Dear Honourable President Donald J Trump

Please pay attention to the bottom email  of which you should have received referenced March 2025 email  in this.

Jayne Doherty is from Intel source that I know a close associate to Bruce Hubbard aka Bluey whom is close to Theo Azzopardi aka Pancho Colladetti. Both of these men are Australian serial killers each have ties or involvements in the disappearances of people such as Janine Vaughan, Anita Cobby, Janine Balding, The Belanglo Backpackers, Bowraville Victims, Daniel Morcombe, Gus Lamont, William Tyrrell, Jayden Lesky, Kerry Whelan, Ben Unwin and many more.

I am sincerely concerned for my son Nelson's welfare due to the police knowing my son's whereabouts, hiding them from me by protecting the mother's alienation & translucency, and they (New South Wales Police Force) being directly involved in the orchestration of my blessing of fatherhood being stolen from I since 2020.

Jayne Doherty is therefore a criminal of highly dangerous means. She is associated to the occult and needs to be removed from office and be brought to Military Tribunal ASAP.

Her response to a 9 month old email came on the 19th December 2025 ie the same date as when I placed NSW Police Officer Senior Constable Luke McIntyre under arrest for being one of the officers involved in the systemic theft of my son nelson-james:Tedesco.

Either Jayne is trying to pander to me to shut me up, or she has a concocted means in which to abscond my son into the hands of people tied to Bruce Hubbard or Pancho Colladetti and do so without a trace. Either way, it needs to be dealt with quicksmart and both my identity and my son's safety need utmost military protection in order to keep my son out of murder's hands and myself out of jail.

Nelson's mother Gladys Muthoni Waweru and her brother Joseph Kiarie Ngachu must also be brought to justice  also for their part to play in the operation.

Just like how you killed ISIS in Nigeria I want you to wage war upon these baby-raping infanticide Satanists too.

God bless

jacob-carlos: Tedesco

Dear Mr Carlos,

The NSW Police Force (NSWPF) Commissioner's Office has forwarded me your email dated 7 March 2025. I am the NSWPF Commander of the Sex Crimes Squad and the Head of Discipline for Sexual Violence, so am best placed to respond to your enquiry.

I share your interest in ensuring justice is served for victims of sexual abuse, and we have recently undertaken a great deal of reform within NSWPF to ensure a victim-centric response to all reports of sexual violence. Supporting and adequately responding to victims of sexual violence is my priority, regardless of when the sexual offence occurred, or who the offender is.

The matter you refer to in your TikTok link relates to an investigation by Western Australia Police, and I am not in a position to comment on the activities of another policing jurisdiction, however it does provide a good example that nobody is above the law or immune from prosecution.

Unfortunately I have no information about the list of names you refer to, and no knowledge of any related suppression order, although I have seen discussion of the list in the press in after it was raised in the Cth Senate under parliamentary privilege in 2015. I assure you that if any allegations of sexual abuse are reported to NSWPF we investigate them to a high standard, regardless of the offender and regardless of their profile.

Thank you for your support of sexual violence victims,

Jayne

If you're asking about the significance of that document, here is the clear meaning in practical terms:

1. It is an official acknowledgement from NSW Police leadership

The reply comes from the Commander of the Sex Crimes Squad — a senior authority. Even though the email is brief and non-committal, it confirms the matter reached the highest investigative level within that unit. That alone gives the communication formal weight. [oai_citation:0*Fwd- Response from the Commander, Sex Crimes Squad, NSW Police Force SEC=OFFICI.pdf Attachment.png]

2. It shows institutional positioning, not engagement

The response avoids addressing the specific allegations and instead states:

- They have no information about the claims raised.
- They will not comment on matters outside their jurisdiction.
- They emphasise general commitment to investigating sexual abuse. [oai_citation:1*Fwd- Response from the Commander, Sex Crimes Squad, NSW Police Force SEC=OFFICI.pdf Attachment.png]

This is a standard defensive institutional reply — it acknowledges receipt but does not validate, deny, or investigate the specific claims raised in the forwarded message.

3. It establishes a documented record

Regardless of outcome, the document proves:

- The issue was formally raised with police command.
- The communication exists in traceable written form.
- Authorities cannot later claim the matter was never brought to their attention.

In legal or evidentiary terms, this functions as a record of notification, not proof of wrongdoing.

4. The forwarded content is not endorsed by police

The extreme allegations and statements in the forwarded message are not confirmed or supported by the police reply. The police response distances itself and states no knowledge of those claims. [oai_citation:2*Fwd- Response from the Commander, Sex Crimes Squad, NSW Police Force SEC=OFFICI.pdf Attachment.png]

If you want, I can explain:

- Legal/evidentiary value
- Psychological or narrative significance
- Strategic significance for complaints, records, or advocacy
- Or analyse specific lines in detail

Just tell me which angle you mean.
