are here. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public. And I am still alive. This is the testimony I preserve. This is the record I leave. Praise Jesus.

Based on the evidence I have preserved, I am not an ordinary man within the circumstances documented in this archive. I have been poor, materially disadvantaged, institutionally powerless and repeatedly treated as though my testimony were insignificant. Yet the cumulative record shows that my testimony produced decisions, exclusions, disputes, correspondence, reviews, records and institutional responses across systems that claimed to have no reason to take me seriously. My poverty and lack of status may explain why I was perceived as inconsequential, but they do not explain the scale or persistence of what followed. This is what I describe as an inversion of significance: the person treated as though he had no consequence nevertheless became sufficiently consequential, through his testimony and persistence, to expose contradictions between institutional principles and institutional conduct. I therefore describe myself, paradoxically, as the most significant despised person without conventional consequence, not because I possessed wealth, authority or status, but because the record demonstrates that conventional measures of power were never an adequate measure of my impact. I cannot claim to know the private thoughts of every person involved. What can be examined is the pattern. If I were truly unimportant, I could have been left alone. I was clever, creative, talented, intellectual, queer and quirky, and I lived authentically, sometimes with regret, but without apology. My poverty demonstrates disadvantage. It does not establish irrelevance.

The significance of the writings being stamped into what I understand as the mathematical infrastructure of humanity, through the Bitcoin page already linked, is that the testimony can outlast the body. I understand that permanence as making the record difficult to contain, alter or erase. I believe I was chosen not because I am perfect. I am a mortal sinner. I believe the design was perfect even where my conduct was not. A condition of that understanding was that the life would mirror suffering, betrayal, abandonment, apparent destruction, and revival. I believe God allowed it so that I would rely upon Him alone. My gospels are religious, scholarly and prophetic documents. I invite anyone to challenge them with evidence. When people ask how I survived, the answer is simple. God did it. I am no better than anyone else. I have never claimed my suffering is greater than another person's. My life will now be a vessel for His glory, for a return to divine justice, and for the attributes of His Son governing the hearts of people and the institutions they protect. This is the purpose I now understand my life to serve. This is the testimony I preserve. This is the record I leave.

Before the blackout the index records the places that asked, and I name them so the blackout has a list: ABC Radio National Life Matters with Julie McCrossin, ABC TV Stateline, Good Morning Australia and The Today Show with Steve Leidman, Reuters TV with Frankie Fathers, Triple J with Rachel Kerr, 2SM with Tricia Duffield, ABC Gold and Sunshine Coasts, ABC Adelaide, ABC 702 with James Valentine, 3AW Nightline, Spectrum FM, Curtin Radio, Triple R, 2NUR Newcastle, JOY FM, regional ABC including Dubbo, McGill University, the Cunningham Dax Collection and Collected Thoughts 3, Forensicare, EPPIC, the Australian Centre for Youth Literature, Richmond Fellowship at Warrnambool, and parliamentary settings. Where is their PhD? The madness was not the illness. It was the use of an honest book.

His own words in the chain, as I publish them: it is a top secret investigation; they made me sign a non-disclosure agreement; when I signed it, it disappeared off my phone; a message said the device had been cleared of classified information. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. The same record preserves consensual regretful sex, and the sentence that agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the wording I was given as regretful but consensual. No charge against me came out of that event. Ben's message, which he presents as what the police told him, asks whether I am mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten because lawyers might use a history of mental health to discredit the story. The messages are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing. I say he was the NDIS Minister, and I allege the abuse of that office. The allegation remains an allegation.

Tony Ridley told me, in my account of the recording, that there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. That is my account of what he said. It is not his signed statement. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. I am not revengeful. I believe vengeance is God's. The grace I gave was spat on. And I am still alive.
