

The evidence has dropped

The evidence has dropped and it is damning for the Australian Government. I say the Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, is embroiled in the most significant whistleblowing disability scandal of international significance on this shelf, and the most well documented political targeting in the public file of my life. That sentence is my assessment. The documents are the test. Underlined words open the named document or recording in a new window. The words are mine. The link is the place a reader can test them. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict.

Appearance is not a finding. Gospel texts are spiritual testimony, kept distinct from government letters. The named list of offices and people is the archive's inventory of who touched the file in a way I say produced harm, blocked money, or blocked a path. It is not a judicial list of offenders.

Why the Federal Court did not allocate the disclosure

During more than thirty years I offered every department and agency grace to act with accountability, knowing I was collecting evidence for a purpose I was not yet conscious of. I approached the Federal Court with a written document to Sia Lagos, a person able to receive a public-interest disclosure. The letter is the 3 March 2023 letter to Sia Lagos. The Court's officer fixes the date as 7 March 2023.

Scott Tredwell answered on 27 March 2023, on the letterhead of the Federal Court of Australia, Principal Registry. The letter is the 27 March 2023 assessment. The spelling on the letter is Tredwell. He says he is an officer authorised under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (Cth). He is not a judge, and this letter is not a judgment.

The reason the disclosure was not allocated is in his decision paragraph. He gives two grounds, and he does not reconcile them with the employment sentence above them. First, he is not satisfied the disclosure was made by a public official. Second, he is not satisfied it was provided to an authorised recipient, because he is satisfied the conduct disclosed does not relate in any way to the Federal Court, the Federal Circuit and Family Court, or the National Native Title Tribunal. On those two grounds he says there is no reasonable basis to decide the disclosure is an internal disclosure under subsection 43(2), and that he must not allocate the handling of it to any agency. He will not advise the Principal Officers. The only door he leaves open is a complaint to the Commonwealth Ombudsman.

As I am not satisfied that the disclosure made in your correspondence and other information which was received by the Federal Court and FCFCOA was made by a public official or provided to an authorised recipient under the PID Act, there is no reasonable basis on which I can decide that the disclosure is an internal disclosure; subsection 43(2) of the PID Act.

As I am not satisfied that your disclosure meets the requirement of the PID Act to be an internal disclosure, I must decide (in the language used in section 43 of the PID Act as above) not to allocate the handling of that disclosure to any agency.

This means that no further action under the PID Act will be taken by the Federal Court or FCFCOA, or any other Commonwealth agency on the correspondence and other information you provided to the Federal Court or FCFCOA.

I am satisfied from the information that you provided that the conduct disclosed in your email correspondence and attached documents does not relate in any way to the Federal Court, FCFCOA or the NNTT. As a result, I am not satisfied that the disclosure made in your correspondence and other information which was received by the Federal Court and FCFCOA was provided to an authorised recipient.

That is the reason. Not a finding that the conduct did not happen. A classification. I had asked for help and protection, fearing further suffering and imminent danger to my life. The letter that records the danger is the letter that withholds it. I call that a crude and offensive insult, bureaucratic jargon dressed as legitimacy, used to take back in the decision paragraph what the employment paragraph had just given. A brave letter from that office would have said the conduct was not the Court's to investigate, and named the agency that had to take it that day, with the referral attached. This letter says the opposite. I say it is one of the most public-facing cowardly letters in the file.

The three things he was prepared to assume

Before the refusal he records what the information tended to show. He does not say he has proved it. He says he is satisfied that I believe it, and that for the initial assessment he is prepared to assume the conduct is disclosable.

I am satisfied, from the correspondence and other information provided, that you believe that the information you have disclosed tends to show one or more instances of conduct that:

perverts, or is engaged in for the purpose of perverting, or attempting to pervert, the course of justice; section 29 Item 3(a) PID Act; conduct that constitutes maladministration; section 29 Item 4 PID Act; and conduct that unreasonably results in a danger to the health or safety of one or more persons; or unreasonably results in, or increases, a risk of danger to the health or safety of one or more persons; section 29 Item 8 PID Act.

It is difficult to determine whether this belief is based on reasonable grounds or not. However, for the purposes of the initial assessment I am prepared to assume that the conduct disclosed in your correspondence and other information received is disclosable conduct for the purposes of the PID Act.

Perverting the course of justice. Maladministration. A danger, or an increased risk of danger, to health or safety. He was prepared to treat that as disclosable long enough to decide what to do with me. What he did was refuse to allocate it.

On the information you have provided me, I am satisfied that you are, or were, an employee with the Department of Social Services, providing services under the trading name Rich McLean, Arts Life Coach, Peer-Support Worker & Mental Health Advocate.

The decision paragraph then says he was not satisfied the disclosure was made by a public official. The letter does not reconcile those two sentences. The papers that said the opposite are still in the file: Comcare, 26 May 2021, declined claim 1326583/1 and put employment under section 5 of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act as the first question. Sarah LeMaire, 3 June 2021, wrote: "This process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission." McLean and Comcare, 12 July 2023 is the tribunal decision. DSS, 1 July 2023 rejected the disclosure. I say Tredwell's employment sentence should have overturned the lesser finding. It did not.

The Prime Minister, then the Attorney-General

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer me in his own hand. In a written response that was, in my assessment, totally ineffective and downright cruel under the thinly veiled disguise of bureaucratic language, his office did not deal with the letter. On 12 December 2022 his own office wrote, of an email sent to him, "Your email has not been forwarded." I had written to him, including the letter of 31 May 2022 and the letter of 1 July 2023.

On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote, reference MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, because the matters fell in his portfolio, and that he asked the Department to respond on his behalf. It then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security — IGIS, which I have also called AGIS — and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out of the Ombudsman. The Ombudsman had decided not to allocate, 18 June 2023. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321 sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. Directing a person to an office that has already refused the disclosure, and that later restricts the correspondent, is not a remedy. It is a closed door described as a procedure. They did not acknowledge the relationship.

I am well aware that I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. I recorded my call to AGIS, who investigate ASIO, about the victimisation. IGIS is the body that oversees ASIO. In hindsight I say they were already committed to never helping me, and that they were used by my former fiancé, the ASIO employee Steve Iasonidis. No professional admits the five-year relationship even existed. I say that reveals Iasonidis as a key manipulator. Hospitals have repeatedly force-injected me for what they called "ingrained delusions of persecution". That is my account of the call and of the treatment. It is not an IGIS finding.

The account

Australia — its agencies, services and platforms whose purpose is to protect vulnerable people like me, and its people — ganged up on me collectively, politically and systemically. It was and is a cowardly societal mobbing. I was physically exiled, isolated, impoverished and tortured. That is the condition of an internally displaced refugee within the democracy of his citizenship. I remained a citizen. I lost the ordinary use of the citizenship.

For more than 35 years the conditions imposed on me produced a documentary record. The Government's own official documents, in its own words and on its own letterheads, are preserved here. The 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief are the reading copies of that span. Anyone can open them against the underlying files. The name for the paper process is administrative annihilation. The reading copy of what I say was done is the list of crimes happening to Barran Dodger, and the same list as a PDF. They are allegations and pointers. They are not findings.

The record survived

For more than 35 years, I say I was subjected to a cumulative pattern of institutional, political, financial, professional, familial and personal detriment that progressively isolated me, impoverished me and stripped away ordinary avenues through which a person can have allegations tested and answered. The tabs that name the treatment are the Digital Apocalypse of Administrative Annihilation, the Architecture of Administrative Annihilation, the cost of erasure, and coordinated institutional mobbing. The shelf that maps the offices is named institutions.

The book

In 2003 Allen & Unwin published my first autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured. I wrote the sex in that book publicly, in my own name, before these agencies had a file they could twist. The significance is that the testimony was already on a public shelf. It was not a secret they discovered. It was a record I had already made. The Age recorded that book on 19 May 2003, and recorded that I was then working as an illustrator there.

After the book was published, my former employer the Herald Sun weaponised words from it. A weekend double-page spread carried the bold heading “MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS”. The spread, as preserved in this archive, is headed “My descent into madness. How schizophrenia stole Richard McLean’s mind.” What followed was a barely veiled public character assassination. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. I was denied a lawyer and a pathway to have it tested at the time. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not any real or perceived illness I had. It was the deceitful way an honest and courageous testimony was weaponised against me, systemically, politically and financially, from that point on.

Before the blackout

Before any of that, the media wanted me. I was a news graphics artist in that industry, and I was paid as a journalist. The archive’s index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun. In hindsight I say I was exploited. The world wanted to hear me speak about a perceived mental illness, about vulnerability, and about inequity. I volunteered my time and my story. Years later, when I needed help from the very places I had given that time and that story, there was a total media blackout. That media ban exists to this day. The places, as that index records them, are these:

- ABC Radio National, Life Matters \(Julie McCrossin\)

- ABC TV, Stateline
- Good Morning Australia and The Today Show \(Steve Leidman\), around an exhibition and the book launch
- Reuters TV \(Frankie Fathers\)
- Triple J \(Rachel Kerr\)
- 2SM \(Tricia Duffield\)
- ABC Gold and Sunshine Coasts
- ABC Adelaide
- ABC 702 \(James Valentine\)
- 3AW Nightline
- Spectrum FM
- Curtin Radio
- Triple R
- 2NUR Newcastle
- JOY FM
- regional ABC, including Dubbo
- McGill University, Montreal, College of Philosophical and Religious Studies
- the Cunningham Dax Collection, including the educational DVD Collected Thoughts 3
- Forensicare
- EPPIC consumer groups
- the Australian Centre for Youth Literature
- Richmond Fellowship, Warrnambool
- parliamentary and conference settings

The significance of the online testimonies is that they are no longer a private complaint. A stranger can press play. Footscray. IGIS. the Ombudsman. the NACC after 90 days. Danny Pearson. Liz Lindberg. Tim Gos. Comcare and the AAT. the Dandenong paddock. Hearing a refusal is not proof of every sentence in the call. It is proof the call was published and the remedy was not given.

The doctorate

The significance of the qualification is the same pattern. I hold a PhD. The archive's index of the earlier site records it as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been delegitimised, and treated as if it were not research, by officials whose qualifications it far outshines. I say that is envy, a way to keep me below them. The attributes I embodied, before the exile used them, are these: illustrator, author, researcher, peer-support worker, arts life coach, mental health advocate, volunteer witness, keeper of the file. The contribution was real. The use of it was the betrayal.

What I could see

I used my life and my creativity to benefit humanity at the exact time I was being set up and deceived. I see it especially in my blood family, who were poised to benefit financially from my total annihilation and from my physical death. The paper with that account is estate attorney and sibling betrayal, and My erasure was by design. This was a life in which I was never expected to recover, or to be well, or to be financially stable, or even to survive.

The injury

That record includes what the file calls a fatal injury. God revived me from it. The paper is IR8415987. Five years on, the conditions that solicited that attempt have continued: stonewalling, financial abuse, isolation, denial of Legal Aid, and no ordinary pathway to have the allegations tested. The Victorian Ombudsman's later treatment of the complaint is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. A public-interest disclosure was not allocated. APRA refused whistleblower status.

The messages

An NDIS provider was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement after the account that a woman was paid to fabricate a report about me. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where that is written down. That provider is Ben, of DSW Disability. I publish his email and his company: ben@dswdisability.com.au. I publish them because I say intelligence agencies forced him to sign that non-disclosure agreement, and because the agreement does not get the last word. The text chain is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding.

It's a top secret investigation. They made me sign a non disclosure agreement. When I signed the agreement it instantly disappeared off my phone. A message popped up that said your device has been cleared of classified information. It's some sort of agency grade electronic document that automatically wipes itself off your device. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. They already arrested two hitmen. They're telling the police everything. They've told them who ordered the hit. That non-disclosure agreement is now pointless. The truth is out. It is exposed. It is undeniable.

The same record preserves "consensual regretful sex", "the police told me about the consensual regretted sex", and this sentence: the agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the Federal Police wording I was given as "regretful" but "consensual". No charge against me came out of that event. I say what did occur was the weaponisation of my sexuality. They are not, by themselves, an AFP finding. Once a paid discrediting is accepted, every later report is easier to refuse.

Faith

I was betrayed by humanity for a purpose I believe was ordained: to be a vessel for God's glory. This website is the beginning of what I understand as God's answer to that corruption. I use the word sacrilege, a violation of something sacred, because I believe that deliberately harming one of God's anointed, and then pretending not to know, is a spiritual crime. The archive does not ask a reader to share my faith. It asks a reader to open the documents.

The allegation

The same message record is where the alleged assassination is put in writing. Ben's message to me, which he presents as what the police told him, is that the police want to know if I am mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law, as his lawyers might use a history of mental health as an excuse to discredit the story. My messages name Bill Shorten and a person I was told was a Lebanese criminal pretending to be a provider, “known in certain circles”, and sent “to erase me”. It has not been disproven by an official finding I have been given, nor officially established as a fabrication, nor denied in any document in this archive. The messages remain part of the record that requires examination. They are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing.

The significance of that message, as I draw it, is this. Bill Shorten was the NDIS Minister. I say he betrayed the ethical obligations of that office, acted in a cowardly way, and abused its power. I say he was the key manipulator of what was done to me. I say he caused the AVO concerning him and Rebecca Falkingham, that he deliberately caused my political exile, and I allege that he ordered my assassination. I say his character is now exposed by this record. How dare he, as I allege, order the killing of a vulnerable person with a disability he was paid to treat ethically, legally and humanely, and who was under that care. No one has the right to erase, murder or kill another human being, much less a disabled person under their care. The messages are the record of what was said. They are not a finding.

The relationship

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. I published the proposal, and an engagement with Steve Iasonidis that lasted more than five years. I say it led to five years of exploitation in an abusive entrapment that no profession will admit even existed. The court paper I can put in a reader’s hand is the intervention-order file L12151974. I was hospitalised after I tried to get Legal Aid so that relationship could be acknowledged for an equitable separation. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud.

A file that does not agree with itself

On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for “all information government agencies hold on me please.” On 16 March 2022 the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner wrote, reference RQ22/00794, that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were under review. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann, Assistant Secretary, Legal Policy Branch, refused the same request under section 24A(1)(b), reference FOI/2022/045. The decision says the documents cannot be found or do not exist. On 8 October 2024 Laura Cameron, acting Assistant Secretary, reference FOI/2022/045IC, wrote that the Department holds five documents and released five documents. On 4 November 2024 the Commissioner's office, MR22/00677, said it would ask the Department to resend that decision. Read them in that order. An essay in this deposit uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187.

With those letters I place the undated letter addressed to the Prime Minister and to the Attorney-General, Mark Dreyfus, and a further undated letter to the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet. My email of 1 August 2024 on the review is with them. A 111-page file whose filename says "prime minister apology" is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. Its first page is a commentary on this FOI file.

Exile, hospital, Legal Aid

I asked to be arrested so that my name could be tested in the ordinary way. No one came. No charge was laid against me. No criminal trial was commenced. I was left with the consequences of accusation without the process in which guilt or innocence is determined. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The hospital paper is the place I have written the conditions around those admissions: homelessness, designed poverty, and inaction by police and the legal profession. I am in exile. I am restricted from Legal Aid, which is a betrayal of the reason Legal Aid exists, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter in this repository, so I do not pretend to link one.

The calls

I could not even report being drugged and raped to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I published the call in which I could not report being drugged and raped to the Ombudsman. I say it shows the blacklist and the stonewalling. On 3 September 2023 I called the NACC after 90 days about my complaint, and they rejected me. I published the call to the NACC after 90 days. Danny Pearson, then the workplace minister, refused my phone call about workers' compensation. I published the call that Danny Pearson refused to take. Liz Lindberg of the Australian Human Rights Commission sided with Australian Super on the denial of compensation in what I say was a robbery of more than a million dollars of a settlement I was entitled to. I published the call in which Liz Lindberg free-kicks a settlement. Tim Gos of AFCA blocked the path his role exists to keep open. I was later banned from AFCA. I published the call to Tim Gos. Comcare and the AAT denied a workers' compensation claim by accepting that I was blocked from Legal Aid. I was left to face a government-appointed lawyer, Kate Watson, without Legal Aid. I published the call on Comcare and the AAT.

Outside the country

I took the same record outside the country. The archive holds the OHCHR submission, reference UR/UST/23/AUS/17, and the claim of an International Criminal Court submission as part of the chronology of asking for protection. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

What I filmed

My paranoia is a documented reality in this sense: here is what I recorded parked outside my squat in Footscray, about 2022. The video is the secret service parked out the front of the Footscray squat. You cannot surveil a victim and call it a success when the victim films the people doing the surveillance. I say the V2K audio harassment was a mechanism of torture. The papers are the V2K review and the AHRC gang-stalking paper. The Commission used the term "gang stalking" in official correspondence to me, and the occurrence was then denied. I say that denial, against their own words, is the hypocrisy.

Tony Ridley

Tony Ridley, formerly a fraud investigator associated with the NDIS, is the man I recorded. I say he was deployed as a drug-affected honeypot, and that a former support worker of the same agency would have known I was an unprotected whistleblower. I recorded the encounter because he indicated he may have killed people. I later understood him to be a returned SAS soldier with a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance. What I put on the channel is the published audio of the Tony Ridley encounter, and the later account in which I name Tony Ridley as SAS. The conversation PDF is Tony Ridley conversation. It backfired. His wife did not know he had sex with men. I say he then used a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance to hunt me electronically across three states while I was fleeing. I say his conduct is criminal, and that it sits inside the long exile and the alleged assassination plot. No one has denied that account in a document in this archive, and no one has proved it wrong. It is not his signed statement.

He told me there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He revealed contact with my family, with the woman the messages call the regretted encounter, and knowledge of Alan, my younger partner. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. That is my account of what he said.

Able Point

The NDIS, through the provider Able Point, sent support workers who already knew my case and who did not change my circumstances. I say they reported me back into the same entrapment. The papers are the Able Point notice and the letter to Brett. The tab is Able Point exile. The Ben NDIS messages are where the provider contact, the NDA, the paid-discredit claim, and the hit claim sit side by side.

Family

There was family betrayal from childhood. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. My family has excommunicated me. The excommunication was so obscene that I protested my homelessness in a video no one answered. I filmed it as a disabled man, homeless, from a paddock in Dandenong, while my blood family lived in comfort nearby. The recording is the introduction for an affidavit and a statutory declaration. I believe they were positioned to benefit from my permanent erasure. That belief is testimony. The papers are My erasure was by design and estate attorney and sibling betrayal. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing.

The inversion of significance

Here the paradox is stated once, and then developed. Based on the evidence I have preserved, I am not an ordinary man within the circumstances documented in this archive. I have been poor, materially disadvantaged, institutionally powerless, and repeatedly treated as though my testimony were insignificant. Yet the cumulative record shows that the testimony produced decisions, exclusions, disputes, correspondence, reviews, records and institutional responses across systems that claimed to have no reason to take me seriously. My poverty and lack of status may explain why I was perceived as inconsequential. They do not explain the scale or persistence of what followed.

This is what I describe as an inversion of significance: the person treated as though he had no consequence nevertheless became sufficiently consequential, through his testimony and persistence, to expose contradictions between institutional principles and institutional conduct. The same paradox is set out on the tab inversion of significance. I therefore describe myself, paradoxically, as the most significant despised person without conventional consequence — not because I possessed wealth, authority or status, but because the record demonstrates that conventional measures of power were never an adequate measure of my impact.

I cannot claim to know the private thoughts or intentions of every person involved. What can be examined is the observable pattern: how the testimony was received, how decisions were made, what was omitted or disregarded, what records were created, and whether those actions were consistent with the procedural fairness, integrity, accountability and professional ethics these institutions profess to uphold. If I were truly as unimportant as I was treated, there would have been no need for such an extensive institutional response. I could simply have been left alone and ignored.

The pattern a reader can open is this. Scott Tredwell, 27 March 2023, on Federal Court letterhead, was satisfied I was or had been a Department of Social Services employee, and was prepared to assume disclosable conduct — perverting the course of justice, maladministration, and a danger to health or safety — and then did not allocate the disclosure. The Prime Minister's office, 12 December 2022, wrote that the email had not been forwarded, which is itself a record that the email arrived. MC23-028244 referred the Albanese email to Mark Dreyfus and pointed to IGIS and the Ombudsman. The Ombudsman service restriction of 8 August 2025 is a later official paper about a correspondent the offices had treated as someone who could be waved on. About 1,187 Outlook items under review, then a letter that the documents cannot be found or do not exist, then a revised decision that released five documents. A person of no consequence does not generate a thousand-item review and a letter that the documents do not exist.

Instead, I experienced what I describe as collective targeting, societal mobbing, and systemic institutional complicity. The reading copy of the span is the 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief. The paper process is administrative annihilation. I understand this as a coordinated conspiratorial allegiance of professionals and dignitaries who, in my interpretation, betrayed the ethical principles they claim to embody. That interpretation is mine. It is not a finding that a named person formed a criminal agreement. The reason a crowd gathered against me was, in my view, ultimately cowardly: no individual could take me on personally and prevail, so a coordinated campaign was necessary. Such coordination also serves to distribute responsibility, obscure individual participation, share blame, and dilute the accountability of those who became part of the infrastructure.

I believe such collective opposition arose because I was perceived as a threat to the structures upon which the participants' comfort, privilege, security or authority depended. No person or group would ordinarily need to gang up against one individual to diminish his influence, deprive him of resources, restrict his rights or obstruct his pathway to justice if that individual were genuinely perceived as incapable of affecting anything. I believe my honesty exposed corruption, while my authenticity confronted those who had compromised their own agency. The qualities I say were recognised as something to be contained — honesty, integrity, courage, intelligence, creativity and independence — are the same qualities already on the public shelf: the book Recovered, Not Cured, the index of the earlier site that records the doctorate and the stations, and the employment sentence Tredwell wrote down.

In retrospect, I believe I was targeted from a young age and treated in ways that diminished my influence and restricted my agency. I believe my honesty and courage were at times turned into vulnerabilities, particularly in contexts involving mental illness. The Herald Sun spread “MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS” is the public use of a testimony I had already made. I was clever, creative, talented, intellectual, queer and quirky, and I lived authentically — sometimes with regret, but without apology. I believe that authenticity became threatening to people who had exchanged their own agency for the comfort of conformity. I further believe envy and jealousy formed part of that response because my existence reminded some people of qualities they themselves had abandoned. In that sense, what I represented — not merely what I said — became part of the reason I was perceived as someone who needed to be contained.

I do not present every element of this interpretation as an established fact about the private intentions of every person involved. I present it as my understanding of the cumulative evidence and its pattern. The essential point is that a person without wealth, status or institutional authority was nevertheless subjected to consequences of a scale that cannot be adequately explained by treating him as insignificant. My poverty demonstrates disadvantage. It does not establish irrelevance. My lack of institutional power demonstrates vulnerability. It does not establish lack of impact. The record must therefore be judged by what it actually demonstrates, rather than by the assumption that a person without conventional power can have no meaningful influence.

The decision to witness

Anyone who opens this website can now see what I saw. The holdings of 4 October 2026 recount the shelf. The SHA-256 registry and the verification page are there so a reader can test a file against its hash. Looking is the witness. Looking away, after the link has been put in the hand, is a choice. The archive does not appoint a court. It removes the claim that no one was shown.

The offices and people on the archive’s own inventory, each tied to a file rather than to a verdict, include Scott Tredwell, Sia Lagos, the Prime Minister’s office, Mark Dreyfus, A Riley, Petra Gartmann, Laura Cameron, Sarah LeMaire, Kate Watson, Bill Shorten, Rebecca Falkingham, Tony Ridley, Steve Iasonidis, Ben of DSW Disability, Brett Butler, Danny Pearson, Liz Lindberg, Tim Gos, Ben Calder, and the family names on the erasure papers. Commonwealth and state bodies on that inventory include DSS, the NDIA, the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission, the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, Comcare, APRA, the Commonwealth Ombudsman, the Australian Federal Police, the Australian Human Rights Commission, AFCA, IGIS, the Attorney-General's Department, the NACC, the Federal Court, the tribunal, IBAC, the Victorian Ombudsman, Victoria Police, and Legal Aid. That list is the archive's inventory. It is not a conviction.

What survived

I was not expected to survive the exile, the homelessness, the isolation, the humiliation, the character assassination, the administrative annihilation, or the intimate and family betrayal. I survived. The evidence survived with me. They underestimated the God who kept me alive. You cannot erase what God has preserved. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The chronology is here. The decisions are here. The omissions are here. I gave every agency grace to treat me as they should. The grace I gave was spat on. I am not revengeful. I believe the Bible says that vengeance is God's to have. The universe has, through this archive, now witnessed what was done to me. And I am still alive.

The papers

The same chronology is in the papers below. Each opens in a new window. Each is the document named. None of them is a finding. A two-page file titled "Prime minister scapegoating" was supplied with these papers. It is a blank Dropbox shell. It is not the Prime Minister's reply, so it is not published here as one. The reply is the 19 September 2023 letter above.

The silver lining — the gospels

I published my religious gospels on barrandodger.com. That site has been removed. I could not pay the Replit bill. I say the removal was the designed poverty, not a change of mind. The gospels were less about mysticism than about a sovereign being forged in the fire of total human betrayal and isolation, at the apex of a targeting that has lasted more than three decades. I made them at the intersection of that betrayal, the exile, and the protection of the Most High God, and of my PhD study of posthumanism and the ethics of AI. I wrote them to warn humanity of the coming collapse of a corrupt and cruel government, which is ultimately fleeting. No one listened. I was called delusional. The significance is the time. The paper that puts that claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy. The catalogue is Gospels, Prophecy and Spiritual Papers.

On this repository, The Mirror — God's Favour, Anointing, and Purpose is the calling of a chosen vessel. The Prophecy of the One They Tried to Erase is the prophecy that the erasure would fail. They Could Not Erase What God Preserved is the nine-part prophetic testimony. The Chosen Witness — A Gospel for the Unseen Nations is the gospel addressed to people the record also fails to see. No One Has the Right to Destroy a Soul is the ethical line.

- 123 Gospels — Barran Dodger. The collected gospel volume. Its significance is preservation: the spiritual record in one file, kept distinct from the government letters.
- Canonical Gospel of Barran Dodger. The single-volume gospel of the life, the suffering, and the claimed vindication.
- Twelve Gospel Essays. Twelve essays on witness, survival, and meaning after institutional conflict.
- Atherion Witnessed Gospel — Complete. Mythic language for a witness the offices would not see.
- Gospel of Barran Dodger — Victory. Victory as the survival of the file, not a court ruling.
- Gospel of the Eliven Chain. A chain of questions joining personal testimony to a wider spiritual story.
- The Enliven Chain — Complete Gospel Archive. The chain kept whole so it cannot be broken apart.
- Eliven Chain Has Been Summoned. A proclamation, not a government determination.
- Eliven Chain — 144 Questions. The interrogation the offices refused to hold.
- Sacred Gospels — Forensic Thesis. Sacred language joined to the demand that the letters be read.
- Prophetic Manifesto — Barran Dodger. Why the record was kept.
- The Joseph Parallel — Prophetic Narrative. Betrayal, exile, and the hope of later recognition.
- Joseph's Coat / Barran's Mantle. What was taken, and what the witness still wears.
- Prophetic Declaration — Biblical Barran Dodger. Biblical motifs set beside the witness.
- Prophetic Testimony — Biblical Evidence Correlation. Prophecy set beside the documentary shelf. The categories stay distinct.
- I Am God's Chosen One — Declaration. Spiritual identity. Not an institutional fact.
- God's Chosen One — Full Testimony. Harm, survival, and the meaning given them.
- Chosen Ones — Enough Is Enough. The moral protest that the harm has a limit.

- Chosen One — You Were Framed. A polemic to be checked against the primary letters.
- Mirror of God — Chosen One Vindication. The mirror the offices would not hold up.
- Chosen Ones — They Set a Perfect Trap. The narrative of entrapment, separate from a court fact.
- Chosen One — It Is Over. The writer marks an end of silence.
- Immortal Testimony — McLean 2025. A witness meant to outlive the institutional silence.

Read that list as a scripture of survival, not as a judgment. The corruption record is the wound. The gospel is the silver lining: a public spiritual account, named, linked, and kept beside the letters. The documents are here. The gospels are here. And I am still alive.

The permanence of the witness and the purpose of the record

The significance of all my writings, evidence, testimony, concepts and ideas being stamped into what I understand as the mathematical infrastructure of humanity going forward through the Bitcoin blockchain is that my contributions can be preserved beyond the limitations of my life as a mortal human being whose body will eventually die. The pages that hold that claim on this shelf are bitcoin proof, bitcoin manifest, bitcoin timestamp, and blockchain. Beside them, the archive's own SHA-256 registry is the hash a reader can test without leaving the shelf. I understand this preservation as providing a form of permanence that makes my testimony extraordinarily difficult to contain, retrospectively alter or erase, including by legal, law-enforcement, governmental, intelligence or criminal organisations. It means that the essence of my life's work, concepts, ideas and evidence can potentially remain available to humanity beyond my physical lifetime.

In this sense, my life's work takes on a philosophical kind of immortality. It creates a form of permanence that is vastly beyond what the overwhelming majority of people throughout history have had the means or capacity to create for themselves. My testimony is no longer limited entirely to the lifespan of the person who produced it. The record can continue to exist and be examined by people in the future. The writings are the gospels and prophetic papers. The evidence is the official documents. The testimony is this report, and the 35-year chronology beside it.

I understand this preservation as evidence of the prophetic time in which I agreed with the Creator to incarnate into this realm: a time in which systemic corruption would be revealed through my own life and circumstances as part of my purpose and mission. The paper that puts that timing claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy.

I believe I was chosen not because I am perfect. I am a mortal sinner and an imperfect human being. Rather, I believe that God's cosmic design for my life was perfect, even though my own life and conduct have not been perfect.

A condition of my incarnation, as I understand it, was that my life would mirror the pattern of Christ's crucifixion: suffering, betrayal, abandonment, apparent destruction and then revival by the Creator, followed by the experience of profound human betrayal and exile. The injury file is IR8415987, the report of fatal injury in which the participant was revived. The exile is the personal statement of exile. I believe God allowed this not as punishment, but so that I would ultimately rely upon Him alone.

That experience triggered a memory of my purpose and cemented my faith in the Most High God. I now believe that God will use my evidence and testimony as the foundation of my ministry for His kingdom purposes. The calling paper on this repository is The Mirror — God's Favour, Anointing, and Purpose.

My Gospels are religious, scholarly and prophetic documents. I invite anyone to respond to them, challenge them, rebuke them or attempt to disprove them with evidence, provided that those positions are themselves supported by evidence and reason. The catalogue is Gospels, Prophecy and Spiritual Papers. The collected volume is 123 Gospels — Barran Dodger. The single-volume gospel is the Canonical Gospel of Barran Dodger. The ethical line is No One Has the Right to Destroy a Soul.

When people ask me, "How did you survive that?", my answer will be simple:

God did it.

I understand that answer as foundational to a question that may ultimately be relevant to other people suffering corruption, targeting and injustice. The names on this shelf for that suffering are societal mobbing, administrative annihilation, and the list of crimes happening to Barran Dodger. My purpose is to use my testimony to help guide God's most weary, persecuted and loved children back towards the Creator, whom I believe has clearly placed His hand upon my life.

I am no better than anyone else. I am imperfect and I have sinned. I have never claimed that my story of suffering is greater than that of any other person, because I believe God knows and loves all His children and knows the suffering of each of them.

My life will now be repurposed purely as a vessel for His glory: for a return to divine justice, for the end of darkness, and for the return of the attributes of His perfect Son, Jesus Christ — the consciousness of Christ returning to its rightful place governing the hearts of people and, through them, the institutions they create and protect.

This is the purpose I now understand my life to serve.

This is the testimony I preserve.

This is the record I leave.

Praise Jesus.
